

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Amend and enlarge the powers of the Acts relating to the Navigation of the River Shannon; and for other purposes relating thereto. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-seven, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the navigation of the River Shannon," (in this Act called the Act of 1835,) and by that Act Commissioners were appointed to carry the same into effect: 5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 67. (1835).

And whereas a further Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the navigation of the River Shannon," (in this Act called the Act of 1839,) whereby certain works were authorised to be constructed, subject to such alterations, additions, or reductions as might from time to time be found necessary: 2 & 3 Vict.
c. 61. (1839).

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 86, intituled "An Act to extend and consolidate the powers hitherto exercised by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and to appoint additional commissioners," (in this Act called the Act of 1846,) it is amongst other things enacted, that from and after the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the time being should be the commissioners for the execution of the Acts of 1835 and 1839; and all the powers, authorities, and privileges, rights, titles, and interests, then or theretofore vested in the commissioners for the execution of the Acts of 1835 and 1839 should vest in and devolve upon, and should be respectively used, exercised, and enjoyed by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the time being, who should, for the purposes of the said Acts, be and be deemed to be in the place and stead of the persons

A.D. 1874 theretofore being commissioners for the execution of the said Acts :

And whereas the works by the aforesaid Acts authorised have been generally carried into effect, but large tracts of land bordering on the said river still remain subject to injurious flooding, and it would be of great public and local advantage if further works were executed by which the said lands would be relieved, facilities afforded for the relief of other lands now subject to be injuriously flooded on tributaries of the said river, and the navigation at the same time improved : 10

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title. 1. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Shannon Act, 1874," and the Shannon Acts of 1835, 1839, and 1846 may respectively be cited separately as the Shannon Act of 1835, 1839, and 1846, and all the Acts mentioned in this section may be cited under the short title of the Shannon Acts, 1835 to 1874. 15

Definition of terms. 2. The words "the Treasury" when used in this Act shall mean the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two or more of them. 20

The words "the Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the time being.

The word "lands" shall have the meaning assigned to that word in section one hundred and fifty-nine of the five and six Victoria, chapter eighty-nine. 25

The word "person" in this Act shall comprehend all corporations sole or aggregate, or any number of persons united in partnership.

Commissioners of Public Works to be Commissioners for this Act. Limits of works. 3. The Commissioners shall carry into effect the objects and powers of this Act. 30

4. The works to be executed under the provisions of this Act shall be confined to the lower division of the said river Shannon between Athlone and Worlds End, and also in connexion therewith works at Athlone for the regulation of the water of Lough Rec. 35

Funds provided. 5. For the purposes of the works by this Act authorised the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from time to time direct to be issued, on the certificate of the Commissioners, out of the funds accruing under the provisions of the

A.D. 1874.

Acts twenty-four and twenty-five Victoria, chapter eighty-five, and twenty-nine and thirty Victoria, chapter seventy-three, and placed to the credit of the Commissioners from time to time with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the 5 sum of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds, such sum to be a charge on the lands to be relieved from inundation or otherwise improved, to be secured and made repayable as hereinafter provided, and the remainder of the cost of the said works shall be defrayed by moneys to be provided from time to time by
 10 Parliament; [provided always, that the entire cost of the said authorised works shall not exceed the sum of three hundred thousand pounds; and provided also, that half the amount of the monies from time to time advanced in manner aforesaid shall be a charge on the said lands so to be improved as aforesaid.

15 6. Previously to undertaking any works under this Act the Commissioners shall from time to time submit for approval of the Treasury plans, specifications, and estimates of the works proposed to be executed under this Act; and so soon as conveniently may be after such plans, specifications, and estimates have been so approved, 20 the Commissioners shall cause to be deposited at the Shannon Navigation Office, Athlone, or elsewhere, as they may consider convenient, a survey and valuation of the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act, describing in general terms and by reference to maps or schedules, or otherwise as the 25 Commissioners may think fit and proper, the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act, and specifying the proprietors of such lands respectively, and the respective amounts to be charged on the lands respectively of each proprietor under this Act.
 30 The plans and specifications required by this section are hereinafter included under the term "plans," and the survey and valuation, including the specification of the amounts to be charged upon the lands, are hereinafter included in the term "valuation."

Plans of proposed works to be submitted to Treasury, and valuation to be made of lands to be charged.

7. The Commissioners shall, as soon as may be after the passing 35 of this Act, cause the valuation to be printed, and a copy to be deposited in their office, and another copy thereof to be deposited with the clerk of every union wherein the lands to be charged, or any part thereof, are situate, and such clerk of the union is hereby authorised and required to receive the same, and all persons shall have liberty to inspect the same on payment of sixpence; and when such copy has been so deposited the Commissioners shall cause notice thereof to be inserted in some one or more

Valuation to be deposited for public inspection.

A.D. 1874. — newspapers circulating in the district in the vicinity whereof the lands are situate; and the Commissioners shall by the same or a separate notice require all persons who may desire to object to the said valuation in respect of the description of the lands charged or of the sums charged thereon to lodge such objections at such place and before such time as is specified in such notice; and the Commissioners shall also in the said notice state that they will proceed to hear any such objection which may be made, and finally settle the valuation at such time and place as may be specified in such notice. 5 10

Commissioners to attend and hear objections.

8. The Commissioners, or one of them, shall attend at the appointed time and place, and examine into the matter of any such objection, and hear all such proper evidence as may be offered to them or him in respect thereof, and make such alterations (if any) in such valuation as they or he think fit, and may adjourn such attendance from time to time and to such place as they shall think fit, and shall settle and sign such valuation. 15

Commissioners to give notice.

9. The Commissioners, when they have settled such valuation, shall cause notice of such settlement to be given in the "Dublin Gazette," and in some one or more newspapers circulating in the counties of Westmeath, Roscommon, King's County, County Tipperary, Galway, Clare, Limerick, and Longford, and by such notice the proprietors of the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act shall be called upon to transmit to the Commissioners in Dublin, in such form and subject to such regulations as the Commissioners may direct, their assent or dissent to the execution of the works under this Act. 20 25

Works not to be commenced until assent of proprietors had.

10. No works shall be commenced under this Act unless the reputed proprietors of two thirds or more in value of the land proposed to be improved assent to the execution of the works by this Act authorised, and signify such assent in writing under their hands respectively to the Commissioners within six months from the date of the publication of such notice as aforesaid by the Commissioners in the "Dublin Gazette;" and the Commissioners shall, immediately upon the passing of this Act, take such steps as may seem to them desirable for obtaining such assent. 30 35

Incorporation of certain sections of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 89. (Irish Drainage Act), as to proprietors.

11. The twenty-third, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, and twenty-eighth sections of the Act fifth and sixth Victoria, chapter eighty-nine, are incorporated in this Act, and the definition of proprietor contained in section one hundred and fifty-nine of that Act shall apply to this Act. 40

12. On receiving such assents as herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to proceed with the works so approved by the Treasury, subject to such alterations or reduction therein as may from time to time be made therein, pursuant to the provisions in this Act contained.

A.D. 1874.

Power to proceed with the works.

13. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners from time to time to make such alterations, additions, or reductions in or to the works sanctioned under this Act as may from time to time be approved by the Treasury.

To provide for alterations.

14. Subject to the provisions of this Act, sections from eighteen to thirty-one, both inclusive, of the Act of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh Victoria, chapter eighty-eight, under the head "General Powers of Drainage Boards," shall be incorporated with this Act, and all such powers shall and may be exercised by the Commissioners in carrying out the provisions of this Act; and such last-mentioned sections shall be read as if the word "Commissioners" had been inserted throughout such sections instead of the words "Drainage Board": Provided nevertheless, that the arbitrator to be appointed under the said Act shall be appointed by the Treasury.

Incorporation of Irish Drainage Act. 26 & 27 Vict. c. 88.

15. As soon as conveniently may be after the works by this Act authorised have been completed, the Commissioners shall prepare a draft award, in which they shall set forth the several parcels or portions of land drained and improved, as referred to and specified in the survey and valuation herein-before mentioned, the respective areas of each of the said parcels, and the original and increased values thereof; and such award shall also specify the due proportion half-yearly chargeable in respect of each such parcel of land, of the amount by this Act directed to be charged upon the lands for the drainage and improvement thereof by the works by this Act authorised and provided, and shall also specify the lands of the same denomination, and belonging to same proprietors, or settled to like uses, to be also held chargeable with the amount in each case repayable as herein-after provided, and shall also set forth such other matters and things as to the Commissioners shall seem fit and proper.

On completion of works Commissioners to prepare draft award.

16. When such draft award as aforesaid shall have been prepared, the Commissioners shall cause a copy thereof to be deposited with the clerk of each of the several unions wherein the lands drained and improved, or any part thereof, may be situated; and such clerks of unions are hereby authorised and required to receive the same; and the Commissioners shall cause notice of such lodgment to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers usually circulated in the counties or districts in which such several unions are situated once in each week for three successive weeks ; and the Commissioners shall also in such notice require all persons being proprietors of lands charged as being improved who may desire to object to such award to lodge their objections at such time and place as shall be therein specified, and they shall also in the said notice state that they will proceed to hear and inquire into any objections which may be lodged at such time and place, or times and places, as shall in such notice be named. 10

17. The Commissioners, or one of them, shall attend at such time and place, or times and places, so appointed, and shall examine into the matter of any objections to the award which shall have been lodged, and shall hear all proper evidence relative thereto, and may adjourn such attendance from time to time, and shall make such alteration as may to them seem proper, and finally settle said award : Provided always, that the whole amount by this Act directed to be charged on the lands which the works authorised are designed to relieve from injurious inundations shall, notwithstanding any alteration which on the hearing of any such objections it may be deemed proper to make, be so charged. 15 20

18. Such award when finally settled by the Commissioners, with proper schedules, map, or plan describing the lands therein to which such award shall relate, shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland ; and such award, when so finally settled and enrolled, shall be binding and conclusive on all parties ; and a copy thereof, certified by the proper officer of Her Majesty's Rolls Office, shall be conclusive evidence that all the requisitions of this Act in relation thereto were complied with. 25 30

19. The several lands mentioned in the said award shall from the date thereof become charged with the payment to Her Majesty of an annual rentcharge of five pounds for every one hundred pounds charged on the said lands respectively, and so in proportion for every lesser amount, to be payable for the term of thirty-five years ; such rentcharge to be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the fifth day of April and tenth day of October in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the first of such days which shall happen after the date of said award : Provided always, that where the gross sum chargeable by the said award upon any particular parcel or denomination of land shall not exceed the sum of one hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners by the said award 35 40 to fix and determine the instalments by which such sum, together with interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum from the date of said award, shall be repaid; and such instalments shall be chargeable and recoverable in like manner as the rentcharge 5 aforesaid.

20. Every such rentcharge or instalment shall take priority of all charges and incumbrances whatsoever and whensoever made, and of all rent payable out of the said lands, save and except quitrents and rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and also save all charges prior in 10 date (if any) created under the authority or provisions of any Act of Parliament heretofore passed; and section one of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth Victoria, chapter twenty-six, intituled "An " Act to secure the repayment of public moneys advanced for the " drainage and improvement of lands and other like objects in 15 " Ireland," shall extend to and include charges created under the provisions of this Act.

21. The rentcharge aforesaid, charged by virtue of this Act upon any lands improved under this Act, shall be held to be chargeable upon such other lands being part of the same denomination or 20 townland, and belonging to the same proprietor, or settled to the like uses as may, by the award of the Commissioners, be made chargeable therewith, subject as to such last-mentioned lands to the full amount of all incumbrances affecting the same at the date of such award.

22. Any rentcharge payable under this Act shall be paid to the Commissioners, or to such persons and in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time appoint, and the receipt of the Commissioners or their accountant, or any other persons to whom 25 any rentcharge directed to be paid, shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

23. The thirty-ninth, fortieth, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fifth, forty-sixth, forty-ninth, fiftieth, fifty-first, fifty-second, fifty-third, fifty-sixth, and fifty-seventh sections of the Act tenth
35 Victoria, chapter thirty-two, being an Act to facilitate the improvement of landed property in Ireland, and section one of the Act twelve and thirteen Victoria, chapter fifty nine, and the second section of the Act thirty-five and thirty-six Victoria, chapter thirty-one, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this 40 Act, save that every act in any of said sections directed to be done by or to the Paymaster of Civil Service shall be done by or to the Commissioners, and shall be as effectual to all intents and

Provide for the periodical Survey of Merchant Ships, and for so marking Ships as to diminish the practice of overloading. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the survey of shipping, and to make provisions for preventing the overloading of ships :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as "The Shipping Survey Act, 1874." Short title.

2. The Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, as the same are amended by this Act, and this Act, shall be construed as one Act, and may be cited together as the "Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1874." Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, and this Act, to be construed together.

3. In this Act—

The expression "British ship" shall mean any British ship as defined by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, which does not belong to any class of ships specified in the first schedule to this Act annexed : Interpretation.

The expression "British port" shall mean any port in the United Kingdom.

4. Every British ship shall be surveyed in the manner by this Act provided, and no such ship shall proceed on any voyage from a British port unless the owner or master of such ship has such certificate from the Board of Trade as is by this Act prescribed, and which certificate is in force, and any officer of Customs may detain any British ship until such certificate is produced. If any British ship proceeds on a voyage without such certificate, the owner and master of such ship shall each incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and a further penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every day during which such voyage shall continue.

5. The owner of every British ship shall call upon the surveyor appointed by the Board of Trade for the district in which such [Bill 11.] British ships to be surveyed.

Mode of survey and declaration.

A.D. 1874. ship is, to survey the same, and on payment in manner prescribed by this Act by or on behalf of such owner of such fees not exceeding those specified in the second schedule to this Act annexed as the Board of Trade direct, such surveyor shall survey such ship accordingly, and on the completion of such survey shall, if satisfied with the result of his survey, deliver to the owner or master of such ship a declaration of survey in the form prescribed by the Board of Trade and containing the particulars specified in the third schedule to this Act annexed, and such owner or master shall, within four days after delivery of such declaration of survey, transmit the same to the Board of Trade.

In case any such surveyor is not satisfied with the result of such survey he shall deliver to the owner or master of such ship a requisition in writing containing the particulars of the works or other matters in his judgment necessary to render such ship seaworthy, and such owner or master shall, before he receives a declaration of survey, comply with the terms of such requisition to the satisfaction of such surveyor, unless the Board of Trade shall, after appeal, otherwise order and direct: Provided always, that if in the judgment of such owner or master such works or matters or any of them are unnecessary for the purpose aforesaid, he may appeal to the Board of Trade, who may, if they think fit, hear the said surveyor and the owner, or his representative, and the surveyor of the book under which such ship was built (if any), and the Board of Trade shall thereupon decide as to the necessity of such works or matters or any of them, and the decision of the Board of Trade shall be final and conclusive.

Provided always, that where any British ship has been surveyed by a surveyor either of the Committee of Management of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping, or of the Liverpool Underwriters Registry for Iron Vessels, or of any other British or foreign corporation or association for the time being approved by the Board of Trade for the purposes of this section, a declaration of survey, in the form prescribed by the Board of Trade, and containing the particulars specified in the third schedule to this Act annexed, signed by such surveyor or by the secretary of such committee or registry, may be transmitted to the Board of Trade in lieu of, and the same shall for the purposes of obtaining a certificate under this Act be of the same force and effect as a declaration of survey by one of the surveyors of the Board of Trade.

6. On receipt of a declaration of survey of any British ship the Board of Trade shall, if satisfied that the provisions of this Act in relation thereto have been complied with, send to the owner or other person named for the purpose in such declaration of survey a certificate in duplicate to the effect that the provisions of this Act, with respect to the survey of such ship, have been complied with, which certificate shall state—

A.D. 1874.

- (1.) The limits (if any) beyond which the ship is not fit to proceed ;
- 5 (2.) The period during which the ship is fit for service ;
- (3.) The date at which the certificate shall expire ; and
- (4.) The minimum depth of freeboard the ship must, regard being had to the subsequent provisions of this Act, have in salt and fresh water when loaded, measuring from the under
- 10 side deck planking amidships.

7. A certificate shall not be in force for the purposes of this Act after the date specified in such certificate for its expiration, or for any voyage to commence within two months previous to such date, nor after notice is given by the Board of Trade to the owner or 15 master of the ship to which it relates that the Board of Trade have suspended or cancelled it.

Continuance of certificates.

8. The Board of Trade may suspend or cancel a certificate in any case in which they are of opinion—

Suspension and cancellation of certificate.

- 20 (1.) That any declaration of survey on which such certificate of survey was founded has been fraudulently or erroneously made or obtained, or is in any particular false or incorrect ; or
- (2.) That the certificate has been issued upon false or erroneous information ; or
- 25 (3.) That since the making of the declaration or the issuing of the certificate, the hull, equipments, or machinery has or have sustained any injury, or has or have otherwise become defective or insufficient.

And the Board of Trade may, whenever they think fit, require the 30 owner of any ship to have such ship again surveyed, and to transmit to them a declaration of such fresh survey before they remove the suspension of such certificate or grant a fresh one in lieu thereof.

9. The Board of Trade may require any certificate that has expired or been suspended or cancelled to be delivered up at such time to

35 such person and in such manner as they direct, and if any owner or master without reasonable cause, proof whereof shall lie on him, fails to comply in any respect with such requirement, he shall for each such failure incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds. Pro-

40 vided that if a ship be absent from the United Kingdom at the time when her certificate expires or is suspended or cancelled a penalty shall not be incurred for non-delivery of her certificate under this section until she has returned to the United Kingdom.

cate.

A.D. 1874.

Posting up of certificates.

10. The owner or master of every British ship shall cause one of the duplicate certificates for the time being in force, or a true copy thereof, to be put up in such conspicuous place on board such ship as the Board of Trade may direct so as to be visible to all persons on board, and to be kept so put up and visible without alteration or 5 obliteration.

If at any time the provisions of this section are not complied with, the master and owner of the ship shall each incur a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day during which such non-compliance continues, unless some reasonable excuse for such non-compliance be proved by them respectively to the satisfaction of 10 the Court before whom proceedings are taken.

Every person who unlawfully pulls down, injures, alters, obliterates, defaces, or conceals any certificate put up in pursuance of this section, shall incur a penalty not exceeding forty shillings. 15

Board of Trade may alter first schedule.

11. The Board of Trade may from time to time by order in writing amend the list of excepted ships specified in the first schedule to this Act annexed, by adding thereto or taking therefrom any class of ships. Every such order shall be signed by one of the secretaries 20 of the said board, and a copy of the same shall be published once in each of three consecutive weeks in the London, Dublin, and Edinburgh Gazettes, and from and after the publication of any such order the said list shall be read with the amendments made thereto and specified in such order.

surveyors.

12. Except as by this Act expressly provided, all duties in 25 relation to the survey of ships under this Act shall be performed by the surveyors appointed under the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1874, in accordance with such regulations as may be from time to time made by the Board of Trade.

Fees and
surveyors.

13. All fees payable in respect of the survey of ships under 30 this Act shall be paid to the superintendent of a mercantile marine office at such times and in such manner as the Board of Trade may from time to time direct, and shall be carried to the Mercantile Marine Fund; and the salaries of surveyors, and other expenses connected with the execution of this Act, by or under the order of 35 the Board of Trade, shall be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

Penalty on surveyor, &c. receiving gratuity, &c.
for duties performed under this Act.

14. If any surveyor, or any person employed under the authority of this Act, demands or receives directly or indirectly, otherwise than by the direction of the Board of Trade, any fee, remuneration, 40 or gratuity whatever in respect of any of the duties performed by him under this Act, he shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Deck Load.

A.D. 1874.

15. Before any ship wholly or in part laden with goods clears out from any British port at any time between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March, or between the first day of September and the thirty-first day of December in any year, the master of such ship shall deliver to the clearing officer at such port a declaration signed by him to the effect that the whole of the cargo of such ship, or, where such ship is specially licensed in manner provided by this Act, that so much of such cargo as may not under the authority of the special license be carried above deck, is below deck, and thereupon such clearing officer shall give to such master a deck load certificate to that effect; and no master of any such ship shall sail from any such port until he has obtained such deck load certificate from the clearing officer.

Master not to sail without deck load certificate at certain seasons.

15 Where any person shall make any such declaration knowing the same to be untrue he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two years.

20 If the master of any ship for which such deck load certificate as aforesaid is required, sails from or attempts to sail from any British port without having obtained such certificate, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and an additional penalty of ten pounds for every day after so sailing from such port during which such ship shall be on a voyage without such certificate.

25 16. If the master of any ship for which such deck load certificate as aforesaid is required, after having obtained such certificate and before the arrival of such ship at the port of her destination, places or permits, or causes to be placed, or to remain or be upon or above the deck of such ship any part of the cargo thereof stated in such certificate to be below deck, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and an additional penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every day during the voyage to such port on which such cargo was above deck. Provided always, that if the master of any such ship consider that it is necessary, in consequence of the springing of a leak or of other damage received or apprehended during the voyage, to remove any portion of such cargo upon deck, he may remove or cause to be removed upon the deck of such ship so much of such cargo, and may permit the same to remain there for such time as he considers necessary for the safety of such ship: Provided also, that the store spars or other articles necessary for the ship's use shall not be taken to be cargo for the purposes of this section.

Penalty for moving cargo contrary to deck load certificate.

Board of Trade may grant special licenses to carry goods
on deck.

17. The Board of Trade may from time to time, as and when they think fit, grant to the owner of any ship a special license authorising the carrying on the deck of such ship any goods, or any particular class of goods, specified in such license, during the time stated therein: Provided always, that the Board of Trade may, as 5 and when they think fit, suspend or cancel any such special license.

Every such special license shall be signed by one of the secretaries of the said Board, and so long as the same continues in force the ship in respect of which such license was granted shall be deemed to be specially licensed, and the goods specified in such special 10 license may be carried on the deck of such ship.

Overloading.

Proportion of displacement to be marked on hull.

18. Every British ship to be registered after the commencement of this Act shall before registry, and every British ship registered before the commencement of this Act shall before a certificate of 15 survey is given by the Board of Trade under this Act in respect of such ship, be permanently and conspicuously marked to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, as follows:—

- (i.) A mark shall be made on each side, amidships, of not less than three feet in horizontal length and six inches in vertical 20 width, and shall be made by painting in yellow or white on a dark ground, or in black on a light ground, or otherwise in such manner as the Board of Trade from time to time approve:
- (ii.) In the case of a ship not being spar-decked or awning-decked, 25 the lower edges of the marks shall coincide with an imaginary line carried round the ship parallel with the line of the main deck, and at such a distance below the main deck as that one-fourth part of the displacement of the ship, reckoned from the under side of the main deck down- 30 wards, would be above such imaginary line:
- (iii.) In the case of a spar-decked or awning-decked ship, the lower edges of the marks shall coincide with an imaginary line carried round the ship parallel with the line of the main deck, and at such a distance below the main deck 35 as that one-eighth part of the displacement of the ship, reckoned from the under-side of the main deck downwards, would be above such imaginary line:
- (iv.) In case any dispute arises as to which deck is the maindeck of a ship, the dispute shall be determined by the Board of 40 Trade, whose determination shall be final:

(v.) The provisions of section three of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1873, as to exemptions, and as to the continuance and alteration of marks, and as to offences and penalties, and as to the detention of ships, shall apply, mutatis, to the marks required by this section. A.D. 1874.

19. The Board of Trade from time to time may make, vary, and rescind regulations prescribing, as to British ships of any class, the maximum depth to which such ships may be loaded. Such regulations may provide for variations of the maximum depth of loading, according to differences in the character or condition of the ship, the nature or condition or stowage of the cargo, the voyage, the season, or otherwise. Board of Trade may make regulations for prevention of overloading.

Any British ship which is loaded to a depth greater than the depth allowed by such regulations for the time being in force shall be deemed to be overloaded.

Any officer of customs may detain any British ship so long as she is overloaded.

And where any ship overloaded in manner aforesaid sails from or enters any British port, the owner of such ship (if such overloading shall be proved to have been with his knowledge) and the master of such ship shall in every such case each incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and an additional penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every day during which such ship is proved to have been so overloaded on a voyage: Provided always, that if the master of any ship so overloaded as aforesaid is obliged to put into and puts into any British port by stress of weather or in distress, and not for the purpose of discharging cargo, then neither the owner nor the master of such ship shall incur any penalty.

Legal Proceedings.

20. Every offence by this Act made punishable by penalty may be prosecuted summarily according to the provisions of the Summary Jurisdiction Acts before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, composed— Summary procedure.

(a.) In England either of two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions sitting at a place appointed for holding petty sessions, or of some magistrate or officer for the time being empowered by law to do alone any act authorised to be done by more than one justice of the peace and sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the administration of justice;

(b.) In Scotland of two or more justices of the peace sitting as judges in a justice of the peace court or of the sheriff or of some other magistrate or officer for the time being empowered by law to do alone any act authorised to be done by more than one justice of the peace and sitting at some court or other place appointed for the administration of justice; and 5

(c.) In Ireland within the police district of Dublin metropolis, of one of the divisional justices of that district sitting at a police court within the district, and elsewhere before two or more justices of the peace sitting in petty sessions at a place appointed for holding petty sessions. 10

The term "Summary Jurisdiction Acts" in this section shall mean :

As to England, the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and 15
"Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders," and any Acts amending the same :

As to Scotland, "The Summary Procedure Act, 1864:"

As to Ireland, within the police district of Dublin metropolis, the Acts regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace 20 for such district, or of the police of such district, and elsewhere, "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," and any Act amending the same.

Sums ordered to be paid leviable by distress on ship.

21. In all cases where a court of summary jurisdiction has power under this Act to make an order directing payment to be 25 made of any penalty, then, if the person directed by any such order to pay the same is the master or owner of a ship, and the same is not paid at the time and in manner prescribed in the order, the court who made the order may, in addition to any other powers they may have for the purpose of compelling payment, direct the amount remaining 30 unpaid to be levied by distress or poinding, and sale of the said ship, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

Application of penalties.

22. The court awarding any penalty under this Act may direct any portion not exceeding one half of any such penalty to be paid to the informer, but, save as aforesaid, all penalties recovered under 35 this Act shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of section five hundred and twenty-four of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Gazette to be evidence of orders made by Board of Trade.

23. The production of a copy of the London, Dublin, or Edinburgh Gazette, purporting to be published by authority, and containing a copy of any order made by the Board of Trade under the authority 40 of this Act, shall be conclusive evidence of such order, and that all the provisions of this Act in relation to the same have been duly complied with, in all proceedings and for all purposes whatsoever, A.D. 1874.

without any proof being given that such copy was so printed.

24. If any person feel aggrieved by any conviction made in Appeal.
pursuance of this Act, the person so aggrieved may appeal there-5 from, subject to the conditions and regulations following :

- 10 (1.) The appeal shall be made to the next court of general or quarter sessions for the county, division, or place in which the cause of appeal has arisen, holden not less than twenty-one days after the decision of the court from which the appeal is made :
- (2.) The appellant shall, within seven days after the cause of appeal has arisen, give notice to the other party and to the court of summary jurisdiction of his intention to appeal, and of the ground thereof :
- 15 (3.) The appellant shall, immediately after such notice, enter into a recognizance before a justice of the peace, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned personally to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon, and to pay such costs as may be awarded by the court, or give such 20 other security by deposit of money or otherwise as the justice may allow :
- (4.) The justice may, if he think fit, on the appellant entering into such recognizance or giving such other security as aforesaid, release him from custody :
- 25 (5.) The court of appeal may adjourn the appeal, and upon the hearing thereof may confirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction, or remit the matter to the court of summary jurisdiction with the opinion of the court of appeal thereon, or make such other 30 order in the matter as the court thinks just. The court of appeal may also make such order as to costs to be paid by either party as the court thinks just.

Provided that in Scotland—

- 35 (1.) This section shall not apply to any conviction made by a sheriff or sheriff substitute :
- (2.) The term “entering into a recognizance before a justice of the peace” shall mean finding caution with the clerk of the justices of the peace to the satisfaction of a justice of the peace, and the term “recognizance” shall mean a 40 bond of caution :
- (3.) It shall be competent to any person empowered to appeal by this section, to appeal against a conviction by a

TO

Regulate and otherwise deal with Slaughter-houses and certain other Businesses in the Metropolis. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law in the Metropolis relating to slaughter-houses and certain other businesses herein-after specified.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Slaughter-houses, &c. (Metropolis) Act, 1874. Short title of Act.

Regulations as to Businesses.

2. If any person establishes anew within the limits of this Act the following businesses or any of them ; that is to say, the business of— Absolute prohibition against establishing anew certain businesses.

15 Soap boiler, or Tallow melter, or Knacker,

he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof, and any person carrying on the same when established shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same.

3. If any person establishes anew within the limits of this Act, without the sanction of the local authority, the following businesses or any of them ; that is to say, the business of— Certain businesses may be established anew with sanction of local authority.

25 Fellmonger, or Tripe boiler, or Slaughterer of cattle,

he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof, and any person carrying on the same

[Bill 150.]

A.D. 1874. when established shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same.

The sanction of the local authority shall be given by order under their seal, but previously to making any such order, the local authority shall give notice by advertisement of the time and place at which they will be willing to hear all persons objecting to such order, and shall take into their consideration any objections made at such time and place, and shall grant or withhold such sanction as they may think expedient.

Power of local authority to make bye-laws.

4. The local authority may from time to time make, alter, and repeal byelaws for regulating the conduct of any businesses specified in this Act, which are for the time being lawfully carried on within their jurisdiction, and the mode in which application is to be made to the local authority for their sanction to establish anew any business under this Act :

Pecuniary penalties (to be recovered before a court of summary jurisdiction) may be imposed by any such byelaws on persons breaking any byelaw regulating the conduct of any of the said businesses, provided that no penalty exceeds for any one offence the sum of five pounds, or in the case of a continuing offence, the sum of one pound for every day during which such offence is continued after conviction for the first offence.

Also power may be given by any such byelaw as last aforesaid to a court of summary jurisdiction by summary order to suspend or deprive any person altogether of the right of carrying on any business to which such byelaw relates as a penalty for breaking the same.

Any byelaw made in pursuance of this section, and any alteration made therein, and any repeal of a byelaw, shall not be of any validity until it has been confirmed by the Local Government Board.

A byelaw made under this Act shall not nor shall any alteration therein or repeal thereof be confirmed by the Local Government Board until notice of the intention to apply for confirmation of the same has been given by the local authority in one or more newspapers circulating in the Metropolis; and any person aggrieved by any such proposed byelaw or alteration in or repeal of a byelaw may forward notice of his objection to the Local Government Board, who shall take the same into consideration.

If for a period of four months after the passing of this Act the local authority fail in exercising the powers of making byelaws given by this Act, the Local Government Board may make such byelaws of their own motion.

Legal Proceedings and Miscellaneous.

A.D. 1874.

5. All offences and penalties under this Act, or any byelaw made in pursuance of this Act, may be prosecuted and recovered before a court of summary jurisdiction in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Act. Legal proceedings.

The term "The Summary Jurisdiction Act," means the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders," inclusive of any Acts amending the same:

The term "Court of Summary Jurisdiction" means and includes any justice or justices of the peace, lord mayor or alderman of the city of London, or metropolitan police magistrate.

The Court of Summary Jurisdiction, when hearing and determining an information or complaint under this Act, shall be constituted in some one of the following manners; that is to say, either of two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions sitting at a place appointed for holding petty sessions, or of one of the magistrates herein-after mentioned sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the administration of justice, that is to say, the Lord Mayor, or any alderman of the city of London, or a metropolitan police magistrate.

Any person disobeying any summary order of a court of summary jurisdiction made in pursuance of this Act shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which disobedience continues.

6. If any party feels aggrieved by any order or conviction made by a court of summary jurisdiction under or in pursuance of this Act, the party so aggrieved may appeal therefrom, subject to the conditions and regulations following: Appeal to quarter sessions.

(1.) The appeal shall be made to some court of general or quarter sessions for the county or place in which the cause of appeal has arisen, holden not less than fifteen days and not more than four months after the decision of the court from which the appeal is made:

(2.) The appellant shall, within seven days after the cause of appeal has arisen, give notice to the other party and to the court of summary jurisdiction of his intention to appeal, and of the ground thereof:

(3.) The appellant shall, immediately after such notice, enter into a recognizance before a justice of the peace, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned personally to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon, and to pay such costs as may be awarded by the court, or give such other security by deposit of money or otherwise as the justice may allow :

(4.) The court of appeal may adjourn the appeal, and upon the hearing thereof they may confirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction, or remit the matter to the court of summary jurisdiction with the opinion of the court of appeal thereon, or make such other 10 order in the matter as the court thinks just. The court of appeal may also make such order as to costs to be paid by either party as the court thinks just.

Byelaws to be printed.

7. All byelaws made by the local authority under this Act shall be printed, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to any person 15 carrying on any of the businesses specified in this Act within the limits of this Act, upon his application for the same, without payment of any fee, and to any other person, on payment of such sum, not exceeding one shilling, as the local authority may from time to time prescribe. 20

Evidence of byelaws.

8. Any byelaw made by the local authority in pursuance of this Act may be proved by the production of a printed copy of such byelaw, purporting to be certified by the clerk of the local authority to be a true copy, or purporting to be sealed by the seal of the local authority ; and any such byelaw shall, until the 25 contrary is proved, be deemed to have been duly made and confirmed in pursuance of this Act.

Fees for sanction of local authority.

9. There shall be charged for an order sanctioning the establishment anew of any one of the said businesses, permitted to be established anew, such fee not exceeding ten shillings as the local 30 authority may prescribe.

Any such fees shall be carried to such account for the benefit of the local authority as that authority may prescribe, and shall be applicable to the purposes for which the local rate is applicable.

Power of inspectors of Privy Council to enter slaughter-houses and knackers yards for detection of disease.

10. Any person for the time being appointed by the Privy 35 Council an inspector for the purposes of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, may enter on the premises occupied by any slaughterer of cattle or knacker, within the limits of this Act, and inspect any live or dead animals therein for the purpose of detecting the presence of any contagious or infectious disease, and any person 40 obstructing any such inspector in entering such premises or placing any obstacle in the way of his making such inspection as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Repeal and Saving Clauses.

Repeal of Acts.

13. There shall be repealed the following enactments; that is to say,

- (1.) Sections 55 and 56 of the Act of the session of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighty-four, and intituled "An Act for regulating 10
" the construction and use of buildings in the Metropolis " and its neighbourhood," so far as relates to the several businesses of a soap boiler, tallow melter, knacker, fell-monger, tripe boiler, or slaughterer of cattle, carried on on premises situated within the limits of this Act. 15

Provided that the repeal enacted in this Act shall not affect—

- (1.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; or
- (2.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or other punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence against any enactment 20 hereby repealed; or
- (3.) The institution of any investigation or legal proceeding or any other remedy for ascertaining, enforcing, or recovering any such liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid. 25

of byelaws.

14. All byelaws and regulations in force at the time of the passing of this Act, in relation to any of the businesses, for the regulation of which a power of making byelaws is given by this Act, shall continue in force until repealed by byelaws made in pursuance of this Act, power being given to repeal, in relation 30 to any such last-mentioned business, by byelaw made in pursuance of this Act, any byelaw or regulation in force in relation to such business at the time of the passing of this Act. But from and after the passing of this Act the local authority shall not have power to make any byelaws or regulations in respect of any business which 35 they are empowered to regulate by byelaw under this Act except by byelaw made in pursuance of this Act.

Saving
clause.

15. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the general law of nuisance, or make legal any act or default which would have been illegal if this Act had not passed, or, save as in this Act expressly 40 provided, affect any Act of Parliament relating to any business specified in this Act.

Provisions modifying recited Acts.

Restrictions
as to granting certificates for public-houses after passing of
Act.

3. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the licensing authority to grant any new certificate for a license for the sale of spirituos liquors to be consumed on the premises:*

- (1.) In any town or populous place in which the number of licensed houses shall at any time exceed the proportion 35 of one such house to seven hundred of the population:
- (2.) In rural districts in respect of any premises situated within two miles at least of any other premises in respect of which a certificate has been granted:

Provided that in estimating the number of licensed houses in 40 any town or populous place for the purposes of this clause, the licensing authority may, where they think fit, include in such number any licensed house situated within one mile beyond the boundaries of such town or populous place, and that where the population of such town or populous place is under seven hundred the limitation herein-before expressed as to granting a new certificate shall be so exercised that one such certificate may, subject to the

A.D. 1874.

- 5 provisions of the recited Acts, be granted by the licensing authority :
 Provided further, that the licensing authority may also, if they think fit, grant new certificates for inns or hotels containing in towns and the suburbs thereof not less than six, and in rural districts not less than four apartments set apart exclusively for the sleeping 10 accommodation of travellers.

4. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the licensing authority to grant to any grocer any certificate for a license for the sale by retail of spirituous liquors, unless such grocer shall be a license holder at the time of the passing of this Act.

New certificates not to be granted to grocers after passing of Act.

- 15 5. The licensing authority may at any half-yearly meeting, at their discretion, remove a license or certificate from premises in their licensing district to any other eligible premises in the same or in any adjoining licensing district within the same county, if in their opinion the removal be necessary in order to meet the wants of the neigh-
 20 bourhood to which the removal is to be made, and if no objection is made by the occupier of the premises from which the removal is to be made, or by any other person appearing to the licensing authority to have reasonable ground of objection to the removal ; and the licensing authority may for the purposes of this clause require such 25 proof and make such adjournments as they think fit ; and every application for a removal shall be proceeded with and be advertised and be subject to the like objections as are prescribed by the Act of 1862, with respect to applications for certificates and renewals thereof.

Removal of certificates and licenses.

- 30 6. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any grocer, being a license holder, to sell a less quantity of spirits at any one time than the quantity contained in a reputed quart bottle or one sixth part of a gallon, and such bottle at the time of such sale shall be properly corked and sealed ; and if any 35 such grocer shall act in the contrary hereof in the sale of spirituous liquors, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of certificate, and shall be liable to the procedure and penalties applicable thereto provided by the recited Acts.

Mode of sale of spirits by grocers.

Proceedings for adoption of the Act.

- 40 7. This Act may be put in force within the districts following ; that is to say, within Areas within which Act may be adopted.

1. Every city, burgh, town, or place subject to the jurisdiction

A 2

A.D. 1874.

of any town council and not subject to the jurisdiction of police commissioners or trustees as after mentioned ;

2. Every burgh, town, or populous place subject to the jurisdiction of police commissioners, or of trustees exercising the functions of police commissioners, under any general or 5 local Act ;

3. Every parish or part thereof over which the jurisdiction of a town council, or of police commissioners or trustees exercising the functions of police commissioners, does not extend ; 10 and the local authority appointed to execute in every such district "The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867," shall be deemed to be the local authority for the purposes of this Act.

Area of burghs.

8. For all purposes of this Act the area of any city, burgh, town, or populous place shall be comprised within and be co-extensive 15 with the limits within which the assessments for police purposes are therein leviable ; and where no such assessments are levied, then the limits for assessment therein under the Poor Law (Scotland) Act, 1845, or under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, as the local authority may determine. 20

Requisition to local authority.

9. It shall be in the power of any number of voters in a district, being not less than one hundred where the population of such district exceeds twenty thousand, and not less than one tenth part of the voters where the population is under that number, to sign a requisition setting forth that in their opinion it would be of 25 public advantage if this Act were adopted within the district to which such requisition refers, and to transmit the same to the local authority.

Persons entitled to vote as to adoption of Act.

10. Every person having a right to vote in the district for the election of a school board or members of a school board under the 30 provisions of the "Education (Scotland) Act, 1872," shall be a voter for the purposes of this Act.

Meetings for adoption of Act in small districts.

11. The local authority of any district wherein the population does not exceed five thousand shall, on receipt of such requisition, convene a public meeting of the inhabitants in some convenient 35 place within the district, to be held not later than thirty days after the local authority shall have received such requisition ; and at such meeting, if the district within which the same be convened be a burgh, the provost or senior bailie, or if a rural parish the chairman of the parochial board, shall preside, and shall 40 appoint a clerk, who shall make minutes of the proceedings of the meeting, which minutes shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman and clerk ; and the chairman shall, in case of an equality of votes, have both a deliberative and a casting vote. A.D. 1874.

12. The local authority shall give notice of such meeting for at least two successive weeks, and shall also publish such notice, in the form of handbills posted within the district, fourteen days prior to the day of meeting. Notice of meeting.

13. Such meeting on being convened shall proceed to consider this Act with the requisition, and determine whether or not this Act shall be adopted within the district, and the chairman shall ascertain the resolution of such meeting by a show of hands or in such other manner as shall appear to him expedient, and shall declare the same, and such declaration shall be final as to the adoption or non-adoption of the Act in such district unless a poll shall be then demanded in writing by any ten qualified voters present at such meeting; and in the event of such poll being demanded, the procedure herein-after provided by clause fourteen and following clauses of this Act shall apply to such district; and the expression in said clause, "within ten days after the receipt of such requisition," shall be read and construed as if the same were expressed to be "within ten days after such meeting." Power to meeting to adopt Act for district.

14. Within ten days after the receipt of such requisition the local authority shall appoint a person to act as returning officer (who may be returning officer for the election of the school board), and one or more persons to act as his scrutineers and assistants, at such remuneration as the local authority shall fix, and shall also, within a like time, give notice containing the following particulars : Local authority to appoint returning officer and give notice, &c.

1. Of the district to which the requisition applies, and the object of the requisition :
2. Of the number of voters signing the requisition :
3. Of the time and place or places for voting.

15. An appointment of a returning officer, scrutineers, and assistants in writing under the hand of the clerk of the local authority shall be sufficient evidence of the appointment; and such appointment shall be endorsed on the requisition and transmitted to the returning officer. Authentication of appointment.

16. The voting under any requisition for the adoption of this Act and in cases where a poll has been demanded as aforesaid, may, if the local authority think fit, be proceeded with at the same time as the then next ensuing election of members of the school board under the Education (Scotland) Act, 1872, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, the regulations for the time in force Voting may take place along with school board election.

A.D. 1874. applicable to the election of school boards shall mutatis mutandis, apply, in all cases where a poll is to be taken, to the voting and procedure to be had with respect thereto under this Act; and it shall be the duty of the local authority to print and provide a sufficient number of voting papers and ballot boxes for taking the 5 votes under this Act.

Where the voting under this Act shall have proceeded along with any school board election, the local authority and the school board may enter into all necessary arrangements in regard to the conduct of such joint voting, as well as in regard to the charges and expenses 10 incurred therein.

In the case of such joint voting, the voting papers under this Act shall be distinguished from those used in the election of school board by being of a different colour, and in all cases shall be in the following form :

and every voter who shall record his vote shall do so by marking 20 on the voting paper in the appropriate column a cross under the word "Assenting" or "Dissenting," according as he assents to or dissents from the adoption of this Act, and shall deposit the same in the ballot box appropriated thereto.

Duties of returning officer.

17. The duties of the returning officer shall be as follow :

1. As soon as practicable after the poll he shall ascertain the number of voters respectively assenting to and dissenting from the adoption of this Act :
2. If the majority of the votes recorded be in favour of the adoption of this Act or against the adoption thereof, he shall 30 transmit to the local authority a certificate under his hand setting forth the same, as the case may be, and such certificate shall be deemed to be final, and shall not be subject to review in any way on any ground of irregularity or want of form in any of the proceedings under this Act or other- 35 wise :

3. He shall as soon as practicable after granting his certificate as aforesaid seal up and deliver over to the local authority all the voting papers on which his certificate has proceeded, and the same shall remain unopened in the custody of such authority, subject to the orders of the sheriff in any proceedings which may be adopted before him in relation to any offence against the provisions of this Act.

A.D. 1874.

18. The certificate of the returning officer transmitted as aforesaid, or any entry thereof in the minute book or other book of the proceedings of the local authority, shall be sufficient evidence that this Act has or has not been adopted, as the case may be, within the district to which the same refers.

Evidence of adoption of Act.

19. Within three days after the receipt of the certificate of the returning officer the local authority shall give notice whether this Act has or has not been adopted, as the case may be, within the district to which the same refers.

Publication of returning officer's certificate.

20. Every person falsely signing the name of any other person in or to any requisition, or falsely representing himself to be a voter and voting under this Act, shall for every such offence be liable on conviction before the sheriff to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Penalty for false signature to requisition, &c.

21. If within any district this Act has not been adopted under any proceedings had for that purpose, such proceedings may be renewed after the expiration of two years from the date of the first notice in relation to the last proceedings had with respect to the proposed adoption of the Act.

Proceedings for adoption of Act may be renewed.

22. The expenses of any proceedings for the adoption of this Act incurred by or on the order of the local authority shall, in the first instance, whether this Act shall have been adopted or not, be paid by the local authority out of any funds in their hands or rates leviable by them within the district: Provided that where this Act shall have been adopted such expenses shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be repaid by the board out of any funds that may come into their hands under this Act.

Expenses.

35 Constitution of Board.

23. Within thirty days after this Act has been adopted in any district the local authority shall, by some writing under the hand of their clerk, nominate and select a board for carrying the purposes of this Act into execution, and in such appointment they shall also fix the time and place for the first meeting of the board.

Appointment of board.

A 4

- A.D. 1874. 24. The local authority shall nominate such number of members of their own body as they shall think fit, and shall select an equal number save one of such other persons as shall have assented to become members of the board : Provided that the whole number of members of any board shall not be less than five. 5
- Number and constitution of board.
- Evidence of appointment. 25. The local authority shall forthwith cause an entry of every such nomination and selection to be made in their minute book or other book of their proceedings, and such entry shall be sufficient evidence of the constitution and appointment of the board to which the same refers. 10
- Board to be a body corporate. 26. Every board shall be a body corporate under such name as they usually have or may adopt, with perpetual succession and with power to sue and be sued, and to acquire and hold and take in feu or by way of lease or to sell or dispose of lands, houses, and all other property within their respective districts necessary for the purposes of this Act. 15
- Incorporation of Commissioners Clauses Act. 27. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, is herewith incorporated except the following clauses and provisions ; viz.,
- The provisions with respect to the qualification of commissioners ; 20
And with respect to the election and rotation of commissioners ;
Clauses forty-five, eighty-four, eighty-six ; and
The provisions with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices or to the sheriff ; 25
And in construing the said Act with this Act, the expressions following shall have the meanings herein respectively assigned to them ; viz.,—"the special Act" shall mean this Act ; and
"the Commissioners" shall mean the board incorporated by and acting under the authority of this Act. 30
- Boards to be appointed annually. 28. Every board appointed under this Act shall remain in office as follows :
1. The board first appointed in any district shall continue in office until the appointment of their successors after the next ensuing election of the local authority in the district : 35
 2. Future boards shall be nominated and selected by the local authority annually at meetings to be held for that purpose as soon as conveniently may be after the election of the local authority, and within at least one month after such election : Provided that if the local authority shall fail to nominate 40 and select a board within the time limited as aforesaid the existing board shall remain in office for a further period of A.D. 1874.

one year.

29. On a vacancy occurring in the board the board may appoint any person who shall assent thereto to supply such vacancy, and 5 every person so appointed shall continue in office as a member of the board until the expiration of the period then current for which such board shall have been appointed or continued in office.

Vacancies
how supplied.

30. It shall be lawful for any three or more members of a board, by a requisition under their hands addressed to the clerk, to require
 10 a special meeting of the board to be held, but no such meeting shall be held unless three clear days' notice thereof in writing to each member of the board, at the least, shall be given.

Special meetings of board.

Powers and duties of board.

31. So soon as conveniently may be after the adoption of this 15 Act in any district the board shall intimate the same by letter, under the hand of their clerk, to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, at their office in Edinburgh, and shall from time to time, as occasion may require, furnish to such Commissioners a statement of the number of licenses of every description which, in the judg-
 20 ment of the board, it shall be necessary to issue to and for the use of the board within the district, and the Commissioners shall thereupon issue to the board such licenses without requiring any certificates from the licensing authority: Provided that it shall not be lawful for the board to obtain such licenses, except only in
 25 substitution of licenses existing at the adoption of this Act, until the proportion prescribed by clause three of this Act with respect to the number of licensed houses is attained: Provided further that where any entry is required to be made with the officers of excise with respect to any premises and vessels and utensils 30 belonging to the board, such entry shall be made and signed, and the board shall be deemed the real owners and be chargeable with all duties of excise and penalties in manner provided by section six of the Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty.

Board to acquire licenses from Inland Revenue.

32. The board may by agreement acquire the business and 35 plant of any public house belonging to any license holder within the district at such time and manner and in such order as they may find suitable and convenient, and may, subject to the provisions of this Act, from time to time open and provide such premises for the 40 sale of spirituuous and other liquors within the district as they shall think fit.

Board may acquire business and plant of holders of public-house licenses, and provide premises for sale of liquors.

A.D. 1874.

Restrictions applicable to certificates
after adoption of Act.

33. On the adoption of this Act within any district the licensing authority shall not grant any certificate for a license to have effect within such district except for premises in respect of which a license is then in force; and in every case where the board shall have acquired any business or plant under the authority of this Act, no 5 certificate shall be granted by the licensing authority in respect of the premises in which such business was carried on.

borrow on mortgage.

34. The board may from time to time borrow on mortgage or bond such sums as they may think necessary for the purposes of this Act from any person willing to lend the same, and on such 10 terms as may be agreed on, and as a security therefor may assign any lands, houses, and other heritages or other property and effects or any income arising from the same or from the business carried on by them under this Act.

Power to re-borrow and to borrow on cash credit.

35. If the board, after having borrowed any sum or sums of 15 money under the powers conferred by this Act, shall pay off the same or any part thereof, they may again borrow the sum or sums so paid off, and so from time to time as occasion shall require; and they may also borrow or take from any bank or banking company on a cash credit account, to be kept according to the usage of 20 bankers in Scotland with such bank or banking company, all or any part of the moneys authorised to be borrowed under the provisions of this Act.

*General provisions.*Application and partial
recited Acts.

36. The whole provisions of the recited Acts now in force except 25 in so far as altered or repealed by this Act, either expressly or by necessary implication, shall, notwithstanding the adoption of this Act, remain in full force and effect, and shall apply to the officers and servants of the board and to the houses and premises belonging to or used by the board for the purposes of this Act: Provided that 30 no offences or convictions against any of the officers or servants of the board under any of the recited Acts or otherwise shall extend to prevent the board from carrying into effect any of the objects and purposes of this Act.

opening and closing.

37. It shall be lawful for the board, notwithstanding the 35 provisions of section two of the Act of 1862, to shut and keep closed the houses and premises belonging to them at such hours as they may from time to time appoint: Provided that it shall not be lawful for the board to open earlier or to shut later than the hours prescribed by the said Act.

40

38. Where any offence shall have been committed against the provisions of this Act, or penalty in respect thereof be imposed, the mode of prosecution and recovery whereof are not in this Act specially provided for, the same shall be prosecuted and on conviction the penalties and expenses of conviction shall be recovered and applied in manner provided by section twenty-five of the Act of 1862: Provided, that all offences under this Act in the prosecution or defence of which the board shall be parties shall be tried before the sheriff.

A.D. 1874.

Offences not specially provided for.

39. The board may appoint a clerk (who may also be treasurer), and such inspectors, managers, and other officers and servants as they may think necessary for the management of their business, and that for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on; and the board may take such security from such of their officers and servants as they may deem expedient: Provided that the salaries, wages, or other allowances agreed to be paid to officers and servants shall not depend on the amount of sales of intoxicating liquors effected by any such officer or servant.

Appointment of officers.

40. The board shall at least once in every three years ascertain the amount of moneys in their hands which at the time may in their opinion not be required for carrying into effect the several purposes of this Act, and such moneys shall be applied by the board as follows: (1.) they shall set apart two thirds thereof and apply the same, at such time as they may think expedient, towards extinction of debts for moneys borrowed and interest thereon due by them; and (2.) they shall pay over the remaining one third to the local authority to be available for providing places and means of public recreation, sanitary and town improvements, public parks, and other objects approved by the local authority; and (3.) on the extinction and payment of all the moneys borrowed by the board, they shall pay over the whole of such moneys in their hands as aforesaid as follows: two thirds thereof to the local authority for the purposes last above mentioned, and one third thereof to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs and Inland Revenue, who are hereby authorised and required to receive and grant a receipt for the same, and such one third shall be payable by the board at any office of the said Commissioners within the district, or within any district adjoining thereto.

A.D. 1874. (Scotland) Act, 1862 ;" "population" means the population within any burgh, populous place, or parish as appearing at the time from the census last taken ; "spirituous liquors" mean all distilled spirits and every preparation of which the same forms a part for the sale of which by retail a license on a certificate of the licensing authority is required ; "licensing authority" means the magistrates of burghs and justices of the peace entitled to act at any meeting for granting and renewing certificates within any district under the recited Acts.

Restrictions
as to granting certificates after passing of
Act.

3. From and after the passing of this Act, and until the legislature shall have otherwise provided, it shall not be lawful for the licensing authority to grant to any person in respect of premises not licensed at the time of the passing of this Act a certificate for a license under the recited Acts in any burgh, populous place, or parish in which the number of certificates granted by the licensing authority shall at any time exceed the proportion of one to five hundred of the population.

New certificates not to be granted to grocers after passing of Act.

4. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the licensing authority to grant to any grocer any certificate for a license to include the sale by retail of spirituous liquors, unless such grocer shall hold a license under the recited Acts at the time of the passing of this Act : Provided that it shall be lawful for the licensing authority to grant certificates enabling the holder thereof to obtain a license for the sale by retail of spirituous liquors not to be consumed on the premises, in rural districts where there shall be no premises licensed for the sale by retail of spirituous liquors situated or accessible within two miles of the premises in respect of which such certificate shall be applied for.

and licenses.

5. The licensing authority may at any half-yearly meeting, at their discretion, remove a license or certificate from premises in their licensing district to any other eligible premises in the same or in any adjoining licensing district within the same county, if in their opinion the removal be necessary in order to meet the wants of the neighbourhood to which the removal is to be made, and if no objection is made by the occupier of the premises from which the removal is to be made, or by any other person appearing to the licensing authority to have reasonable ground of objection to the removal ; and the licensing authority may for the purposes of this clause require such proof and make such adjournments as they think fit ; and every application for a removal shall be proceeded with and be advertised and be subject to the like objections as are prescribed by the Act of 1862, with respect to applications for certificates and renewals thereof.

6. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any grocer, being a license holder, to sell a less quantity of spirits at any one time than the quantity contained in a pint bottle or one sixth part of a gallon, and such bottle at the
5 time of such sale shall be properly corked and sealed; and if any such grocer shall act in the contrary hereof in the sale of spirituous liquors, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach of certificate, and shall be liable to the procedure and penalties applicable thereto provided by the recited Acts: Provided that nothing herein
10 contained shall apply to dealers in exciseable liquors only holding certificates and licenses under the recited Acts.
7. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the powers now possessed by the licensing authority under the recited Acts with respect to the granting or refusing to grant certificates for the 15 renewal or transfer of licenses, but all such powers shall remain in as full force as if this Act had not been passed.
8. This Act shall commence and have effect from and after the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

INTITULED

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law A.D. 1874.
by repealing certain Enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary.

WHEREAS, with a view to the revision of the Statute Law, and particularly to the preparation of the Revised Edition of the Statutes now in progress, it is expedient that certain enactments (mentioned in the schedule to this Act) which may be 5 regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, 10 by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the 15 schedule mentioned : Enactments in schedule
repealed.
Saving.

Provided, that where any enactment not comprised in the schedule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this 20 Act :

and the repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any Act in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated, or referred to ;

nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any 25 hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto ;

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered,—or any existing status or capacity,—or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof,—or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand,—or any 5 indemnity,—or the proof of any past act or thing ;

nor shall this Act affect any principle or rule of law or equity, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice, or procedure, or existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, or 10 emolument, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed ;

nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, right, title, 15 privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force ;

and this Act shall not extend to repeal any enactment so far as the same may be in force in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of the United Kingdom, except where otherwise expressed in 20 the said schedule.

55 Geo. 3.
c. 91. (repealed by Statute Law
Revision
Act, 1873), revived as to Dublin.

2. An Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the Pay" ment of Costs and Charges to Prosecutors and Witnesses in Cases
" of Felony in Ireland," which Act was repealed by the Statute 25 Law Revision Act, 1873, is hereby revived, so far as relates to the County of the City of Dublin.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874.

A.D. 1874.

NOTE.

The entries in the third column of the schedule, with this Note, are intended to be struck out at a late stage of the Bill.

The object of such of those entries as are not placed within brackets, thus 5 [], is to show the grounds of the proposed repeal of the Act, or part of an Act (specified in the second column), to which they refer.

The object of such of the entries in the third column as are placed within brackets stating partial repeals and other operations, is (not to furnish any reason for the proposed repeal, but only) to show how the Act of 10 which the title is given in the second column has been operated upon by subsequent legislation, in addition to the operations indicated by the previous entries not within brackets.

Of the entries, therefore, of which the extent of application is not expressly stated, it will be understood that those within brackets apply to the Act
 15 in the second column, generally, whether the proposed repeal is total or not; that those not within brackets apply, in cases where the proposed repeal is not total, to so much only of the Act as is proposed to be repealed.

This schedule is intended to comprise (as the preamble to the Bill states) 20 enactments which have ceased to be in force, otherwise than by express and specific repeal, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary.*

I.—For the purposes of the schedule six different classes of enactments are considered as having ceased to be in force, although not expressly and speci-
 25 fically repealed; namely, such enactments as are—

1. Expired.—that is, enactments which, having been originally limited to endure only for a specified period, by a distinct provision, have not been either perpetuated or kept in force by continuance, or which have merely had for their object the continuance of previous tem-
 30 porary enactments for periods now gone by effluxion of time:

2. Spent.†—that is, enactments spent or exhausted in operation by the accomplishment of the purposes for which they were passed, either at the moment of their first taking effect, or on the happening of some event, or on the doing of some act authorised or required.

35 * Where any enactment is comprised in the schedule on any ground not here explained, the ground for repeal sufficiently appears from the expression used in the third column.

† As to the use of the term spent, see 1 Blackst. Comm. 44. (14th ed.), 2nd Report of the late Statute Law Commissioners, p. 7, and Warren v. Windle, 3 East, 205.

A.D. 1874.

3. Repealed in general terms.—that is, repealed by the operation of an enactment expressed only in general terms, as distinguished from an enactment specifying the Acts on which it is to operate :
4. Virtually repealed.—where an earlier enactment is inconsistent with, or is rendered nugatory by, a later one : 5
5. Superseded.—where a later enactment effects the same purposes as an earlier one, by repetition of its terms or otherwise :
6. Obsolete.—where the state of things contemplated by the enactment has ceased to exist, or the enactment is of such a nature as to be no longer capable of being put in force, regard being had to the alteration of political or social circumstances. 10

II.—For the purposes of the schedule, enactments are considered unnecessary where the provisions are of such a nature as not to require, at the present day, statutory authority.

In many instances it appears from entries in the third column that 15 part of an Act or of the portion of an Act comprised in the schedule has been already expressly and specifically repealed. Such part is included in the schedule in order that a complete and simultaneous repeal may be effected of the whole Act or of a large portion of the Act (as the case may be). Such a sweeping repeal is in various ways convenient, and particularly for simpli- 20 fying the notes of repeal to be made in the Revised Edition.

SCHEDULE.

A description or citation of a portion of an Act is inclusive of the words, section, or other part, first or last mentioned, or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning, or as forming the end, of the portion described in the description or citation.

Statute Law Revision. [H.L.]

B I L L

INTITULED

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law by repealing certain Enactments which have ceased to be in force, or have become unnecessary.

(Brought from the Lords 22 June 1874.)

*Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed,

[Bill 163.]

Under 14 oz.

B I L L

INTITULED

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law A.D. 1874.
by repealing certain Enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary.

WHEREAS, with a view to the revision of the Statute Law,
and particularly to the preparation of the Revised Edition of the Statutes now in progress, it is expedient that certain enactments (mentioned in the schedule to this Act) which may be 5 regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,
10 by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and
by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are Enactments in schedule
repealed.
hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the 15 schedule mentioned :

Provided, that where any enactment not comprised in the sche- Saving.
dule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this 20 Act :

and the repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated, or referred to ;

nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any 25 hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto ;

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered,—or any existing

A.D. 1874. status or capacity,—or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof,—or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand,—or any indemnity,—or the proof of any past act or thing ;

nor shall this Act affect any principle or rule of law or equity, or 5 established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice, or procedure, or existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, or emolument, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from 10 any enactment hereby repealed ;

nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force ; 15

and this Act shall not extend to repeal any enactment so far as the same may be in force in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of the United Kingdom, except where otherwise expressed in the said schedule.

Amendment
of Statute Law Revision Act, 1874, c. 35. of this session
as to partial repeal of 7 Will. 4.
& 1 Vict.
c. 88.
Short title.

2. The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874, shall be read and construed as if in the entry in the schedule to that Act relating to the Act passed in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-eight, intituled "An Act to amend certain Acts relating to the " crime of Piracy," the words "Section Six" and "Section Seven" had been substituted for the words "Section Four" and "Section 25 Five" respectively.

3. This Act may be cited as The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874 (No. 2).

NOTE.

The entries in italics in the third column of the schedule, with this Note, are intended to be struck out at a late stage of the Bill.

The object of such of those entries as are not placed within brackets, thus [], is to show the grounds of the proposed repeal of the Act, or part of an Act (specified in the second column), to which they refer.

The object of such of the entries in the third column as are placed within brackets stating partial repeals and other operations, is (not to furnish any reason for the proposed repeal, but only) to show how the Act of which the title is given in the second column has been operated upon by subsequent legislation, in addition to the operations indicated by the previous entries not within brackets.

Of the entries, therefore, of which the extent of application is not expressly stated, it will be understood that those within brackets apply to the Act in the second column, generally, whether the proposed repeal is total or not; that those not within brackets apply, in cases where the proposed repeal is not total, to so much only of the Act as is proposed to be repealed.

*This schedule is intended to comprise (as the preamble to the Bill states) enactments which have ceased to be in force, otherwise than by express and specific repeal, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary.

I.—For the purposes of the schedule six different classes of enactments are considered as having ceased to be in force, although not expressly and specifically repealed; namely, such enactments as are—

- 1. Expired.—that is, enactments which, having been originally limited to endure only for a specified period, by a distinct provision, have not been either perpetuated or kept in force by continuance, or which have merely had for their object the continuance of previous temporary enactments for periods now gone by effluxion of time:*
- 2. Spent.†—that is, enactments spent or exhausted in operation by the accomplishment of the purposes for which they were passed, either at the moment of their first taking effect, or on the happening of some event, or on the doing of some act authorised or required:*

* Where any enactment is comprised in the schedule on any ground not here explained, the ground for repeal sufficiently appears from the expression used in the third column.

† As to the use of the term spent, see 1 Blackst. Comm. 44. (14th ed.), 2nd Report of the late Statute Law Commissioners, p. 7, and Warren v. Windle, 3 East, 205.

- A.D. 1874. —
3. Repealed in general terms.—that is, repealed by the operation of an enactment expressed only in general terms, as distinguished from an enactment specifying the Acts on which it is to operate:
 4. Virtually repealed.—where an earlier enactment is inconsistent with, or is rendered nugatory by, a later one:
 5. Superseded.—where a later enactment effects the same purposes as an earlier one, by repetition of its terms or otherwise:
 6. Obsolete.—where the state of things contemplated by the enactment has ceased to exist, or the enactment is of such a nature as to be no longer capable of being put in force, regard being had to the alteration of political or social circumstances.

II.—For the purposes of the schedule, enactments are considered unnecessary where the provisions are of such a nature as not to require, at the present day, statutory authority.

In many instances it appears from entries in the third column that part of an Act or of the portion of an Act comprised in the schedule has been already expressly and specifically repealed. Such part is included in the schedule in order that a complete and simultaneous repeal may be effected of the whole Act or of a large portion of the Act (as the case may be). Such a sweeping repeal is in various ways convenient, and particularly for simplifying the notes of repeal to be made in the Revised Edition.

SCHEDULE.

A description or citation of a portion of an Act is inclusive of the words, section, or other part, first or last mentioned, or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning, or as forming the end, of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

B I L L

INTITULED

An Act to amend and extend the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873. A.D. 1874.

[Note.—The clauses and words printed in red ink are proposed to be inserted in Committee.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and extend the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, and to constitute an Imperial Appellate Court:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act shall so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof be construed as one with the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, (in this Act referred to as the principal Act,) and together with the principal Act may be cited as the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts, 1873, 1874, and this Act may be cited separately as the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1874.

Short title,
and construction with 36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66.

2. This Act, except any provision thereof which is declared to take effect before the commencement of this Act, shall commence and come into operation on the day of the commencement of the principal Act.

Commencement of
Act.

3. Whereas by section four of the principal Act it is provided that the Supreme Court of Judicature therein mentioned shall consist of two permanent Divisions, one of which, under the name of "Her Majesty's High Court of Justice," shall have and exercise original jurisdiction, with such appellate jurisdiction from inferior Courts as is in the said Act mentioned, and the other of which, under the name of "Her Majesty's Court of Appeal," shall have and exercise appellate jurisdiction, with such original jurisdiction as in the said Act mentioned, as may be incident to the determination of any appeal:

Substitution of Imperial Court of Appeal for Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in 36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66. s. 14.

Be it enacted, that such other Court as is in the said section mentioned shall be called "Her Majesty's Imperial Court of Appeal,"

[Bill 179.]

A 2

A.D. 1874. — instead of “Her Majesty’s Court of Appeal;” and whenever in the principal Act the expression “Court of Appeal” is used, there is to be substituted therefor the expression “Imperial Court of Appeal.”

Explanation of principal Act as to number of judges.

4. Whereas by section five of the principal Act it is provided as follows: “that if at the commencement of this Act the number of “ puisne justices and junior barons who shall become judges of the “ said High Court shall exceed twelve in the whole, no new judge “ of the said High Court shall be appointed in the place of any “ such puisne justice or junior baron who shall die or resign while “ such whole number shall exceed twelve, it being intended that “ the permanent number of judges of the said High Court shall not “ exceed twenty-one;” and doubts have arisen whether the said number of twenty-one was intended to be exclusive of the Lord Chancellor, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted that—

The said section shall be construed as if after the word “twenty-one” there were inserted the words “exclusive of the Lord Chancellor.”

Amendment
of sec. 8. of 36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66. as to qualifications of judges.
Not required to be serjeants-at-law.

5. Any barrister of not less than ten years standing shall be qualified to be appointed a judge of the said High Court of Justice; and any person who has been a barrister in England or Ireland or an advocate in Scotland of not less than fifteen years standing, or has been a judge of the High Court of Justice in England, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of one of Her Majesty’s superior courts at Dublin, or of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, of not less than one year’s standing, shall be qualified to be appointed an ordinary judge of the said Court of Appeal: Provided that no person appointed a judge of either of the said Courts shall henceforth be required to take, or to have taken, the degree of serjeant-at-law, or be subject to any examination or trial.

Jurisdiction
of Lord Chancellor and Lords Justices in respect of lunatics.

6. Any jurisdiction usually vested in the Lords Justices of Appeal in Chancery, or either of them, in relation to the persons and estates of idiots, lunatics, and persons of unsound mind, shall be exercised by such judge or judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature as may be intrusted by the sign manual of Her Majesty or Her successors with the care and commitment of the custody of such persons and estates; and all enactments referring to the Lords Justices as so intrusted shall be construed as if such judge or judges so intrusted had been named therein instead of such Lords Justices: Provided that each of the persons who may at the date of the commencement of the principal Act be Lords Justices of Appeal in Chancery shall, during such time as he continues to be a judge of the Imperial Court of Appeal, and is intrusted as aforesaid, retain the jurisdiction vested in him in relation to such persons and estates as aforesaid. A.D. 1874.

7. Whereas by section eleven of the principal Act it is provided as follows: "Every existing judge who is by this Act made " a judge of the High Court of Justice or an ordinary judge of the " Court of Appeal shall, as to tenure of office, rank, title, salary, 10 " pension, patronage, and powers of appointment or dismissal, and " all other privileges and disqualifications, remain in the same " condition as if this Act had not passed; and, subject to the " change effected in their jurisdiction and duties by or in pursuance " of the provisions of this Act, each of the said existing judges shall 15 " be capable of performing and liable to perform all duties which " he would have been capable of performing or liable to perform in " pursuance of any Act of Parliament, law, or custom if this Act " had not passed. No judge appointed before the passing of this " Act shall be required to act under any commission of assize, nisi 20 " prius, oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, unless he was so liable
" by usage or custom at the commencement of this Act:"

Provision as to existing judge of the High Court of Admiralty.

And whereas the judge of the High Court of Admiralty is by the principal Act appointed a judge of the High Court of Justice:

And whereas such judge is, as to salary and pension, inferior 25 in position to the other puisne judges of the superior courts of common law, but holds certain ecclesiastical and other offices in addition to the office of judge of the High Court of Admiralty:

And whereas it is expedient that such judge, if he be willing to relinquish such other offices, should be placed in the same position 30 as to rank, salary, and pension as the other puisne judges of the superior courts of common law:

Be it enacted that—

If the existing judge of the High Court of Admiralty under his hand signifies to the Lord Chancellor in writing, before the com-35 mencement of the principal Act, that he is willing to relinquish such other offices as aforesaid, and does before the commencement of the principal Act resign all other offices of emolument held by him except the office of judge of the High Court of Admiralty, he shall, from and after the commencement of the principal Act, be 40 entitled to the same rank, salary, and pension as if he had been appointed a judge of the High Court of Justice immediately on the commencement of the principal Act, with this addition, that, in

A.D. 1874. reckoning service for the purposes of his pension, his service as a judge of the High Court of Admiralty shall be reckoned in the same manner as if the High Court of Justice had been established at the time of his accepting the office of judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and he had continued from such time to be a judge 5 of the said High Court of Justice.

London
Court of Bankruptcy not to be transferred to High Court of Justice.

8. The jurisdiction of the London Court of Bankruptcy shall not be transferred under the principal Act to the High Court of Justice, and shall continue the same in all respects as if such transfer had not been made by the principal Act, and the principal Act shall 10 be construed as if such transfer had not been made; and the rules and orders of the London Court of Bankruptcy shall not be deemed to be rules of the High Court of Justice, or be capable of being altered or annulled by rules of court under the principal Act: Provided that 15

(1.) The office of Chief Judge in Bankruptcy shall from time to time be filled by such one of the judges of the Exchequer division of the High Court of Justice, or if the number of divisions is altered by Order in Council, of the division fixed by that order, as may be assigned in pursuance of 20 section sixty-one of the Bankruptcy Act, 1869:

(2.) The appeal from the London Court of Bankruptcy shall lie to the Imperial Court of Appeal in manner provided by the principal Act, and such rules and orders of the London Court of Bankruptcy in force at the commencement of 25 this Act as relate to appeals from the Chief Judge in Bankruptcy and the Court of Appeal in Chancery shall be deemed to be rules of the Imperial Court of Appeal, and shall remain and be in force in the same manner in all respects as if they had been contained in the schedule 30 to the principal Act, until they shall respectively be altered or annulled by rules of court made under the principal Act:

(3.) Subject to the express provisions of the principal Act, and this Act, the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act, 1869, 35 relating to the superior courts of law and equity shall be construed in manner directed by section seventy-six of the principal Act.

Amendment
of 36 & 37
Vict. c. 66.
s. 19. as to appeals to be

9. The said Imperial Court of Appeal shall have jurisdiction and power to hear and determine Appeals from— 40

(a) Any judgment or order, of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, in England, or of any judges or judge thereof, and—

(b) Any judgment or interlocutor of the Court of Session in Scotland or of any judges or judge thereof, and—

(c) Any judgment or order of Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in Ireland in any case in which an appeal from that Court is for the time being authorised by law, or any judgment or order of the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland or the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, or of any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Dublin, or of any judges or judge thereof from which judgment or order, error or appeal might but for this Act have been brought to the House of Lords:

A.D. 1874. heard by Imperial Court of

subject in every case to the provisions of the principal Act and this Act, and to such Rules and Orders of Court for regulating the terms and conditions on which such Appeals shall be allowed, as may be made pursuant to the principal Act or this Act:

For all the purposes of and incidental to the hearing and determination of any Appeal within its jurisdiction, and the amendment, execution, and enforcement of any judgment, order, or interlocutor, made or pronounced on any such Appeal, and for the purpose of every other authority expressly given to the Imperial Court of Appeal by the principal Act or this Act, the said Imperial Court of Appeal shall have all the power, authority, and jurisdiction—

(a) As to England which are by the principal Act or this Act vested in the High Court of Justice, and—

(b) As to Scotland which are vested in the Court of Session, and—

(c) As to Ireland which are vested in Her Majesty's Court of Appeal or the High Court of Justice in Ireland, or in the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland, or the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, or any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Dublin.

10. No error or appeal shall be brought from any judgment or order of the High Court of Justice, nor from any judgment or order, subsequent to the commencement of this Act, of the Court of Chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, to the House of Lords or to the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

Amendment
of s. 20. of 36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66. as to discontinuance of appeals to House of Lords, or Judicial Committee.

No error or appeal shall be brought from any judgment or interlocutor subsequent to the commencement of this Act of the Court of Session in Scotland to the House of Lords.

No error or appeal shall be brought from any judgment or order of Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in Ireland or the High Court of Justice in Ireland, or from any judgment or order subsequent to the commencement of this Act of the Court of Appeal in Chancery

A.D. 1874. in Ireland, or of the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, or of any of Her Majesty's superior courts at Dublin to the House of Lords.

No error or appeal shall be brought from any judgment, order, or interlocutor of the Imperial Court of Appeal to the House of Lords or to the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council. 5

Nothing in the principal Act or this Act shall prejudice any right existing at the commencement of this Act to prosecute any pending writ of error or appeal, or to bring error or appeal to the House of Lords or to Her Majesty in Council, or to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, from any prior judgment 10 or order of any court whose jurisdiction is by the principal Act or this Act transferred to the High Court of Justice or to the Imperial Court of Appeal, or from any prior judgment or interlocutor of the Court of Session in Scotland, or from any prior judgment or order of the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ire- 15 land, or of the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, or of any of Her Majesty's superior courts at Dublin.

Any person entitled to bring error or appeal to the House of Lords from any such prior judgment or order as last aforesaid may, if he thinks fit, instead of bringing such error or appeal to the 20 House of Lords, appeal from such judgment or order to the Imperial Court of Appeal in the same manner and subject to the same rules and conditions as if it had been a judgment or order subsequent to the commencement of this Act.

If the parties to any writ of error or appeal to the House of 25 Lords pending at the commencement of this Act shall, within the first twenty-one days of the next session of Parliament, concur in and present to the House of Lords a petition praying that their writ of error or appeal may be transferred for hearing to the Imperial Court of Appeal, it shall be lawful for the House of 30 Lords to order such transfer to be made; and the said writ of error or appeal shall be thenceforward proceeded with before and heard and determined by the Imperial Court of Appeal as if it had been an appeal presented to the Imperial Court of Appeal after the commencement of this Act. 35

11. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, at any time after the passing of this Act by Order in Council to direct that all appeals and petitions whatsoever to Her Majesty in Council which according to the laws now in force ought to be heard by or before the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall, from 40 and after a time to be fixed by such Order, be referred for hearing to and be heard by Her Majesty's Imperial Court of Appeal; and from and after the time fixed by such Order, all such appeals and petitions shall be referred for hearing to and be heard by the said

5 Imperial Court of Appeal accordingly, and shall not be heard by the said Judicial Committee; and for all the purposes of and incidental to the hearing of such appeals or petitions, and the reports to be made to Her Majesty thereon, and all Orders thereon to be afterwards made by Her Majesty in Council, and also for all 10 purposes of and incidental to the enforcement of any such Orders as may be made by the said Imperial Court of Appeal or by Her Majesty, pursuant to this section (but not for any other purpose), all the power, authority, and jurisdiction now by law vested in the said Judicial Committee shall be transferred to and vested in the 15 said Imperial Court of Appeal.

of Judicial Committee
by Order in Council.

The Ecclesiastical Causes which may be referred to the Imperial Court of Appeal in manner aforesaid, shall be heard by the first division of the Imperial Court of Appeal, constituted as in this Act mentioned, and assisted by such assessors, being Archbishops
20 or Bishops of the Church of England, as Her Majesty, by any General Rules made with the advice of the judges of the said Court, or any five of them (of whom the Lord Chancellor shall be one), and of the Archbishops and Bishops who are members of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two of them, (and which General 25 Rules shall be made by Order in Council,) may think fit to direct:

The said rules may provide for the assessors being appointed for one or more year or years or by rotation or otherwise, and for filling any temporary or other vacancy in the office of assessor.

Provided that such rules shall be laid before each House of Par-
30 liament within forty days of the making of the same, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, then within forty days of the commencement of the then next ensuing session; and if an address is presented to Her Majesty by either House of Parliament within the next subsequent forty days on which the said House shall have sat,
35 praying that any such rules may be annulled, Her Majesty may thereupon by Order in Council annul the same; and the rules so annulled shall thenceforth become void and of no effect, but without prejudice to the validity of any proceedings which may in the meantime have been taken under the same.

40 General rules for the purposes of this section may be made at any time after the passing of this Act, and if made before the

The registrar of Her Majesty in ecclesiastical causes shall attend the hearing of all ecclesiastical appeals referred to the Imperial Court of Appeal in manner aforesaid.

Amendment of
36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66. s. 53.
as to Divisional Courts of Imperial Court of Appeal.

12. (1.) Every appeal to the Imperial Court of Appeal shall be 10 heard or determined either by the whole Court or a Divisional Court of the judges thereof.

(2.) The Imperial Court of Appeal shall be divided into two or more Divisional Courts.

(3.) The first Divisional Court of the Imperial Court of Appeal shall 15 consist of the Lord Chancellor, the two other ex officio judges herein-after mentioned, any number not exceeding three of the additional judges of the Imperial Court of Appeal, and three of the ordinary judges of the Imperial Court of Appeal, or of any five or more of them, such three additional and three ordinary 20 judges of the Imperial Court of Appeal to be nominated to sit in the said Divisional Court by Her Majesty as herein-after mentioned.

(4.) The two ex-officio judges, other than the Lord Chancellor, shall, for the first two years after the commencement of the principal Act, be the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master of 25 the Rolls in England, and for the next two years the Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas in England and the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer in England; and so on in rotation, the first-named two judges alternating at every period of two years with the two last named. 30

(5.) Her Majesty may by warrant under her royal sign-manual, from time to time nominate to sit in the first Divisional Court such three of the additional judges, and such three of the ordinary judges of the Imperial Court of Appeal as to Her Majesty may seem fit. The nomination shall have effect for three years only from the date 35 thereof, without prejudice, however, to the renomination of a retiring judge.

(6.) If from death, illness, or other cause the attendance of the full number of five judges in the first Divisional Court cannot at any time be obtained, the Lord Chancellor may by order under his hand 40 authorise any one member of the Court of Appeal who is not under the foregoing provisions included in the first Divisional Court, to sit in the first Divisional Court for the time specified in the order, and such member shall sit as a judge of the first Divisional Court accordingly. A.D. 1874.

5 (7.) The judges of the Court of Appeal who are not included in the first Divisional Court may sit either in one or two other Divisional Courts, to be called the second and third Divisional Courts of the Court of Appeal, according as may be fixed by the arrangements made in manner herein-after mentioned, so that not less than three 10 judges shall sit in each Court.

(8.) Any member of the first Divisional Court may, when the state of business will permit it, sit in one of the other Divisional Courts.

(9.) All or any two of such Divisional Courts may sit at the same time.

15 (10.) Any appeal from a judgment or order of the High Court of Justice, or of any judge thereof, heard before any Divisional Court other than the first, in the decision of which the judges of such Divisional Court are not unanimous, or where the decision of such Divisional Court reverses on any question of law a material part of 20 the order or judgment appealed from, shall, if any party to such appeal so desire, be reheard before the first Divisional Court.

13. All such arrangements as may be necessary or proper for the transaction of the business from time to time pending before the Imperial Court of Appeal, and for constituting and holding Divisional Courts thereof, shall be made by and under the direction of 25 the President and the other ex-officio and ordinary judges of the said Imperial Court of Appeal.

The said arrangements shall provide for the hearing before the first Divisional Court of the Imperial Court of Appeal of all appeals
30 from the Court of Session in Scotland, or from Her Majesty's Court of Appeal in Ireland, or the Court of Appeal in Chancery in Ireland, or the Court of Exchequer Chamber in Ireland, or any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Dublin, and for the re-hearing before the first Divisional Court of appeals from any judgment or 35 order of the High Court of Justice, or of any judge thereof, previously heard by any other Divisional Court in the decision of which the judges were not unanimous, or where the decision of such Divisional Court reverses on any question of law a material part of the order or judgment appealed from.

40 Any arrangement for re-hearing any appeal or petition before the first Divisional Court of Appeal shall provide that such re-hearing

How doubt to be determined.

If any doubt shall arise as to whether a decision does or does not reverse on a question of law a material part of the order or judgment appealed from, it shall be determined by the first Divisional Court at the time and in the manner prescribed by rules of court.

If Her Majesty shall be pleased by Order in Council to direct that the hearing of such appeals and petitions to Her Majesty in Council as herein-before mentioned shall be referred to the said Imperial Court of Appeal, then—

(1.) The said arrangements shall provide for the hearing before the first Divisional Court of all appeals in ecclesiastical causes which may be so referred, and of such other appeals and petitions so referred as the Imperial Court of Appeal may think proper to be heard before the first Divisional Court; and

15

(2.) Any member of Her Majesty's Privy Council who, having held the office of a judge in the East Indies or in any of Her Majesty's dominions beyond the seas, shall have been appointed by Her Majesty, under the Acts relating to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to attend the sittings of the said Judicial Committee, may attend the sittings of any Divisional Court of the Court of Appeal before which any appeals or petitions so referred are being heard or reheard; and

(3.) With respect to the place of sitting of any such last-mentioned Divisional Court, and any attendance or service therein, or in aid of the proceedings thereof, which may be required from the Registrar or any other officer of Her Majesty's Privy Council, all such arrangements as may be necessary or proper shall be made by the Lord Chancellor, as President of the Imperial Court of Appeal, with the concurrence of the President for the time being of Her Majesty's Privy Council; and the President of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall from time to time give such directions to the Registrar and other officers of the said Privy Council as may be necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying such last-mentioned arrangements into effect.

(1.) All persons being solicitors of the Supreme Court, or being enrolled law agents in Scotland within the meaning of the Act of the session of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-three, or being duly admitted attorneys or solicitors in Ireland; and

(2.) As respects any case on appeal from any colony or possession in Her Majesty's dominions, including India, any person having a status in such colony or position corresponding to the status of a solicitor in England; and

(3.) Any person who may be specially allowed by any order of the court to act as a solicitor of the Supreme Court in any case: Provided as follows:

That any person who within a period of five years preceding the commencement of the principal Act has practised, and is at the time of the passing of this Act entitled to practise, as an agent on appeals before the House of Lords or before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, shall be entitled to be entered on the roll of solicitors of the Imperial Court of Appeal without payment of any fee and without any conditions annexed to such entry.

The certificate of the clerk of the Parliaments shall be sufficient evidence for the purposes of this Act of a person having practised and being entitled to practise as aforesaid as an agent on appeal before the House of Lords; and the certificate of the registrar of the Privy Council shall be sufficient evidence for the purposes of this Act of a person having practised and being entitled to practise as aforesaid as an agent on appeals before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

- (2.) As respects any case on appeal from any colony or possession of Her Majesty, including India, any person entitled to practise as a barrister in the colony or possession from which such appeal is brought; and
- (3.) Any person who may be admitted to practise as a barrister 10 by special order of the court.

Appeal from inferior
record.

17. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to direct that the enactments relating to appeals from county courts shall apply to any other inferior court of record; and those enactments, subject to any exceptions, conditions, and limita- 15 tions contained in the order, shall apply accordingly, as from the date mentioned in the order.

- 32 & 33 Vict.
c. 91, ss. 19-
23. (1.) The fees and per-centages shall, except so far as the order may otherwise direct, be taken by stamps, and if not taken by stamps shall be taken, applied, accounted for, and paid 5 over in such manner as may be directed by the order.
- 32 & 33 Vict.
c. 91, s. 20. (2.) Such stamps shall be impressed or adhesive, as the Treasury from time to time direct.
- 32 & 33 Vict.
c. 91, s. 21. (3.) The Treasury, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor, may from time to time make such rules as may seem fit 10 for regulating the use of such stamps, and particularly for prescribing the application thereof to documents from time to time in use or required to be used for the purposes of such stamps, and for insuring the proper cancellation of adhesive stamps and for keeping accounts of such stamps. 15
- 32 & 33 Vict.
c. 91, s. 22. (4.) Any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall not be of any validity unless and until it is properly stamped, but if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed, or used without being properly stamped, the Lord Chancellor or the court may, if he or it 20 shall think fit, order that the same be stamped as in such order may be directed, and on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if such document had been properly stamped in the first instance. 25
- 32 & 33 Vict.
c. 91, s. 23. (5.) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall keep a separate account of all money received in respect of stamps under this Act, and subject to the deduction of any expenses incurred by those Commissioners in the execution of this 30 section, the money so received shall, under the direction of the Treasury, be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund.
- (6.) Any person who forges or counterfeits any such stamp, or uses any such stamp, knowing the same to be forged or 35 counterfeit, or to have been previously cancelled or used, shall be guilty of forgery, and be liable on conviction to penal servitude for a term not exceeding seven years, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years. 40

An order under this section may abolish any existing fees and per-centages which may be taken in the said courts or offices, or any of them, or by the said officers or any of them, but subject to the provisions of any order made in pursuance of this section, the existing fees and per-centages shall continue to be taken and accounted for in the existing manner. A.D. 1874.

5 Whereas by the Common Pleas at Lancaster Amendment Act, 1869, the fees taken by the prothonotaries and district prothonotaries in pursuance of that Act, are directed to be carried to the credit of "the prothonotaries fee fund account of the county palatine of Lancaster," and certain salaries and expenses connected 10 with the offices of the said prothonotaries and district prothonotaries, are directed to be paid out of that account: CLAUSE B. Provisions as to Lancaster Fee Fund, and salaries, &c. of officers of courts at Lancaster and Durham. 32 & 33 Vict. c. 37.

And whereas there is standing to the credit of that account a sum of thousand hundred and pounds consolidated three per cent. bank annuities, and thousand hundred 15 pounds cash, or thereabouts:

And whereas in pursuance of the Act of the session of the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth and the first year of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty-eight, intituled "An 20 " Act for regulating the receipt and future appropriation of fees and " emoluments receivable by officers of the superior courts of common law," there is payable to the prothonotary of the Court of Pleas at Durham the annual sum of three hundred and twenty-one pounds twelve shillings and twopence, and the fees received in the 25 the said court are applied in payment of disbursements connected with the office of the said prothonotary, and then in discharge of the said annual sum payable to the prothonotary, and any surplus of such fees is paid into the receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and any deficiency of the amount of the said fees to pay the said annual sum to the prothonotary is charged on the Consolidated Fund of the 30 United Kingdom:

And whereas after the commencement of the principal Act, the jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster and the Court of Pleas at Durham is by that Act transferred to and vested in the High Court of Justice, and it is expedient to make further 35 provision respecting the expenses of those courts and the said stock and cash standing to the credit of the prothonotaries fee fund account of the county palatine of Lancaster, and the sums payable to the prothonotary of the Court of Pleas at Durham: Be it therefore enacted that—

40 After the commencement of the principal Act there shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament such sums by way of salary or remuneration to the prothonotaries and district protho-

If at any time the moneys provided by Parliament are insufficient during the life of the person who is prothonotary of the Court of Pleas at Durham at the time of the passing of this Act to pay him the annual sum above mentioned, that sum shall be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom. 5 10

As soon as each prothonotary and district prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster has accounted for and paid all fees and moneys which he shall have received by virtue of his said office, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster shall cause the security (if any) given by such officer in pursuance of section 15 seventeen of the Common Pleas at Lancaster Amendment Act, 1869, to be cancelled, delivered up, or otherwise discharged.

As soon as may be after the commencement of the principal Act the Treasury and the Chancellor of the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster shall ascertain the amount of stock and 20 cash standing to the credit of the prothonotaries fee fund account of the county palatine of Lancaster, after paying thereout to the receiver general of the revenues of the Duchy of Lancaster the amount of the fees remaining in the prothonotary's hands on the twenty-fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and 25 sixty-nine, and paid to that account in pursuance of section seventeen of the last-mentioned Act, and all other sums justly due to Her Majesty in right of Her said duchy and county palatine; and the Treasury shall by warrant direct the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to transfer to the Commissioners for the 30 Reduction of the National Debt the amount of stock and cash so ascertained and either to cancel the stock in their books or otherwise dispose of the same as may be directed by the warrant; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall transfer the stock and cash, and cancel or otherwise dispose of the stock 35 according to the warrant, without any order from the Lord Chancellor or the Chancellor of the said duchy and county palatine or any other person.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall apply all cash transferred to them in pursuance of this section in 40 the purchase of Bank Annuities which shall be cancelled or otherwise disposed of in like manner as the said stock.

- 21. The rules of court made under the principal Act and this Act with respect to the costs of proceedings may regulate the costs to be allowed to solicitors of the supreme court or to solicitors in the imperial court of appeal in respect of business transacted in or before any of such courts or of the offices thereof.
- 22. All Acts of Parliament relating to any appeal from the Court of Session in Scotland or from any court in Ireland to the House of Lords, shall, subject to any rules of court, be construed and take effect so far as relates to anything done or to be done after the commencement of this Act, as if the Imperial Court of Appeal had been named therein instead of the House of Lords.
- 23. The rule contained in the second schedule to this Act shall be substituted for the eighteenth rule in the schedule to the principal Act, which is repealed by this Act.
- 24. The Acts specified in the third schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, as from the commencement of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned, without prejudice to anything done or suffered before the said commencement under the enactments hereby repealed, or to any remedy for the same, or to the taking of any fees continued by this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

RULES AS TO APPEALS FROM SCOTLAND.

No appeal to be allowed in any cause or proceeding not exceeding 500*l.* in value.

1. No appeal shall be allowed to Her Majesty's Imperial Court of Appeal from any judgment or interlocutor pronounced in the Court of Session in any cause or proceeding not exceeding the value of five hundred pounds subject to the following excepted cases in which excepted cases an appeal shall be allowed (that is to say):

- (1.) Where the judgment is pronounced in an action or suit brought to try any question of heritable right, if such right shall be of greater principal value than the sum of five hundred pounds. 10
- (2.) Where the judges or judge by whom the judgment sought to be appealed from is given shall certify that the case involves some important question of law, which it is expedient should be settled by the highest authority:
- (3.) Where a judgment relates to a question of personal status, liberty, or custody. 15

When the value of a cause or proceeding cannot be ascertained from the conclusions of the summons or other writ originating the process, and any party thereto, with a view to taking an appeal, shall allege that the value exceeds five hundred pounds, the Division of the Court of Session before which the cause or proceeding depends may inquire into and determine the value, and their determination shall be final. 20

If the pursuer or petitioner or other person at whose instance the cause or proceeding was instituted shall at any stage of the process lodge a minute therein, declaring that in the event of his obtaining decree he will discharge his claim, not including expenses, on payment of five hundred pounds or any less sum, such minute shall be binding on him, and shall be conclusive that the value of the cause or proceeding does not exceed the sum for which he declares he will discharge his claim. 25

What judgments and interlocutors may be appealed from.

2. In any cause or proceeding in which an appeal may be allowed, an appeal may be taken from any judgment or interlocutor pronounced by a Division of the Court of Session with the leave of the Division; without such leave an appeal may be taken from the following such judgments and interlocutors only; that is to say, 30

- (1.) Any judgment or interlocutor which by itself or taken along with any prior judgment or interlocutor completely disposes of the whole cause or proceeding in which it was pronounced: 35
- (2.) An interlocutor allowing any exception and thereupon directing a new trial, or necessarily or properly leading to a new trial, whether expressly directed or not. 40

It shall be incompetent to appeal from a judgment or interlocutor of a Lord Ordinary which has not been reviewed by a Division, but it shall be no objection to an appeal that any judgment or interlocutor appealed from has not disposed of the question of expenses, or that the cause or proceeding has not been completely disposed of with respect to all the parties therein, provided it has been so disposed of with respect to the appellant.

A.D. 1874.

5 3. An appeal well brought by any party in a cause or proceeding against any judgment or interlocutor pronounced therein shall have the effect of bringing up and submitting to the consideration and review of the Court of Appeal, at the instance of any respondent as well as of the appellant, not only any judgment or interlocutor specially appealed against, but also all prior judgments or inter-
10 locutors in the cause or proceeding to the effect of enabling the Court of Appeal to do complete justice; and no cross appeal shall in any case be necessary.

Cross appeals superseded.

4. When an appeal has been taken in any cause or proceeding it shall be lawful for the Division of the Court of Session which pronounced the 15 judgment or interlocutor appealed from to allow or direct the cause or proceeding to proceed in the Court of Session, pending the appeal, as regards the parties thereto other than the appellant, if such Division shall deem such course to be expedient.

Procedure may be continued in the Court of Session pending an appeal as regards the parties other than the appellant.

5. Every judgment or interlocutor of the Court of Session in a cause 20 originating in a Sheriff Court and in which a proof was allowed and taken, shall, in so far as regards any findings in point of fact upon such proof, be final and not subject to appeal, to Her Majesty's Imperial Court of Appeal.

Findings of fact by Court of Session on proofs led in Sheriff Court to be final.

6. Every appeal to Her Majesty's Imperial Court of Appeal shall be taken by note of appeal, in the form annexed to this Schedule, which shall be lodged in 25 duplicate with the clerk of the process in the Court of Session; and it shall be the duty of the said clerk within days after the receipt of any such note of appeal to forward one of the copies thereof to the officer of the Court of Appeal, who shall be appointed to take charge of such notes of appeal.

Mode of appealing.

When an appeal shall have been taken the appellant shall lay before the 30 Court of Appeal a copy, certified as authentic by the signature of one of the principal clerks of session, or of one of the assistants of the said clerks, for whom the principal clerk shall be responsible, of the whole record of the averments and pleas of the parties; and the appellant shall present to the Court of Appeal a case containing a printed copy of the closed record, and shall 35 be at liberty to annex thereto a supplementary statement containing an account of the further steps which have been taken in the cause or proceeding since the record was closed, and copies of the interlocutors or parts of interlocutors complained against, with such reasons for or against the judgment or interlocutor appealed from as may be thought fit. The respondent shall also present a 40 corresponding case which need not contain the record.

7. Notice of the note of appeal shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to serve the same upon any party not so affected; but the Court of Appeal may direct such notice to

- A.D. 1874. be served upon all or any parties to the action or other proceeding, or upon any person not a party, and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may seem just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties. 5
- General powers of Appeal Court. 8. The Court of Appeal shall have all the powers and duties as to amendment and otherwise of the Court of Session, and may remit a cause or proceeding to the Court of Session appointing issues to be tried, or to take further evidence, or may receive further evidence upon questions of fact, such evidence to be taken either by oral examination in court, or by deposition taken before an examiner or commissioner, or in such other manner as the Court of Appeal shall think fit. 10
- Upon appeals from judgments upon the merits, whether pronounced after a trial or a hearing, such further evidence shall not be admitted without special leave of the Court granted on special cause shown. 15
- Court of Appeal may reject opinion in law on a case. 9. The Court of Appeal may adopt or reject any opinion given on a case prepared for the opinion in law of a Court in England or Ireland, or for the opinion of any counsel skilled in the law of England or of Ireland in any cause or proceeding.
- Court of Appeal empowered to do full justice in appeals. 10. The Court of Appeal shall have power in every cause or proceeding to give any judgment and make any decree or order which ought to have been made and to make such further or other order as the case may require; and such powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision. 25
- The Court of Appeal shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of the appeal as may seem just.
- Court of Appeal to refer to notes, &c. 11. If upon the hearing of an appeal a question arise as to the ruling or direction of the judge to a jury, the Court of Appeal shall have regard to verified notes or other evidence, and to such other materials as the court may deem expedient. 30
- Notice to be given by respondent desiring the judgment to be varied. 12. If a respondent intends, upon the hearing of the appeal, to contend that the decision of the Court of Session should be varied or altered, he shall, within such time as may be prescribed by Rules of Court or by special order, give notice of such intention to any parties who may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers by this Act conferred upon the Court of Appeal, but may, in the discretion of the court, be ground for an adjournment of the appeal, or for a special order as to costs. 35
- Limit of time in appeals. 13. No appeal from any interlocutory order of a Division of the Court of Session in any cause or proceeding, or from any finding in law of a Division of such court in any cause or proceeding in which an issue has been tried of consent before a Lord Ordinary without a jury, or from any judgment of such Division granting or refusing cessio, shall, except by special leave of the Court of Appeal, be brought after the expiration of twenty-one days. No other 45 appeal shall, except by such leave, be brought after the expiration of one year A.D. 1874.

The said respective periods shall be calculated from the time at which the judgment or interlocutor is signed, or from such time as may be prescribed by Rules of Court.

5 14. Such deposit or other security for the costs to be occasioned by any appeal shall be made or given as may be prescribed by Rules of Court, or directed under special circumstances by the Court of Appeal. Security for costs of appeal.

15. On an appeal being taken the Division of the Court of Session, whose judgment or order is appealed, shall have power to regulate all matters 10 relative to interim possession, execution, payment of expenses or costs already incurred, having a just regard to the interests of the parties as they may be affected by the decision of the appeal; but it shall be competent for the Court of Appeal on the appeal being heard to make such order and give such judgment respecting all such matters, and the consequences of their regulation as 15 aforesaid, and to decree or adjudge the payment of such interest by any of the parties in the cause, as justice shall require; and in the event of an appeal being dismissed it shall be lawful for any respondent in such appeal to move the Division of the Court of Session before which the cause depended to decree payment to him of such interest as shall be just, and for such Division to 20 grant such decree accordingly with such costs as shall be just. Regulation of possession, and as to execution pending appeal.

16. The form used shall be as follows :

Form of Note of Appeal.

A.B., &c., [give names, designations, and places of residence], pursuers [or Forms.
petitioners, or as the case may be], against C.D., &c., [give names, designa-25 tions, and places of residence], defenders, [or respondents, or as the case may be].
Note of appeal for M.N., pursuer [or defender as the case may be].

I, M.N., pursuer [or defender or other party] appeal to Her Majesty's Court of Appeal against the judgment [or interlocutor] pronounced by the first [or second] division of the Court of Session of date [give date], wholly, [or in so 30 far as, &c.]

N.B.—The note must be signed by the appellant or his counsel, and shall bear the date on which it is signed, and also the date on which it is lodged with SECOND SCHEDULE.

RULES OF PROCEDURE IN ENGLAND.

The following rules of pleading shall be substituted for those heretofore used in the High Court of Chancery and in the Courts of Common Law, Admiralty, and Probate.

Unless the defendant at the time of his appearance shall state that he does not require the delivery of a statement of complaint, the plaintiff shall, within such time and in such manner as shall be prescribed by rules of court, file or deliver to the defendant after his appearance a statement of his complaint and of the relief or remedy to which he claims to be entitled. The defendant shall, within such time and in such manner as aforesaid, file or deliver to the plaintiff a statement of his defence, set-off, or counter-claim (if any), and the plaintiff shall in like manner file or deliver a statement of his reply (if any) to such defence, set-off, or counter-claim. Such statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and shall be either filed or delivered, and shall be either printed or in writing, as shall be prescribed by rules of court, and the court in adjusting the costs of the action shall inquire at the instance of any party into any unnecessary prolixity, and order the costs occasioned by such prolixity to be borne by the party chargeable with the same.

A demurrer to any statement may be filed or delivered, and shall be either filed or delivered, and either in writing or in print, as may be prescribed by rules of court, and shall be in such form and filed or delivered in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of court.

The Court or a judge may, at any stage of the proceedings, allow either party to alter his statement of claim, or defence, or reply, or may order to be struck out or amended any matter in such statements respectively which may be scandalous, or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial of the action, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions or question in controversy between the parties.

TO

Enable Tenants of Land in Ireland to acquire Parliamentary Tenant Right in their Holdings. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable tenants of land in Ireland to acquire a parliamentary tenant right in their holdings:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for any tenant in any part of Ireland whatever, whose tenancy has commenced either before or after the passing of this Act, to obtain parliamentary tenant right in his holding in either of the two following ways:

Mode of a tenant obtaining parliamentary title to his holding.

(a.) By express agreement in writing with his landlord for the time being that his holding shall thenceforth be subject to such right:

(b.) By obtaining from the Court a declaration that his holding shall thenceforth be subject to such right.

2. The Court is hereby empowered to make such declaration when it shall have been proved to its satisfaction that a sum which, together with the value of any interest which the tenant may then have in his holding, is equal to ten years rent has been expended, or may be agreed to be expended, by the tenant on his holding as herein-after mentioned; and the Court, in estimating the consideration for such parliamentary tenant right, shall make allowance for each of the particulars herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

Conditions under which Court may grant declaration that holding shall be subject to tenant right.

(1.) (a.) For all moneys paid by the tenant to his predecessor for his holding, with the express or implied consent of his landlord for the time being; or

(b.) For such sum as the tenant would be entitled to as maximum compensation for disturbance under section three of the "Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Act, 1870," herein-after called the principal Act; or

A

A.D. 1874.

(c.) For the value of the Ulster tenant right or other the interest of the tenant (if any) in his holding ; allowing to the tenant whichever amount in a, b, or c shall be the greatest.

(2.) For the value of any improvements theretofore made by the tenant or his predecessor not comprised in a, b, or c of the last particular :

(3.) For the value of any improvements agreed to be effected by the tenant within seven years.

Provided always, that any improvements which the Court shall thus have taken into account as the consideration or part consideration for such parliamentary tenant right shall thenceforth be regarded as having been made by the landlord.

Provided also, that in every case where a tenant applying for parliamentary tenant right holds under a lease the declaration shall be subject to such rent as the Court shall consider reasonable.

Declaration to state full consideration for parliamentary tenant right.

3. The Court shall state in the declaration (which may be in the form specified in the schedule to this Act) the full consideration for such parliamentary tenant right, both in the aggregate and in detail, as to each of the particulars aforesaid, and also the value of the Ulster tenant right or other interest of the tenant (if any), and the value and nature of the improvements (if any) existing on the lands at the date of such declaration which have not formed part of the consideration therefor ; and shall also state whether such improvements have been made by the landlord or tenant.

Board of Works may advance money for the acquisition of such tenant right.

4. Any tenant requiring money for the acquisition of the parliamentary tenant right under this Act may avail himself of the powers given by Part III. of the principal Act, and the Board of Works may advance money for such purpose to the tenant, in the same manner as if he were purchasing his holding under the principal Act.

The holding shall be subject to unpaid portions of such advances.

5. In the event of the landlord resuming possession of the holding in any way, the land in his hands shall be subject to any unpaid portion of the sum advanced by the Board of Works, but in such case the landlord shall be entitled in account with the tenant to credit for all instalments due or to fall due in respect of such advances.

Board of Works may make rules to secure execution of works by loan.

6. The Board of Works shall make rules for the payment by instalments of advances under this Act, and for the inspection of the works to be executed so as to secure the effectual execution of the same, and the expenditure thereon of the sum specified in the declaration ; and shall, on the completion thereof, certify the fact, and the certificate of the Board of Works shall be conclusive evidence that the tenant has fulfilled his undertaking to expend in improvements the sum stated therein. A.D. 1874.

7. In case the tenant shall not fulfil the undertaking in respect of which he has obtained his parliamentary tenant right he shall be a debtor to the landlord for such sum as may be necessary to make up the deficiency, with interest at the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum from the time at which his undertaking should have been completed, to be recovered by civil bill process, but with power to the Court, if it shall see fit, to extend the time for the tenant to complete his undertaking on the terms of his paying all costs.

Tenant shall be a debtor to landlord for amount of deficiency in fulfilling his undertaking.

8. Immediately upon such agreement being entered into by the parties, or such declaration being signed by the Court, the relations of the landlord and the tenant for the time being shall be subject to the following regulations :

Relations of landlord and tenant after declaration has been signed.

(1.) The tenant shall not thenceforth be, except as herein-after mentioned, liable to eviction, except for nonpayment of rent, wilful waste, or, without the consent in writing of his landlord, for subletting, subdividing, or letting in conacre :

(2.) If the landlord desire to increase the rent he may serve on the tenant a twelve months' notice, to end on or before the first day of November in any year, demanding a specific increase of the rent, such increase to commence from such first day of November ; and if the tenant shall not be willing to pay the increased rent specified in such notice, it shall be lawful for him, at any time within six calendar months after the service thereof, to serve a notice on the landlord that he is unwilling to pay such increased rent, and that he will surrender his holding, and upon the service of such notice upon the landlord the tenant shall remain in possession of his holding at the rent to which he was liable before the service of such notice as aforesaid upon him by the landlord up to the first day of November next but one after the expiration of such notice ; and on such last-mentioned first day of November the landlord shall be entitled to the possession of the holding on payment to the tenant of compensation equivalent to a sum equal to ten times the amount of the increased annual rent demanded by the landlord, together with the value of any improvements effected by the tenant not forming any part of the consideration for his parliamentary tenant right, and to which he would be entitled under section four of the principal Act; such compensation, with interest at the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum until paid, to be a charge upon the said holding :

- (3.) If the tenant desire a reduction of his rent he may serve on 5 the landlord a twelve months' notice, to end on or before the first day of November in any year, demanding a specific reduction of his rent, such reduction to commence from such first day of November; and if the landlord, within six calendar months from the service of such notice, shall 10 reply thereto in writing, stating that he is unwilling to accept such reduced rent, the tenant shall be entitled to remain in possession of his holding at his original rent up to the first day of November next but one after the expiration of such notice, and on such last-mentioned first day 15 of November the landlord shall be entitled to the possession of the holding, on payment to the tenant of compensation equivalent to a sum equal to ten times the reduced annual rent proposed by the tenant, together with the value of any improvements as aforesaid; the amount of the said 20 compensation, with interest at the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum until paid, to be a charge upon the said holding :
- (4.) If such notice of increase or reduction be not replied to within such time as aforesaid, the parties shall be deemed 25 to have agreed to the rent mentioned in the notice, as if the increased or reduced rent had been the rent originally stated in the agreement or declaration, as the case may be.

Notice of increase or decrease of rent.

9. Any such notice of increase or reduction served within ten 30 years after the date of the last notice, or of the agreement or declaration by which the parliamentary tenant right is effected, or proposing an increase or reduction of less than ten per cent. of the rent, shall be absolutely void.

Tenant also entitled to allowance by Court for improvements not included in declaration.

10. In case of resumption by the landlord of the tenant's hold- 35 ing for any cause, the tenant shall be entitled (in addition to compensation for his parliamentary tenant right) to compensation for Ulster tenant right or other interest of the tenant (if any), and for all improvements made by him other than those which shall have formed the consideration or part of the consideration for the 40 agreement or declaration creating such parliamentary tenant right, subject to the provisions of section four of the principal Act; but, save as provided by this Act, no tenant who shall have obtained a parliamentary tenant right under this Act shall be entitled to any compensation under the principal Act : Provided always, that there shall be deducted from the parliamentary tenant right of any tenant 5 evicted for nonpayment of rent, wilful waste, or, without the consent in writing of his landlord, for subletting, subdividing, or letting in conacre, the whole or such portion of the compensation for disturbance (if any) included in such parliamentary tenant right, as to the Court shall appear reasonable.

A.D. 1874.

10 11. No tenant shall be removable from his holding until after payment or tender by the landlord of the compensation payable to the tenant under this Act. If payment is accepted by the tenant the landlord shall be entitled to immediate possession, and if the tenant who has accepted such payment does not on the expiration 15 of the term aforesaid give up possession the landlord shall be entitled to a summary order from the justices at petty sessions for his removal, as in the case of an overholding caretaker or servant.

Tenant not to be removed until after payment or tender of the compensation.

20 12. Parliamentary tenant right shall not be made the subject of any incumbrance or settlement, other than the payment of money to the Board of Works, and the fulfilment of the obligations mentioned in such agreement or declaration as aforesaid ; but the tenant at any time, or the sheriff in case an execution against the goods of the tenant be placed in his hands, may sell the parliamentary tenant 25 right.

Parliamentary tenant right not to be the subject of incumbrance or settlement, except as to payments to Board of Works ; but may be sold by tenant or sheriff.

13. It shall be lawful for the Court, at any time and from time to time, to grant to the tenant at his own cost a new declaration of parliamentary tenant right of his holding.

Court may grant new certificate.

30 14. For the purposes of this Act "the Court" shall mean one or other of the tribunals mentioned in section twenty-two of the principal Act, and the same jurisdiction and power is hereby given to the Court, and the same rights of appeal and arbitration are hereby given in respect of any claim under this Act, as are given in respect of any matter or question arising under the principal Act.

Definition of "Court."

35 15. No Parliamentary tenant right shall be capable of being acquired, except by express agreement, in respect of any of the lands, holdings, or lettings excepted by section fifteen of the principal Act.

Exemption of certain holdings.

40 16. Any landlord, being a limited owner as defined by section twenty-six of the principal Act, and in the actual receipt of the rents and profits of the lands the subject of the parliamentary

This Act to be read with principal Act. 17. This Act shall be read in conjunction with the principal Act, and shall be construed as if it formed a part of the said principal Act.

Exemption. 18. This Act shall not apply to any holding which is excluded from the operation of the principal Act. 10

Short title. 19. This Act may be referred to as "The Parliamentary Tenant Right (Ireland) Act, 1874." 6

Extent of Act. 20. This Act shall apply to Ireland only.

Further provisions as to construction of tramways.

8. In addition to the requirements of section twenty-six of "The Tramways Act, 1870," the Promoters shall at the same time as they give notice to the road authority of their intention to open or break up any road for the purpose of making, forming, and laying down, maintaining, and renewing any of the 45 tramways, lay before the Board of Trade a plan showing the proposed mode of construction, and a statement of the materials intended to be used therein;

and the Promoters shall not commence the construction of any of the tramways or part of any of the tramways, until such plan and statement have been approved by the said Board, and after such approval the works shall respectively be executed in accordance in all respects with such plan and statement and under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the surveyor for the time being of the road authority as provided by section twenty-six of the said Act. A.D. 1874.

9. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the Metropolitan Board of Works, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramways, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall with all reasonable despatch comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements. Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.

10. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair, and so as not to be a danger or annoyance to the ordinary traffic, the rails of which any of the tramways for the time being consist and the substructure upon which the same rests; and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be recovered by the Metropolitan Board of Works only in manner provided by section fifty-six of the said Act. Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

11. Nothing in this Order contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, abridge, or take away any of the rights, powers, and privileges conferred upon the Metropolitan Board of Works by "The Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855," or any other Act relating to that Board, as to stopping for public traffic any road or street under the jurisdiction of that Board for the purpose of constructing, repairing, and maintaining the sewers along or under any such road or street. Saving rights of Metropolitan Board of Works to stop up, &c. streets.

12. The Promoters shall not in the construction of the tramways of the metropolis stop up or interfere with any road so as to prevent the passing of traffic along such road, except with the previous consent in writing of the Metropolitan Board of Works and of the road authority. In making tramways Promoters not to prevent traffic passing along road.

13. Wherever the Promoters lay down any of the tramways upon any paved road in the parishes of St. Pancras or of St. Mary, Islington, the Promoters shall re-pave such road with all the granite sets temporarily removed by them if suitable for the purpose. Granite pavements temporarily taken up to be relaid.

14. Wherever the vestry of St. Pancras or of St. Mary, Islington, at any time desire to construct or have constructed any refuge or resting place in any road within the jurisdiction of either of the said vestries along which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters shall upon demand of the vestry having charge of such road or their chief surveyor acting by their authority make such alterations as may be necessary in the line and direction of the tramway within such parish to allow of the construction or maintenance of any such refuge or resting-place. As to the refuges or resting-places in St. Pancras and St. Mary, Islington.

A.D. 1874.

When works cause a diversion of traffic in St. Pancras or St. Mary,
Islington, diversion to be approved by Surveyor.

15. Before the Promoters commence any works which require the stopping up temporarily or the diversion of any thoroughfare within the parish of St. Pancras or the parish of St. Mary, Islington, or cause any obstruction to the passing of passengers or other traffic along any such thoroughfare, every such stopping up, diversion, or obstruction shall be subject to the approval of the vestry of such parish or their chief surveyor acting as aforesaid, and the Promoters shall before commencing such works at their own expense make all such temporary bridges or accommodation for the passage of such traffic as the vestry of such parish or their chief surveyor acting as aforesaid may in writing require, and it shall be lawful for the vestry of each such parish to employ a sufficient number of officers or servants to regulate the course of all such traffic as may be diverted by reason of any of the works by this Order authorised within such parish, and all reasonable costs and charges occasioned by and incident to the employment of such officers or servants shall be paid on demand by the Promoters to the vestry of such parish.

As to settlement of differences with vestry of St.
Pancras or St. Mary,
Islington.

16. Excepting as herein otherwise provided, any difference which may arise under this Order between the Promoters and the vestry of St. Pancras or of St. Mary, Islington, or their respective chief surveyor acting as aforesaid, shall be from time to time referred to and determined at the expense of the Promoters by an engineer to be agreed upon between such vestry and the Promoters, or failing any such agreement, by an engineer to be appointed on the application of either party by the Board of Trade.

20

Passing-places to be constructed where less than a certain width left between footway and tramway.

17. Where in any road in which a double line of tramway is laid there is less width between the outside of the footpath on either side of the street or road and the nearest rail of the tramway than nine feet six inches, the Promoters, if the Metropolitan Board of Works give their consent thereto in writing (which consent the Promoters are hereby required to demand,) shall, and they are hereby required, to construct a passing-place or places connecting the one tramway with the other, and by means of such passing-place or places the traffic shall when necessary be diverted from one tramway to the other.

30

Tramways to be always kept on level with surface of roads.

18. If any road authority hereafter alter the level of any road along and across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

35

Additional crossings, passing-places,
&c. may be made where necessary.

19. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter, subject to the provisions of this Order, with the consent of the Metropolitan Board of Works, make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage sheds or works by this Order authorised. Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if the owner or owners, or occupier or occupiers, of the premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under their hand addressed to the Promoters, express their objection thereto. A.D. 1874.

20. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any tramway authorised by this Order is laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions, and in accordance in all respects with regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of the Tramways Act, 1870, for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned.

21. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of the works by this Order authorised from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary in or towards the reinstating of the road and the maintenance for six months after completion of any tramways of the Promoters within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are required to maintain by this Order; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided, that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material, the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor, or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to differences between the Promoters and any road authority.

Traffic upon Tramways.

22. The tramways shall be used for passenger traffic only.

Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

23. The Promoters may from time to time demand and take in respect of the tramways tolls and charges not exceeding those which they are authorised to take and for the time being may lawfully take, in respect of the tramways authorised by the Act of 1870, and the provisions of the sections of the said

Tolls.

A.D. 1874. Act numbered seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, and seventy-seven shall apply to the tramways and the tolls to be taken in respect thereof in like manner in every respect as if the tramways were the tramways in the said sections mentioned: Provided always, that sections seventy-two and seventy-four of the said Act shall for the purposes of this Order be read and have effect 5 as if the period of one year had been mentioned in section seventy-two instead of the period of three years, and as if the fares authorised by section seventy-four to be from time to time fixed by the Board of Trade had been by the said section limited to fares not exceeding one halfpenny per mile.

Provided also that for the purposes of tolls and charges the tramways and 10 any tramways of the Promoters worked in connexion therewith shall be deemed to be one continuous line of tramway.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions as to arbitration.

24. Where under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person 15 nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

For facilitating interchange and transmission of through traffic.

25. If the Metropolitan Board of Works at any time or times hereafter give notice in writing to the Promoters stating that in their opinion the Promoters 20 have not made or are not carrying out proper arrangements for facilitating the interchange and forwarding of traffic coming from or destined for any tramway which belongs to any company or person and forms an authorised junction with any of the tramways authorised by this Order, and the Promoters do not within fourteen days after the delivery of such notice to them make 25 arrangements in that behalf to the satisfaction of the said Metropolitan Board, the Board of Trade may and shall from time to time upon representation of the said Metropolitan Board appoint a referee to inquire into the truth of such representation in the manner prescribed by section sixty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," and if such referee report that such representation is 30 true, the Board of Trade may make such regulations, including, if the Board of Trade so think fit, arrangements for booking through the traffic or any part thereof, and the fixing of through fares and rates as having regard to all the circumstances of the case they may deem expedient for providing for such interchange and forwarding of traffic, with as little inconvenience as 35 may be to the public, and after fourteen days from the date of the delivery of a copy of any such regulation to the Promoters the same shall be binding upon the Promoters and may be enforced in the same manner as regulations made by the local authority under section forty-six of "The Tramways Act, 1870." 40

Provided always, that if and whenever the Board of Trade fix any through rate or fare under this section they shall at the same time fix and determine the proportions in which such through rate or fare shall be divided between and belong to the Promoters and the other companies, company, or person interested, and in fixing and determining such proportions the Board of Trade shall take 45 into account all the circumstances of the case, including the actual and relative cost of construction and maintenance of the respective tramway and works of the respective companies, and the Board of Trade may from time to time rescind, alter, or vary any order which they make under this section. A.D. 1874.

26. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament. Provision as to general Acts.

Construction of tramways.

12 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874.

7. The tramways authorised by this Order are,—

1. A tramway, No. 1, commencing at the north-west end of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, in the parish of Greenham, and thence passing along Cheap Street, the new road to the cattle market, Bartholomew Street, across the bridge that carries the road over the river Kennet, up past Donnington Square, and will pass, from, through, or into the following parishes of Greenham, Newbury, Speen, Boxford, Welford, East Shefford, West Shefford, East Garston, and Lamborne, and will terminate at a point twenty feet to the south-west corner of the Red Lion Hotel at Lamborne, in the county of Berks :

Tramway No. 1 will at its commencement, and thence for a length of two chains, be laid along the centre of the road, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of three quarters of a chain westerly until the centre line of the tramway attains the distance of four feet six inches from and west of or to the left-hand side of the imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line until, entering and passing over Bartholomew Street, the tramway will then follow the course of the imaginary centre line, and will keep in the centre of the road until, reaching within two chains of the south end of the bridge which carries the road over the river Kennet, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of one chain easterly until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of three feet six inches from and to the east of the imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line for the further length of one and a half chains, and will thence again gradually approach the imaginary centre line until in the further length of three quarters of a chain it reaches the centre of the road, and thence the tramway will be laid along the centre of the road to a point six chains south of the Pelican Hotel, and thence will gradually diverge for the length of three quarters of a chain westerly or to the left-hand side of the imaginary centre line until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of four feet six inches from and west of the imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line throughout the entire length and to the termination of the tramway :

Provided always, that in constructing the said tramway through the village of West Shefford, the same may be laid north-east of the imaginary centre line, instead of north-west of the said line as shown on the plans deposited for the purposes of this Order.

2. A tramway, No. 2, to be wholly situate in the parish of Thatcham (chapelry of Greenham), commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about fifty feet north-west of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, and thence passing along the road to the goods station of the Great Western Railway, and will terminate at a point opposite the north-east corner of the large shed: A.D. 1874.

5 The centre line of tramway No. 2 will, throughout its entire length, be laid on the left-hand or northerly side of the imaginary centre line of the road along which it will pass, and at a distance of about four feet six inches from such imaginary centre line.

10 3. A tramway, No. 3, situate in the parishes of Greenham and Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about two hundred and thirty feet north-west of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, and thence passing along the road to the passenger station up departure platform, and terminating at a point opposite, or nearly opposite, to the door into the ticket office, but about twenty feet to the north of such door:

15 The centre line of tramway No. 3 will, throughout its entire length, be laid on the right-hand or northerly side of the imaginary centre line of the road along which it will pass, and at a distance of about four feet six inches from such imaginary centre line.

20 4. A tramway, No. 4, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about ten chains fifty links from the commencement of tramway No. 1, as already described, and will terminate at a point opposite, or nearly opposite, to Back Lane, leading from the corn wharf:

25 The centre line of tramway No. 4 will be laid on the westerly or left-hand side of the imaginary centre line for a length of about eight chains, and will be about four feet six inches from and to the west of the imaginary centre line, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of one chain eastwardly until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of four feet six inches from and to the east of the imaginary centre line, and will keep thus for about the distance of six chains. Thence it will gradually diverge and keep in an easterly direction, and the centre line of the tramway will attain a distance of about three feet six inches from and to the north of the imaginary centre line, which distance it will keep until its termination.

30 5. A tramway, No. 5, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 4, at a point about one chain from the south-west corner of the White Hart Hotel, and will terminate by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point about one chain south of the bridge that carries the road over the river Kennet:

40 The centre line of tramway No. 5 will, from its commencement, be laid on the south or left-hand side of the imaginary centre line, and will be at a distance of about three feet six inches from such imaginary centre line, which distance it will retain until its junction with tramway No. 1.

45 6. A tramway, No. 6, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 4, at a point northward of the south-west corner of the White Hart Hotel, and terminating by a junction with tramway No. 5, at a point northward of the north-east corner of the Town Hall :

The centre line of tramway No. 6 will be, from its commencement, about three feet six inches to the north or right-hand side of the imaginary centre line, and will gradually approach within the distance of one chain the said imaginary centre line, which it will cross, and will then gradually diverge to the south or left-hand side of such imaginary centre line until it attains the distance of about three feet six inches, which distance it retains to its termination :

The space, nine feet six inches, between the outside of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway cannot be afforded in the following streets, roads, or places ; (that is to say,) through Cheap Street along the road leading to the Newbury Station, also along the road leading to the goods station of the Great Western Railway, the new road to the cattle market, Bartholemew Street, Northbrook Street, the road leading to the corn wharf, and throughout all the villages along the entire route :

The tramways shall be constructed on a guage of three feet.

The Promoters shall not lay down tramways Nos. 5 and 6 without the consent of the corporation under their common seal first had and obtained. 20

Tramways within the borough of Newbury to be constructed to satisfaction of borough surveyor.

8. The Promoters shall lay down and construct such of the tramways or parts thereof as are situate within the borough of Newbury under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the surveyor of the said borough. The Promoters shall at their own expense, at all times, maintain and keep in good condition and repair, with such materials and in such manner as the said surveyor shall direct, and to his reasonable satisfaction, the entire surface of the bridge over the river Kennet, within the said borough, over which the said tramway will be laid. 25

Tramways Nos. 2 and 3 not to be constructed without the consent of the Great Western Railway Company.

9. The promoters shall not without the consent in writing of the Great Western Railway Company construct tramways Nos. 2 and 3, but the promoters may, with such consent, or the Great Western Railway Company may, at the request and cost of the promoters, lay down and construct the said tramways so far as the same are on the land or property of the Great Western Railway Company, together with such sidings, turnouts, and connections as the promoters and the said Company may agree upon ; and so much of the said tramways, or of either of them, as is laid down or constructed on the land or property of the Great Western Railway Company, shall be laid down or constructed under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of the said Company, and in] such places and manner as he may think fit. 35 40

Tramway No. 2 not to interfere with the use of the goods station of the Great Western Railway Company at Newbury and the approach thereto.

10. The said tramway No. 2 shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such a manner as not to interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the approach to the goods yard and station of the Great Western Railway Company at Newbury, or of the said goods yard and station ; and all persons using the said tramway shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made in respect of the said approach, yard, or station, or in operation therein or thereon ; and no 45 passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels shall be carried over the said tramway, unless going to or from the said goods yard and station, without the consent in writing of the Great Western Railway Company first had and obtained. A.D. 1874.

- 5 11. The said tramway No. 3 shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such a manner as not to interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the approach to the passenger station of the Great Western Railway Company at Newbury, or of the yard in front of the said station; and all persons using the said tramway shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made in respect of the said approach and yard, or in operation therein or thereon; and no passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels shall be carried over the said tramway, unless going to or from the said station, without the consent in writing of the said company first had and obtained. Tramway No. 3 not to interfere with the use of the approach to the Great Western Railway Company's passenger station at Newbury.
- 15 12. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in any tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements. Promoters may be required to use improved form of rails.
- 20 13. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues; and such penalty may be recovered as by clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided. Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.
- 30 14. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered. Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.
- 35 15. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables, or carriage-sheds, or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than 40 nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto. Additional crossing, &c., may be made where necessary.
- 45 16. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any tramway authorised by this Order is laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily Temporary tramways may be made where necessary.

A.D. 1874. — to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road and, with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued. 5

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 10

21. The Promoters may demand and take, in respect of any animals, goods, minerals, or articles conveyed by them on the tramways, except as is by this Order specially provided, including the tolls for the use of the tramways, and for waggons, trucks, and motive power, and every other expense incidental to the conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule to this Order annexed. Tolls for animals, goods, &c.
22. The tolls and charges by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons, and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner, and under such regulations as the Promoters may by notice to be annexed to the list of tolls appoint. Payment of tolls.

Miscellaneous.

23. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties. Provisions as to arbitration.
24. With respect to notices and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely, Form and delivery of notices.
- (1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and if given by the corporation shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by the town clerk, or by the borough surveyor, and if given by any other local authority or road authority by being signed by their clerk, secretary, surveyor, or overseer :

PORTSMOUTH STREET TRAMWAYS.

Order authorising the Portsmouth Street Tramways Company to construct additional Street Tramways in the parish of Portsea and county of Southampton.

- Short title. 1. This Order may be cited as "The Portsmouth Street Tramways 5
(Extensions) Order, 1874."
- Incorporation of Acts. 2. The provisions of "The Lands Clauses Acts," (except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and with respect to the entry on lands by the Promoters of the undertaking,) and of "The Tramways Act, 1870," are hereby incorporated with this Order, except where 10
the same are expressly varied by this Order.
- Interpretation. 3. The several words and expressions to which by the Acts in whole or in part incorporated with this Order meanings are assigned have in this Order the same respective meanings :
Provided, that the expression "the tramways" or "the undertaking" shall 15 mean the tramways and works and undertaking by this Order authorised.
The expression "the Act of 1870" shall mean "The Portsmouth Street Tramways Act, 1870."
- The Promoters. 4. The Portsmouth Street Tramways Company shall be the Promoters for 20
the purposes of this Order, and are in this Order referred to as "the Promoters."
- Land by agreement. 5. The Promoters may by agreement from time to time purchase and acquire, in addition to any land which by the Act of 1870 they are authorised to acquire, such land as may be necessary for the undertaking, not exceeding 25 in the whole five acres.
- Power to apply funds. 6. The Promoters may from time to time apply towards any of the purposes of this Order any moneys which they have raised or may hereafter raise under the Act of 1870.

Construction of Tramways.

- Construction of tramways. 7. The Promoters may construct and maintain, subject to the provisions of this Order, and in accordance with the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of this Order, the tramways herein-after described, with all proper rails, plates, offices, weigh-bridges, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, works, and conveniences connected therewith, or for the purposes thereof, and may 35
work and use the same.
The tramways authorised by this Order are,—
A tramway (No. 1) (single line), two furlongs and three chains in length, commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 2, authorised by "The Act of 1870," at its termination, and curving thence in a northerly 40

direction into and along the London Road, and terminating in the last-named road at a point about 60 feet north of the south gate or entrance to North End House :

- 5 A tramway siding or passing place (No. 2) (single line), ninety links in length, commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 11, authorised by the Act of 1870, at its termination in Kingston Crescent, and curving thence in a northerly direction into and along the London Road, and terminating at a point about 20 yards from its commencement, as above described :
- 10 A tramway siding or passing place (No. 3) (single line), two chains and forty-five links in length, wholly situate in the London Road aforesaid, commencing and terminating by junctions with the Tramway No. 1, by this Order authorised, the point of commencement being opposite to the north-west corner of No. 1, Carlton Terrace, and the point of termination being 54 yards north of the said north-west corner :
- 15 A tramway siding or passing place (No. 4) (single line), three chains in length, situate partly in the London Road aforesaid, and partly in the road leading to Stamshaw, and commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 1, authorised by this Order, at a point 40 yards south of its termination, as above described, and curving thence in a north-westerly direction into and along the road leading to Stamshaw, and terminating in the last-named road at a point 3 chains from the commencement of the intended Tramway No. 4, as above described.

- 25 All the tramways will be situate wholly in the parish of Portsea, in the county of Southampton.

- 30 Provided always, that the Promoters shall not use the tramways or suffer the same to be used for traffic until they have completed the widening of London Road and Water Lane, within the limits and to the extent shown on the plan marked A, sealed with the seal of the Promoters, and deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade.

- 35 8. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.

- 40 9. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be recovered as by clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided.
- 45

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

10. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the

Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.

22 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874. Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Additional crossings, &c. may be made where necessary.

11. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage sheds or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto. 10

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

12. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued. 15

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 20 30

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters works.

13. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the reinstating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within 30 days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit. Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other 35 40 45 manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority.

Traffic upon Tramways.

- 5 14. The tramways may be used for the purpose of conveying passengers and parcels only. Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

- 15 15. The Promoters may from time to time demand and take in respect of the tramways tolls and charges not exceeding those which they are authorised to take, and for the time being may lawfully take, in respect of the tramways authorised by the Act of 1870, and the provisions of the sections of the said Act, numbered 58 to 63 (both numbers inclusive), shall apply to the tramways authorised by this Order and the tolls to be taken in respect thereof in like manner in every respect as if the said tramways were the tramways in the said sections mentioned. Tolls.

Miscellaneous.

- 20 16. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties. Provisions as to arbitration.

- 25 17. The Promoters and the road authority of any district in which any of the tramways is laid may from time to time enter into contracts or agreements with respect to the laying down, maintaining, renewing, removing, repairing, working, and using of the tramways within such district, and the rails, plates, sleepers, and works connected therewith, and for facilitating the passage of carriages and traffic over and along the same by means of animal power. Agreements between the Promoters and road authority.

- 30 18. With respect to notices, and to the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,) Form and delivery of notices.
- 35 (1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and, if given by the local authority or any road authority, shall be signed by their clerk or secretary :
- (2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters, to or by any local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter, addressed to their respective clerk or secretary at their principal office.

- 40 19. Nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament. Provision for general Acts.

5 in a southwardly direction through the entrance to the said station there belonging to the Great Western Railway Company; thence passing on and for the distance of one mile two furlongs seven chains and forty-five links along the eastern side of the Besselsleigh Road, to a point one hundred and forty links distant from the arch or bridge carrying that road across the Wilts and Berks Canal at Grove aforesaid; then for the distance of one chain and fifty links, passing on and over the said canal, by a bridge to be constructed by the Promoters in a southwardly direction across the said canal; and thence for the distance of seventy links along 10 and over the north-west corner of a field of meadow land at Grove, belonging to the trustee of the will of John Hobbis, deceased, in the occupation of William and Henry Simmons; thence in a south-eastwardly direction for a distance of five furlongs one chain and sixty-five links along the eastern side of the Besselsleigh Road up to the boundary of the township of Wantage; then turning in a southwardly direction on and for 15 the distance of five chains and forty links through a close of meadow land called Pond Close, at Wantage aforesaid, belonging to Edward Ormond, in the occupation of James Hiskins, a sufficient part of which has been lately agreed to be purchased by the Promoters; and then on and for the 20 distance of eight chains through the eastern side of a field of meadow land at Wantage aforesaid, belonging to and in the occupation of James Palmer, a sufficient part of which has been lately agreed to be purchased by the Promoters; then on and for the distance of two chains and twenty links along the centre of the private occupation road leading from the town 25 to the last-mentioned field of meadow land and to the Wantage Gasworks, and to garden land of George Camden; and then on and for the distance of three chains and ten links through the eastward part of an orchard at Wantage, belonging to and in the occupation of George Curtis, about half an acre of which has been lately agreed to be purchased by the 30 Promoters; and on to and for the distance of fifty-five links across a piece of ground at Wantage, belonging to the trustees of the will of John Plumbe, deceased, and Mrs. Fanny Langley, in the occupation of James Shorey; and on and for the distance of two chains and twenty links through and along a yard and plot or portion of ground at Wantage, on 35 part of which are erected cottages and dwelling-houses, in the several occupations of Jesse Swimmings, Silas Crane, Richard Thornhill, Joseph Rowland, Richard Baston, George Morris, William Bennett, Alfred Herring and Caroline Harding, respectively, belonging to the said trustees of the will of John Plumbe, deceased, and to Mrs. Fanny Langley, and 40 which said last-mentioned yard and plot or portion of ground are situate on the north side of Mill Street, in Wantage aforesaid; then proceeding by a curve of about one chain radius, passes to and gradually diverges in an eastwardly direction from the north to the south side of the said street for a distance of about two chains and seventy-five links; then passes from 45 and out of Mill Street aforesaid into and along the market place of the town of Wantage for about two chains and thirty links in length, and terminating in the said market place of Wantage at a point four feet from the north-east corner of the town hall, situate in the said market place.

No. 1b. A tramway or turnout, No. 1b (two chains and fifty links in length), situate in the said hamlet of Grove and parish aforesaid, commencing by a junction with the tramway No. 1 at a point about one chain and twenty-five links from the north side of the footpath leading from Grove to Charlton, both in the county of Berks, and terminating on the said tramway No. 1 at a point two chains and fifty links distant from the commencement of such tramway or turnout as aforesaid, measured in a southwardly direction :

No. 1c. A tramway or turnout, No. 1c (two chains and fifty links in length), situate in the said hamlet of Grove and parish aforesaid, commencing by a junction with the tramway No. 1 at a point about four chains from the north side of the Wilts and Berks canal bridge at Grove, and terminating on the said tramway No. 1 at a point two chains and fifty links distant from the commencement of such tramway or turnout as aforesaid, measured in a southwardly direction :

No. 1d. A tramway or turnout, No. 1d (two chains and fifty links in length), situate in the said hamlet of Grove and parish aforesaid, commencing by a junction with the tramway No. 1 at a point nineteen chains north of the private way leading out of the Besselsleigh Road through the allotment gardens towards Charlton, and terminating on the said tramway No. 1 at a point two chains and fifty links distant from the commencement of such tramway or turnout as aforesaid, measured in a southwardly direction :

No. 1e. A tramway or turnout No. 1e (two chains and fifty links in length), situate in the town and parish of Wantage aforesaid, commencing by a junction with the tramway No. 1, in the said close of meadow land belonging to the said Edward Ormond, called Pond Close, at a point one chain south of the boundary fence between the said close of meadow land and the said road, and terminating on the said tramway No. 1 at a point two chains and fifty links distant from the commencement of such tramway or turnout as aforesaid, measured in a southwardly direction.

Tramways to be constructed to satisfaction of engineer of the Great Western Railway Company.

7. The Promoters shall not, without the consent in writing of the Great Western Railway Company, lay down or construct so much of the tramway as is situate within the goods yard of the Wantage Road Station of that company, or on the approach thereto, but the Promoters may, with such consent, or the Great Western Railway Company, may at the request and cost of the Promoters, lay down and construct so much of the tramway as aforesaid, with such sidings, turnouts, and connexions, as the Promoters and the said company may agree upon, and so much of the said tramway as is laid down or constructed on the land or property of the Great Western Railway Company shall be laid down or constructed under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of the said company, and in such places and manner as he may think fit. A.D. 1874.

- 5 8. The said tramway, so far as it is situate within the goods yard of the Wantage Road Station of the Great Western Railway Company, or on the approach thereto, shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such manner as not to prevent or interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the said approach, goods yard, or station, and all persons using so much of the said
10 tramway as is on the said approach or within the said goods yard or station shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made, in respect of the said approach, yard, or station or in operation therein or thereon, and no passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels, shall be carried over the said portion of 15 tramway, unless going to or from the said goods yard or station of the Great Western Railway Company, without the consent in writing of that company.

Tramway, so far as within the goods yard of the Wantage Station, not to interfere with the use of that station and the approach thereto.

9. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramways within such district, including the rails thereof, 20 as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rails.

10. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and 25 repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be recovered as by 30 clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

11. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways are laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the 35 road as altered.

Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.

12. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of 40 them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage-sheds, or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided, that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road if any owner or occupier of pre-45 mises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by

Additional crossings, &c., may be made where necessary.

A.D. 1874. writing under his hand addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto.

Temporary tramways may be made where necessary.

13. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove 5 or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occa- 10 sion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

If any difference arise between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this 15 section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned.

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters' works.

14. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of 20 any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the re-instating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if 25 so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not 30 removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person, 35 with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority.

Division of footpath.

15. The Promoters may, for the purposes of the undertaking and with the consent of the trustees for the time being of the Besselsleigh Turnpike Road, 40 divert so much of the footpath on the said road as lies between the said Wantage Road Station and the said lane at Grove, called Oxford Lane, from the eastern to the western side of the said road. The new footpath shall be constructed in a similar manner and with similar materials to the present footpath by and at the expense of the Promoters under the superintendence and to the reasonable 45 satisfaction of the said trustees.

Traffic upon Tramways.

A.D. 1874.

16. The tramways may be used for the purpose of conveying passengers, animals, goods, minerals, parcels, and mail bags.

Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

5 17. The Promoters may demand and take in respect of passengers, animals, goods, minerals, parcels, or mail bags carried and conveyed upon the tramways, or any part thereof, including tolls for the use of the tramways, and of carriages, and for motive power, and every other expense incidental to such conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding those specified in the schedule to this Order
10 annexed, subject to the regulations in that behalf specified in the same schedule.

Tolls for passengers, animals, goods, &c.

18. Every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways may take with him his personal luggage, not exceeding fifty-six pounds in weight in the first class, and not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight in the second class, without any charge being made for the carriage thereof.

Passengers luggage.

15 19. The Promoters shall not be bound to carry, unless they think fit, any animals, goods, or parcels other than the luggage which passengers are by this Order authorised to take with them.

Promoters no bound to carry goods.

20. The tolls and charges by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner
20 and under such regulations, as the Promoters may, by notice to be annexed to the list of tolls, appoint.

Payment of tolls.

Miscellaneous.

21. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person
25 nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all parties.

Provisions as to arbitration.

22. The Promoters may enter into agreements with the trustees for the time being of the Besselsleigh Road for the collection or renting or taking on lease
30 the several tolls authorised to be taken on that road.

Agreements, &c. with trustees of Besselsleigh Road.

23. With respect to notices and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely,

Form and delivery of notices.

(1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and if given by the commissioners for improving the town of Wantage shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by their clerk or surveyor, and if given by any other local authority or road authority by being signed by their clerk, secretary, or surveyor:

(2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters to or by any local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter addressed to their respective clerk, secretary, or surveyor at their principal office.

32 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874. 3. The several words and expressions to which, by the Acts in whole or in part incorporated with this Order, meanings are assigned, have in this Order the same respective meanings :
 Interpretation.

Provided that the expression "the tramways" or "the undertaking" shall mean the tramways and works and undertaking by this Order 5 authorised.

In this Order the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners.

Promoters.

The Promoters. 4. The Wirral Tramway Company (Limited) shall be the Promoters for 10 the purposes of this Order, and are in this Order referred to as "the Promoters."

Land by agreement. 5. The Promoters may, by agreement, from time to time purchase and acquire such land as may be necessary for the undertaking, not exceeding 15 in the whole four acres.

Construction of Tramways.

Construction of tramways. 6. The Promoters may construct and maintain, subject to the provisions of this Order, and in accordance with the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of this Order, the tramways herein-after described, with all proper rails, plates, offices, weigh-bridges, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, 20 works, and conveniences connected therewith, or for the purposes thereof, and may work and use the same.

The tramways authorised by this Order are,—

A tramway (No. 1), wholly situate in the townships of Tranmere Higher Bebington, and Lower Bebington, in the parish of Bebington and the 25 extra-parochial chapelry of Birkenhead, commencing in the approach road to the Woodside Ferry by a junction with the existing Birkenhead Street Railway, at a point 1 chain 32 links or thereabouts in a south-westerly direction from the entrance to the Woodside Ferry Station, and passing thence along the Ferry approach road, Chester Street, and the New 30 Chester Road, and terminating in the township of Lower Bebington at a point in the New Chester Road 58 yards or thereabouts north of the turnpike gate at New Ferry Road :

A tramway (No. 2), wholly situate in the extra-parochial chapelry of Birkenhead, commencing in Chester Street by a junction with the existing 35 Birkenhead Street Railway at a point 17 yards or thereabouts in a north-easterly direction from the centre of Bridge Street, and passing thence along Church Street and Ivy Street into Chester Street, and terminating by a junction with tramway No. 1 at or near the south side of Ivy Street : 40

A tramway (No. 3), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road opposite the approach to the Tranmere Ferry, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1 :

A.D. 1874.

- A tramway (No. 4), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road between Union Street and Derby Street, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1 :
- 5 A tramway (No. 5), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road between Bedford Place and Bedford Road, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1 :
- 10 A tramway (No. 6), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Higher Bebington and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1 at a point 216 yards or thereabouts in a southerly direction from the centre of Rock Lane, and terminating at a point 66 yards from the commencement thereof by a junction with tramway No. 1 :

- 20 turnpike gate at New Ferry Road.

Provided always, that the Promoters shall not make any junction of any of the tramways or any part thereof with the railway of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited), or any part thereof, and shall not construct as much of tramway No. 1 as will be situate in or upon the approach road to the Woodside Ferry belonging or reputed to belong to the Commissioners, nor enter upon or use any other land (not being a highway) belonging to the Commissioners, without the consent in writing of the Commissioners for such purpose first had and received.

7. The tramways shall be constructed with two rails, to be laid at a distance not exceeding five feet three inches (reckoning from the outside edge of each rail).

Formation of tramways.

The rails shall be of such form and be laid in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the surveyors of the several local and road authorities; and in case of difference or dispute in relation thereto the matter in dispute shall be referred to and determined by Mr. Edward Mills, surveyor, of Birkenhead, or, failing him, shall be settled in the manner provided by section 33 of The Tramways Act, 1870.

8. During the construction of any works by this Order authorised in any road in any district, the Promoters shall make such arrangements in relation to the execution of such works as may in the opinion of the road authority of such district be proper, for preventing the traffic along such road from being unnecessarily impeded.

For facilitating traffic while road broken up.

9. So much of the road whereon the tramways are laid as lies between the rails and as extends eighteen inches beyond the rails of and on each side of the tramway shall be paved by the Promoters, at their own expense, with granite

Promoters to pave roads.

As to tramways
Nos. 1 and 2 affecting portions of Birkenhead Railway undertaking.

10. With respect to the tramways numbered 1 and 2, the following provisions shall apply for the protection of the London and North-western and Great Western Railway Companies, joint owners of the Birkenhead Railway undertaking (herein-after referred to as "the two Companies"). 5

(1.) The tramway No. 1 shall be so made along Chester Street in Birkenhead, as not to interfere with the eyes, shafts, or other work in that street made or carried on, or the breaking up or opening of that street for the construction by tunnel or covered way therealong and thereunder, by the two Companies, of the Birkenhead new line authorised by The Great Western Railway Additional Powers Act, 1871, and whether the works of or for the construction of that line shall have been executed either before or after the making of the tramway No. 1; and where it will pass over the existing tunnel of Monks Ferry branch, and under the Tranmere branch of the Birkenhead Railway undertaking, it shall be made only according to the line thereof as shown on the plans deposited for the purposes of this Order; and the tramway No. 1 shall be so made as not to cause any interference with or damage or injury to any of such works, or to the said tunnels or covered way, or to the Tranmere Branch Railway: 10 15 20

(2.) The tramway No. 2, at its crossings over the Birkenhead new line at the passing of that line under Church Street, and over the existing Monks Ferry branch of the Birkenhead Railway undertaking at the respective points where that branch railway is constructed in open cutting and in tunnel, shall be so made as not to cause any interference with or damage or injury to the bridges for carrying Church Street over the Birkenhead new line, and over the Monks Ferry Branch, or with or to such tunnel: 25 30

(3.) All works to be constructed or executed by the Promoters with reference to the Tramways Nos. 1 and 2 in any way affecting the said railways of the two Companies, or any of the bridges or works thereof, or any lands or property used for the same, or occupied or enjoyed therewith, shall be done under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the principal engineer of the two Companies, and according to plans to be reasonably approved by him before any such works are commenced, and in all things at the expense of the Promoters, and so also as not to cause any interruption to the passage or conduct of traffic over any of the said lines or at the stations thereon: 35 40

(4.) If by reason of or by reason of the failure of any works, operations, or proceedings of the Promoters, or of any of their contractors, or the agents, servants, or workmen of the Promoters or of the contractors, the said railways of the two Companies, or any of the bridges or works thereof, or the said lands or property, shall be damaged or injured, or the traffic on such railways or at any of the stations 45

- thereon shall be interrupted or obstructed, and whether during the construction or after the completion of the tramways Nos. 1 and 2, the Promoters shall forthwith make good any such damage or injury, and make full compensation for any such interruption or obstruction; or in case the Promoters shall make default in that behalf after seven days notice, or in the event of emergency happening (of which emergency the two Companies shall be the sole judges), then without notice, the two Companies may make good any such damage or injury, and remove any such interruption or obstruction, and execute all such necessary works in that behalf as they may deem expedient, and in all things at the expense of the Promoters, and may recover from the Promoters the amount of their expenditure in that behalf, certified under the hand of their engineer, with full costs, in any court of competent jurisdiction; and the two Companies shall not, whether during the construction or after the completion of the Birkenhead new line, be answerable for any damage or interference caused by its construction to or with the tramways Nos. 1 and 2 by reason of subsidence or otherwise.
11. No part of the tramway No. 2 shall be constructed so as to leave a less space than nine feet six inches between the curbstone of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway without the consent of the Commissioners in writing first had and obtained. As to construction of tramway No. 2 where less space than 9 ft. 6 in.
12. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements. Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.
13. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and the substructure upon which the same rest, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision or with any of the requirements of section 28 of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues; and such penalty may be recovered as by clause 56 of the said Act is provided. Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.
14. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered. Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.
15. The Promoters in any district in which any of the tramways are situated may from time to time, with the consent of the road authority of such district, make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised. Additional crossings, &c. may be made where necessary.

A.D. 1874. — rised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage sheds or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than 5 nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto.

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

16. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface 10 or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the 15 same or any adjacent road, and, with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority 20 with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section 33 of the Tramways Act, 1870, for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 25

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters' works.

17. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the reinstating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of 30 such road authority, of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he 35 may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material, the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be 40 dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority. 45

Section 30 of Tramways Act, 1870, to

18. Section 30 of Tramways Act, 1870, shall apply to the Commissioners with reference to the gas and water mains and pipes belonging to them in like manner as the same applies to a company or persons being the owners of gas or water mains or pipes, and as if the words "the Commissioners" had been inserted in that section.

apply to mains and pipes of the Commissioners.

19. The Promoters shall on demand reimburse and repay to the Commissioners 5 all costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the removal and relaying, alteration, and repair or renewal of any gas or water mains or pipes, services, valves, or hydrants which in the opinion of the Commissioners should be be removed, relaid, altered, repaired, or renewed, in consequence of the laying down of the tramway or any part thereof in their district.

Promoters to pay expenses of moving pipes of Commissioners.

10 20. The Promoters shall, on demand, repay to the Commissioners all charges and expenses incurred by them for the supervision and inspection of any work done by the Promoters in connexion with the tramway, or in consequence of the tramway being laid in Birkenhead; and the Commissioners are hereby authorised to order such supervision and inspection of the works as they may 15 deem proper.

Promoters to pay for expenses of inspection.

21. The Promoters shall at their own expense, upon the request of the surveyor for the time being of the Commissioners, remove or divert the rails or tramway from the whole or any part or parts of the street in Birkenhead, for permitting the constructing of or repairs to sewers or for any other purpose of 20 the Commissioners for public convenience, and if the Promoters shall omit to remove or divert the tramway or any part thereof within such time as the surveyor of the Commissioners shall require, and in case such rails or tramway shall be removed or diverted by the Commissioners, who are hereby authorised to remove or divert them, the Promoters shall and will repay and reimburse
25 the Commissioners all costs, charges, and expenses that may be incurred by the Commissioners in or about such removal or diversion; provided always, that in every case in which it shall become necessary to remove and divert any such rails or tramway the rails may be temporarily laid, while such repairs are being made, on some other part or parts of the street if practicable without impeding 30 the traffic of such street.

Promoters to remove rails in Birkenhead at request of Commissioners.

22. Whenever any tramway or passing place is constructed or required to be constructed over any man-hole or entrance into a sewer of the Commissioners, or so close to any such man-hole or entrance as to make the use thereof dangerous or inconvenient, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the Promoters shall, if — required by the Commissioners, construct another man-hole or side entrance in 35 lieu thereof in such a position and according to such plans as shall be approved of by the Commissioners.

Provision as to entrances into sewers.

Traffic upon Tramways.

23. The tramways shall be used for the purpose of conveying passengers only.

Traffic upon tramways.

40

Tolls.

24. The Promoters may demand and take for every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways or any part thereof, including tolls for the use of the tramways and the carriages, and for motive power, and every other expense incidental to such conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding one penny 45 per mile (and for this purpose the fraction of a mile beyond an integral number Tolls.

Passengers' luggage.

25. Every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways may take with him his personal luggage, not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight, without 15 any charge being made for the carriage thereof.

Promoters not bound to carry more than 28 lbs.

26. The Promoters shall not be bound to carry, unless they think fit, any passenger's luggage exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight.

Cheap fares for labouring classes.

27. The Promoters, at all times after the opening of the tramways or any part or parts thereof for public traffic, shall and they are hereby required to 20 run carriages each way every morning in the week and every evening in the week (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday always excepted), at such hours, not being later than seven in the morning or earlier than six in the evening respectively, as the Promoters think most convenient for artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers, at tolls or charges not exceeding one halfpenny 25 per mile (the Promoters nevertheless not being required to take any fare less than one penny); and also to run carriages each way daily between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, except as aforesaid, not less frequently than twice in each hour: Provided that in case of any complaint made to the Board of Trade of the hours appointed by the Promoters for the 30 running of such carriages, the said Board shall have power to fix and regulate the same from time to time.

Payment of tolls.

28. The tolls and charges by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons, and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner, and under such regulations, as the Promoters may, by notice to be annexed to-35 the list of tolls, appoint.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions as to arbitration.

29. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law 40 Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all parties.

Promoters may enter into agreements as to laying down of tramways.

30. The Promoters and the road authority of any district may enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements as to any special terms and conditions upon which the tramways shall be laid down and maintained within such 45 district; but nothing in this enactment contained shall authorise the Promoters to construct any of the tramways in any other manner or direction than is authorised by this Order. A.D. 1874.

31. All interference with the works of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited) necessary or convenient for effecting the junctions by this Order authorised with the tramways shall be made under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of that Company, and in case of difference arising as to the mode of effecting the junctions, the same shall be determined by a referee to be appointed by the Board of Trade on the application of either party at the cost of the Company making the junctions.

As to junctions with Birkenhead Street Railway Company, Limited.

32. The Promoters, and all persons and corporations lawfully using the tramways, may run over and use the tramways or any part of the tramways of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited).

Promoters may use tramways of the railway company.

- The terms, conditions, and regulations to which the Promoters and such other persons and corporations as aforesaid shall be subject in respect of the said use, and the tolls or other consideration to be paid by them for the same, shall, if not agreed upon, be from time to time determined by an arbitrator to be appointed by the Board of Trade, and the decisions of such arbitrator shall be binding and conclusive on all the parties in difference; and the costs and expenses of such arbitrator shall be defrayed as the arbitrator shall direct, and either of the parties to such arbitration who shall refuse or neglect to perform, observe, and conform to any decision given or regulation made by any such arbitrator in the premises, shall forfeit and pay to the other party, as the arbitrator shall determine, any sum not exceeding fifty pounds for every such offence, and twenty pounds for every day during which such offence shall continue.

33. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect or limit the powers or rights of the Commissioners with respect to the tramways of the said Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited).

Protection of powers and rights of Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners.

34. Whereas the consent of the Local Board for the district of Tranmere to the application of the Promoters for this Order was given subject to certain terms and conditions which are set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed; therefore the Promoters and the said Local Board shall duly observe all and every the terms and conditions in the said schedule set forth on their respective parts, and shall give effect to the same as if the same were in this Order expressly set forth; and all and each of the powers and privileges by this Order conferred upon the Promoters shall only be exercised and may only be enjoyed by the Promoters subject in every respect to the said terms and conditions.

Order to be subject to terms and conditions in the schedule.

35. With respect to notices, and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely,

Form and delivery of notices.

- (1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and, if given by the local authority or any road authority shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by their clerk or secretary:
- (2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters to or by the local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter addressed to their respective clerk or secretary at their principal office.

36. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the 5 tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force, or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE.

The Promoters shall so lay down, make, and maintain the single line of 10 tramway by the foregoing Order authorised in or along the New Chester Road, in the township of Tranmere, that the centre of such tramway shall be in the centre of the street or road, measuring from the curbstones on either side.

The Promoters shall not make tramway No. 3 without the consent in writing of the Local Board for the district of Tranmere, herein-after referred to as "the 15 Local Board," under their seal first had and obtained.

The Promoters shall, on demand, repay to the Local Board all charges and expenses incurred by them for the supervision and inspection of any work done by the Promoters in connexion with the tramway, or in consequence of the tramway being laid in the township of Tranmere, and the Local Board 20 is hereby authorised to order such supervision and inspection of the work as they may deem proper.

Section 30 of "The Tramways Act, 1870," shall apply to the Local Board with reference to the water mains and pipes belonging to them, in like manner as the same applies to a company or person being the owners 25 of water mains or pipes.

The Promoters shall, on demand, reimburse and repay to the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the removal and relaying, alteration, repair, or renewal of any water mains or pipes, services, valves or hydrants, which, in the opinion of the Local Board, should be removed, relaid, 30 altered, or repaired, in consequence of the laying down of the tramway, or any part thereof.

Whenever the tramway or passing-place or siding is required to be constructed over any man-hole or entrance connected with a sewer of the Local Board, or so close to any such man-hole or entrance as to make the use thereof 35 dangerous or inconvenient, in the opinion of the Local Board, the Promoters shall, if required by the Local Board, construct man-holes or side entrances in lieu thereof in such a position and according to such plan or plans as the Local Board shall approve of, before the tramway is laid over, or close to such man-holes as aforesaid; or the Local Board may elect to do the work 40 themselves, and in case of such election the Promoters shall repay the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by them in connexion with such work.

The whole of the macadam excavated by the Promoters along the line of rails within the township of Tranmere shall become the property of the Local 45

Board, and shall be filled into carts provided and placed by the Local Board at such places as the macadam is from time to time being excavated. In lieu of such macadam the Local Board shall supply the Promoters, at such place or places as the same may be from time to time required, with good and
 5 proper shingle, along the lines of rails within the district of the Local Board, for the purpose of making the concrete that may be required for the foundation under the rails and paving within the district of the Local Board; but the shingle so to be supplied shall not exceed the quantity of macadam excavated; nor shall any shingle supplied by the Local Board be used anywhere
 10 but within the township of Tranmere. Should any dispute arise in reference to the quality of the shingle supplied, the matter shall be determined by reference to Mr. Edward Mills, surveyor, of Birkenhead, or, failing him, shall be settled in the manner provided for by section 33 of the Tramways Act.

During the construction of any works under the authority of the foregoing 15 Order within the district of the Local Board, the Promoters shall so arrange and carry on the work that a clear space of not less than eight feet from each curb on each side of the street shall be left free and without any obstruction whatever during the whole progress of the works.

The Promoters shall, at their own expense, upon the request of the surveyor
 20 for the time being of the Local Board, remove or divert the tramway from the whole or any part or parts of the street, for permitting repairs to sewers, or for any other purpose of the Local Board, or of public convenience; and if the Promoters shall omit to remove or divert the tramway, or any part thereof, within such time as the surveyor of the Local Board shall require, and in case
 25 such rails or tramway shall be removed or diverted by the Local Board, who are hereby authorised to remove or divert them, the Promoters shall and will repay and reimburse the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses that may be incurred by the Local Board in or about such removal or diversion: Provided always, that in every case in which it shall become necessary to
 30 remove and divert any such rails or tramway the rails may be temporarily laid, while such repairs are being made, on some other part or parts of the street, if practicable.

The Promoters shall and will save, defend, keep harmless, and indemnify the Local Board, and their estate and effects, of, from, and against all 35 actions, suits, indictments, or other proceedings, damages, costs, expenses, claims, and demands whatsoever, for or by reason or on account of the said Tramway, or any part thereof, being laid down, constructed, or maintained in the district of the Local Board.

Nothing herein-before contained shall be considered or taken as preventing 40 the Local Board and the Promoters, by mutual consent, from altering or modifying any of the matters herein-before contained, so far as such alteration may be in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing Order; such alteration or modification to be sanctioned by a resolution of a meeting of the Local Board specially summoned for the purpose of considering such alteration or modifi-45 cation.

All costs in respect of this agreement and a duplicate thereof shall be borne by the Promoters.

Provided that the tramways, sidings, or passing places numbered respectively 2A, 2B, 2C, and 2E shall be constructed of a less length than as above described, if so required by the road authority, the length thereof in 40 the event of difference to be determined by the Board of Trade.

Further provisions as to construction of tramways.

8. In addition to the requirements of section twenty-six of "The Tramways Act, 1870," the Promoters shall at the same time as they give notice to the road authority of their intention to open or break up any road for the purpose of making, forming, and laying down, maintaining, and renewing any of the 45 tramways, lay before the Board of Trade a plan showing the proposed mode of construction, and a statement of the materials intended to be used therein;

and the Promoters shall not commence the construction of any of the tramways or part of any of the tramways, until such plan and statement have been approved by the said Board, and after such approval the works shall respectively be executed in accordance in all respects with such plan and statement and 5 under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the surveyor for the time being of the road authority as provided by section twenty-six of the said Act. A.D. 1874.

9. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the Metropolitan Board of Works, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such 10 improvements in the tramways, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall with all reasonable despatch comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements. Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.

15 10. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair, and so as not to be a danger or annoyance to the ordinary traffic, the rails of which any of the tramways for the time being consist and the substructure upon which the same rests; and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision or with any of the requirements of section
20 twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be recovered by the Metropolitan Board of Works only in manner provided by section fifty-six of the said Act. Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

25 11. Nothing in this Order contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, abridge, or take away any of the rights, powers, and privileges conferred upon the Metropolitan Board of Works by "The Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855," or any other Act relating to that Board, as to stopping for public traffic any road or street under the jurisdiction of that Board for the purpose of constructing, repairing, and maintaining the sewers along or under 30 any such road or street. Saving rights of Metropolitan Board of Works to stop up, &c. streets.

12. The Promoters shall not in the construction of the tramways of the metropolis stop up or interfere with any road so as to prevent the passing of traffic along such road, except with the previous consent in writing of the Metropolitan Board of Works and of the road authority. In making tramways Promoters not to prevent traffic passing along road.

40 14. Wherever the vestry of St. Pancras or of St. Mary, Islington, at any time desire to construct or have constructed any refuge or resting place in any road within the jurisdiction of either of the said vestries along which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters shall upon demand of the vestry having charge of such road or their chief surveyor acting by their authority make such alterations as may be necessary in the line and direction 45 of the tramway within such parish to allow of the construction or maintenance of any such refuge or resting-place. As to the refuges or resting-places in St. Pancras and St. Mary, Islington.

A.D. 1874.

When works cause a diversion of traffic in St. Pancras or St. Mary, Islington, diversion to be approved by Surveyor.

15. Before the Promoters commence any works which require the stopping up temporarily or the diversion of any thoroughfare within the parish of St. Pancras or the parish of St. Mary, Islington, or cause any obstruction to the passing of passengers or other traffic along any such thoroughfare, every such stopping up, diversion, or obstruction shall be subject to the approval of the vestry of such parish or their chief surveyor acting as aforesaid, and the Promoters shall before commencing such works at their own expense make all such temporary bridges or accommodation for the passage of such traffic as the vestry of such parish or their chief surveyor acting as aforesaid may in writing require, and it shall be lawful for the vestry of each such parish to employ a sufficient number of officers or servants to regulate the course of all such traffic as may be diverted by reason of any of the works by this Order authorised within such parish, and all reasonable costs and charges occasioned by and incident to the employment of such officers or servants shall be paid on demand by the Promoters to the vestry of such parish.

As to settlement of differences with vestry of St. Pancras or St. Mary, Islington.

16. Excepting as herein otherwise provided, any difference which may arise under this Order between the Promoters and the vestry of St. Pancras or of St. Mary, Islington, or their respective chief surveyor acting as aforesaid, shall be from time to time referred to and determined at the expense of the Promoters by an engineer to be agreed upon between such vestry and the Promoters, or failing any such agreement, by an engineer to be appointed on the application of either party by the Board of Trade.

Passing-places to be constructed where less than a certain width left between footway and tramway.

17. Where in any road in which a double line of tramway is laid there is less width between the outside of the footpath on either side of the street or road and the nearest rail of the tramway than nine feet six inches, the Promoters, if the Metropolitan Board of Works give their consent thereto in writing (which consent the Promoters are hereby required to demand,) shall, and they are hereby required, to construct a passing-place or places connecting the one tramway with the other, and by means of such passing-place or places the traffic shall when necessary be diverted from one tramway to the other.

Tramways to be always kept on level with surface of roads.

18. If any road authority hereafter alter the level of any road along and across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Restriction on taking up and setting down passengers in the Junction Road.

19. It shall not be lawful for the Promoters at any time to take up or set down any passenger, or to allow any passengers to enter or leave any of their carriages, between the points marked A and B on the deposited plans; and if the Promoters or their officers or servants take up or set down any passenger, or wilfully allow any person to enter or leave any of their carriages, between the said points, they shall be, for every such offence, liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; and any person entering or attempting to enter any carriage of the Promoters between the said points, after having been warned by any servant of the Promoters not to do so, shall be liable to a like penalty of forty shillings.

Penalty.

As to stopping places near Holloway

20. The Promoters shall not, for the purpose of collecting passengers, stop any carriage belonging to them between the termination of tramway No. 2c, as shown upon the deposited plans, and a point 29 yards west of the most western rail of the existing rails of the North Metropolitan Tramways Company in the Holloway Road; and shall not create a station or stopping place for the purpose of collecting passengers between the said point of 29 yards and the termination

 5 of the tramways Nos. 2D and 2E in the Archway Road, as shown on the deposited plans; and shall not change or reverse the horses drawing the said carriages between the said point 29 yards west of the said North Metropolitan Tramway and the termination of tramway No. 2C as aforesaid, but such reversing shall take place at the point of termination of the tramways Nos. 2D and 2E 10 in the Archway Road; and in every case when the promoters fail to comply with this enactment, they shall be liable to a penalty of forty shillings for every such offence, and such penalty may be recovered by the owner or occupier of any house, shop, or warehouse abutting on the said portion of road.

A.D. 1874.
 Road, and reversing of horses.

21. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter, subject to the provisions of this Order, with the consent of the Metropolitan Board of Works, make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage
 20 sheds or works by this Order authorised. Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if the owner or owners, or occupier or occupiers, of the premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under their hand addressed to the Promoters, express 25 their objection thereto.

Additional crossings, passing-places, &c. may be made where necessary.

22. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any tramway authorised by this Order is laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily
 30 to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions, and in accordance in all respects with regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as 35 occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this 40 section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of the Tramways Act, 1870, for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned.

23. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of the works by this Order authorised from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters,
 45 so far as may be necessary in or towards the reinstating of the road and the maintenance for six months after completion of any tramways of the Promoters

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters works.

A.D. 1874. within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are required to maintain by this Order; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons 5 as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided, that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material, the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and 10 may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor, or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to differences between the Promoters and any road authority. 15

Traffic upon Tramways.

Traffic upon tramways. 24. The tramways shall be used for passenger traffic only.

Tolls.

Tolls. 25. The Promoters may from time to time demand and take in respect of the tramways tolls and charges not exceeding those which they are authorised to 20 take and for the time being may lawfully take, in respect of the tramways authorised by the Act of 1870, and the provisions of the sections of the said Act numbered seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, and seventy-seven shall apply to the tramways and the tolls to be taken in respect thereof in like manner in every respect as if the tramways were the tramways in the said 25 sections mentioned: Provided always, that sections seventy-two and seventy-four of the said Act shall for the purposes of this Order be read and have effect as if the period of one year had been mentioned in section seventy-two instead of the period of three years, and as if the fares authorised by section seventy-four to be from time to time fixed by the Board of Trade had been by the said 30 section limited to fares not exceeding one halfpenny per mile.

Provided also that for the purposes of tolls and charges the tramways and any tramways of the Promoters worked in connexion therewith shall be deemed to be one continuous line of tramway.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions as to arbitration. 26. Where under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties. 40

For facilitating interchange and transmission of through traffic. 27. If the Metropolitan Board of Works at any time or times hereafter give notice in writing to the Promoters stating that in their opinion the Promoters have not made or are not carrying out proper arrangements for facilitating the interchange and forwarding of traffic coming from or destined for any tramway which belongs to any company or person and forms an authorised junction with any of the tramways authorised by this Order, and the Promoters do not within fourteen days after the delivery of such notice to them make arrangements in that behalf to the satisfaction of the said Metropolitan Board, the Board of Trade may and shall from time to time upon representation of the said Metropolitan Board appoint a referee to inquire into the truth of such representation in the manner prescribed by section sixty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," and if such referee report that such representation is true, the Board of Trade may make such regulations, including, if the Board of Trade so think fit, arrangements for booking through the traffic or any part thereof, and the fixing of through fares and rates as having regard to all the circumstances of the case they may deem expedient for providing for such interchange and forwarding of traffic, with as little inconvenience as may be to the public, and after fourteen days from the date of the delivery of a copy of any such regulation to the Promoters the same shall be binding upon the Promoters and may be enforced in the same manner as regulations made by the local authority under section forty-six of "The Tramways Act, 1870."

Provided always, that if and whenever the Board of Trade fix any through rate or fare under this section they shall at the same time fix and determine the proportions in which such through rate or fare shall be divided between and belong to the Promoters and the other companies, company, or person interested, and in fixing and determining such proportions the Board of Trade shall take into account all the circumstances of the case, including the actual and relative cost of construction and maintenance of the respective tramway and works of the respective companies, and the Board of Trade may from time to time rescind, alter, or vary any order which they make under this section.

28. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament.

Provision as to general Acts.

The Promoters. 4. The Newbury and Lamborne Tramway Company, Limited, shall be the Promoters for the purposes of this Order, and are in this Order referred to 10 as "the Promoters."

Land by agree- 5. The Promoters may by agreement from time to time purchase and acquire ment. such land as may be necessary for the undertaking, not exceeding in the whole ten acres.

Construction of Tramways. 15

Construction 6. The Promoters may construct and maintain, subject to the provisions of of tramways. this Order, and in accordance with the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of this Order, as amended in red, the tramways herein-after described, with all proper rails, plates, offices, weigh-bridges, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, works, and conveniences connected therewith, or for the purposes 20 thereof, and may work and use the same.

7. The tramways authorised by this Order are,—

1. A tramway, No. 1, commencing at the north-west end of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, in the parish of Greenham, and thence passing along Cheap Street, the new 25 road to the cattle market, Bartholomew Street, across the bridge that carries the road over the river Kennet, up past Donnington Square, and will pass, from, through, or into the following parishes of Greenham, Newbury, Speen, Boxford, Welford, East Shefford, West Shefford, East Garston, and Lamborne, and will terminate at a point twenty feet to the 30 south-west corner of the Red Lion Hotel at Lamborne, in the county of Berks :

Tramway No. 1 will at its commencement, and thence for a length of two chains, be laid along the centre of the road, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of three quarters of a chain westerly 35 until the centre line of the tramway attains the distance of four feet six inches from and west of or to the left-hand side of the imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line until, entering and passing over Bartholomew Street, the tramway will then follow the course of the 40 imaginary centre line, and will keep in the centre of the road until, reaching within two chains of the south end of the bridge which carries the road over the river Kennet, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of one chain easterly until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of three feet six inches from and to the east of the 45

A.D. 1874.

5 imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line for the further length of one and a half chains, and will thence again gradually approach the imaginary centre line until in the further length of three quarters of a chain it reaches the centre of the road, and thence the tramway will be laid along the centre of the road to a point six chains south of the Pelican Hotel, and thence will gradually diverge for the length of three quarters of a chain westerly or to the left-hand side of the imaginary centre line until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of 10 four feet six inches from and west of the imaginary centre line of the road, and will continue at that distance and on the same side of the said imaginary centre line throughout the entire length and to the termination of the tramway :

15 Provided always, that in constructing the said tramway through the village of West Shefford, the same may be laid north-east of the imaginary centre line, instead of north-west of the said line as shown on the plans deposited for the purposes of this Order.

20 2. A tramway, No. 2, to be wholly situate in the parish of Thatcham (chapelry of Greenham), commencing by a junction with tramway
No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about fifty feet north-west of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, and thence passing along the road to the goods station of the Great Western Railway, and will terminate at a point opposite the north-east corner of the large shed :

25 The centre line of tramway No. 2 will, throughout its entire length, be laid on the left-hand or northerly side of the imaginary centre line of the road along which it will pass, and at a distance of about four feet six inches from such imaginary centre line.

30 3. A tramway, No. 3, situate in the parishes of Greenham and Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about two hundred and thirty feet north-west of the bridge which carries the road over the Great Western Railway at Newbury, and thence passing along the road to the passenger station up departure platform, and terminating at a point opposite, or nearly opposite, to the 35 door into the ticket office, but about twenty feet to the north of such door :

40 The centre line of tramway No. 3 will, throughout its entire length, be laid on the right-hand or northerly side of the imaginary centre line of the road along which it will pass, and at a distance of about four feet six inches from such imaginary centre line.

45 4. A tramway, No. 4, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point in Cheap Street, about ten chains fifty links from the commencement of tramway No. 1, as already described, and will terminate at a point opposite, or nearly opposite, to Back Lane, leading from the corn wharf :

The centre line of tramway No. 4 will be laid on the westerly or left-hand side of the imaginary centre line for a length of about eight chains, and will be about four feet six inches from and to the west of the imaginary centre line, and thence it will gradually diverge for the length of one chain eastwardly until the centre line of the tramway attains a distance of four feet six inches from and to the east of the imaginary centre line, and will keep thus for about the distance of six 5 chains. Thence it will gradually diverge and keep in an easterly direction, and the centre line of the tramway will attain a distance of about three feet six inches from and to the north of the imaginary centre line, which distance it will keep until its termination.

5. A tramway, No. 5, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, com- 10
mencing by a junction with tramway No. 4, at a point about one chain from the south-west corner of the White Hart Hotel, and will terminate by a junction with tramway No. 1, at a point about one chain south of the bridge that carries the road over the river Kennet :

The centre line of tramway No. 5 will, from its commencement, be 15 laid on the south or left-hand side of the imaginary centre line, and will be at a distance of about three feet six inches from such imaginary centre line, which distance it will retain until its junction with tramway No. 1.

6. A tramway, No. 6, to be wholly situate in the parish of Newbury, com- 20
mencing by a junction with tramway No. 4, at a point northward of the south-west corner of the White Hart Hotel, and terminating by a junction with tramway No. 5, at a point northward of the north-east corner of the Town Hall :

The centre line of tramway No. 6 will be, from its commencement, 25 about three feet six inches to the north or right-hand side of the imaginary centre line, and will gradually approach within the distance of one chain the said imaginary centre line, which it will cross, and will then gradually diverge to the south or left-hand side of such imaginary centre line until it attains the distance of about three feet six inches, which 30 distance it retains to its termination :

The space, nine feet six inches, between the outside of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway cannot be afforded in the following streets, roads, or places ; (that is to say,) through Cheap Street along the road leading to the Newbury Station, also along 35
the road leading to the goods station of the Great Western Railway, the new road to the cattle market, Bartholemew Street, Northbrook Street, the road leading to the corn wharf, and throughout all the villages along the entire route :

The tramways shall be constructed on a guage of three feet. 40

The Promoters shall not lay down tramways Nos. 5 and 6 without the consent of the corporation under their common seal first had and obtained.

Tramways within the borough of Newbury to be constructed to satisfaction of borough surveyor.

8. The Promoters shall lay down and construct such of the tramways or parts thereof as are situate within the borough of Newbury under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the surveyor of the said borough. 45
The Promoters shall at their own expense, at all times, maintain and keep in good condition and repair, with such materials and in such manner as the said surveyor shall direct, and to his reasonable satisfaction, the entire surface of the bridge over the river Kennet, within the said borough, over which the said tramway will be laid. A.D. 1874.

9. The promoters shall not without the consent in writing of the Great Western Railway Company construct tramways Nos. 2 and 3, but the promoters may, with such consent, or the Great Western Railway Company may, at the request and cost of the promoters, lay down and construct the said tramways so far as the same are on the land or property of the Great Western Railway Company, together with such sidings, turnouts, and connections as the promoters and the said Company may agree upon; and so much of the said tramways, or of either of them, as is laid down or constructed on the land or property of the Great Western Railway Company, shall be laid down or constructed under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of the said Company, and in such places and manner as he may think fit.

10. The said tramway No. 2 shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such a manner as not to interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the approach to the goods yard and station of the Great Western Railway Company at Newbury, or of the said goods yard and station; and all persons using the said tramway shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made in respect of the said approach, yard, or station, or in operation therein or thereon; and no passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels shall be carried over the said tramway, unless going to or from the said goods yard and station, without the consent in writing of the Great Western Railway Company first had and obtained.

11. The said tramway No. 3 shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such a manner as not to interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the approach to the passenger station of the Great Western Railway Company at Newbury, or of the yard in front of the said station; and all persons using the said tramway shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made in respect of the said approach and yard, or in operation therein or thereon; and no passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels shall be carried over the said tramway, unless going to or from the said station, without the consent in writing of the said company first had and obtained.

Tramway No. 3 not to interfere with the use of the approach to the Great Western Railway Company's passenger station at Newbury.

12. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in any tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rails.

13. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act,

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

16 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874. 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues; and such penalty may be recovered as by clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided.

Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.

14. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered. 5

Additional crossing, &c., may be made where necessary.

15. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables, or carriage-sheds, or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto. 10 15

Temporary tramways may be made where necessary.

16. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any tramway authorised by this Order is laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road and, with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued. 20 25

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 30 35

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters works.

17. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary in or towards the re-instating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided, that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not 40 45

removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference 5 between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person, with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority.

A.D. 1874.

Traffic upon Tramways.

- 10 18. The tramways may be used for the purpose of conveying passengers, animals, goods, minerals, and parcels. Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

19. The Promoters may demand and take for every passenger travelling upon the tramways or any part thereof, including tolls for the use of the 15 tramways and the carriages, and for motive power, and every other expense incidental to such conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding twopence per mile for first-class passengers, and one penny per mile for second-class passengers (and for this purpose the fraction of a mile beyond an integral number of miles shall be deemed a mile); but the Promoters may charge for any less
 20 distance than three miles any sum not exceeding sixpence for first-class passengers, and threepence for second-class passengers: Provided always, that if at any time after three years from the opening for public traffic of any portion of the tramways it is represented in writing to the Board of Trade by the local authority of any district in which such portion is wholly or partially
 25 situate, or by twenty inhabitant ratepayers of any such district, that the Promoters are charging a greater sum than fourpence for first-class passengers or twopence for second-class passengers, for distances not exceeding two miles, and that under the circumstances then existing such charge is unreasonable, the Board of Trade may (if they think fit) direct an inquiry by a referee, to
 30 be appointed by the said Board in accordance with the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870;" and if such referee report that the truth of the representation has been proved to his satisfaction, the said Board may make an order in writing limiting the amount of the tolls and charges to be thenceforth charged by the Promoters for the conveyance of passengers for distances not 35 exceeding two miles to fourpence for first-class passengers, and to twopence for second-class passengers, and the Promoters shall thenceforth conform to and abide by such order: Provided always, that the Board of Trade may from time to time, after making such order, revoke or modify the same for good cause shown to them.

Tolls.

- 40 20. Every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways may take with him his personal luggage, not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight, without any charge being made for the carriage thereof. Passengers' luggage.

21. The Promoters may demand and take, in respect of any animals, goods, minerals, or articles conveyed by them on the tramways, except as is by this 45 Order specially provided, including the tolls for the use of the tramways, and Tolls for animals, goods, &c.

18 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874. for waggons, trucks, and motive power, and every other expense incidental to the conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding the rates specified in the schedule to this Order annexed.

Payment of tolls. 22. The tolls and charges by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons, and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner, 5 and under such regulations as the Promoters may by notice to be annexed to the list of tolls appoint.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions as to arbitration. 23. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person 10 nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

Form and delivery of notices. 24. With respect to notices and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely, 15
(1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and if given by the corporation shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by the town clerk, or by the borough surveyor, and if given by any other local authority or road authority by being signed by their clerk, secretary, surveyor, or overseer: 20
(2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters to or by any local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter addressed to their respective 25 clerk, secretary, surveyor, or overseer, at their principal office.

Provisions as to general Acts. 25. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force, or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament. 30

A.D. 1874.

PORTSMOUTH STREET TRAMWAYS.

Order authorising the Portsmouth Street Tramways Company to construct additional Street Tramways in the parish of Portsea and county of Southampton.

- Short title. 1. This Order may be cited as "The Portsmouth Street Tramways 5
(Extensions) Order, 1874."
- Incorporation of Acts. 2. The provisions of "The Lands Clauses Acts," (except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and with respect to the entry on lands by the Promoters of the undertaking,) and of "The Tramways Act, 1870," are hereby incorporated with this Order, except where 10
the same are expressly varied by this Order.
- Interpretation. 3. The several words and expressions to which by the Acts in whole or in part incorporated with this Order meanings are assigned have in this Order the same respective meanings :
Provided that the expression "the tramways" or "the undertaking" shall 15
mean the tramways and works and undertaking by this Order authorised.
The expression "the Act of 1870" shall mean "The Portsmouth Street Tramways Act, 1870."
- The Promoters. 4. The Portsmouth Street Tramways Company shall be the Promoters for 20
the purposes of this Order, and are in this Order referred to as "the Promoters."
- Land by agreement. 5. The Promoters may by agreement from time to time purchase and acquire, in addition to any land which by the Act of 1870 they are authorised to acquire, such land as may be necessary for the undertaking, not exceeding 25
in the whole five acres.
- Power to apply funds. 6. The Promoters may from time to time apply towards any of the purposes of this Order any moneys which they have raised or may hereafter raise under the Act of 1870.

Construction of Tramways.

- Construction of tramways. 7. The Promoters may construct and maintain, subject to the provisions of this Order, and in accordance with the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of this Order, the tramways herein-after described, with all proper rails, plates, offices, weigh-bridges, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, works, and conveniences connected therewith, or for the purposes thereof, and may 35
work and use the same.
The tramways authorised by this Order are,—
A tramway (No. 1) (single line), two furlongs and three chains in length, commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 2, authorised by "The Act of 1870," at its termination, and curving thence in a northerly 40

direction into and along the London Road, and terminating in the last-named road at a point about 60 feet north of the south gate or entrance to North End House : A.D. 1874.

- 5 A tramway siding or passing place (No. 2) (single line), ninety links in length, commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 11, authorised by the Act of 1870, at its termination in Kingston Crescent, and curving thence in a northerly direction into and along the London Road, and terminating at a point about 20 yards from its commencement, as above described :
- 10 A tramway siding or passing place (No. 3) (single line), two chains and forty-five links in length, wholly situate in the London Road aforesaid, commencing and terminating by junctions with the Tramway No. 1, by this Order authorised, the point of commencement being opposite to the north-west corner of No. 1, Carlton Terrace, and the point of termination
- 15 being 54 yards north of the said north-west corner :
- A tramway siding or passing place (No. 4) (single line), three chains in length, situate partly in the London Road aforesaid, and partly in the road leading to Stamshaw, and commencing by a junction with the Tramway No. 1, authorised by this Order, at a point 40 yards south of its termination, as
- 20 above described, and curving thence in a north-westerly direction into and along the road leading to Stamshaw, and terminating in the last-named road at a point 3 chains from the commencement of the intended Tramway No. 4, as above described.

25 All the tramways will be situate wholly in the parish of Portsea, in the county of Southampton.

Provided always, that the Promoters shall not use the tramways or suffer the same to be used for traffic until they have completed the widening of London Road and Water Lane, within the limits and to the extent shown on the plan marked A, sealed with the seal of the Promoters, and deposited at the Office of 30 the Board of Trade.

8. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the 35 greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

9. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be

45 recovered as by clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided.

10. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the

[220.] C 3

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

22 Tramways Provisional Orders Confirmation. [37 & 38 VICT.]

A.D. 1874. Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Additional crossings, &c. may be made where necessary.

11. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage sheds or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto.

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

12. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned.

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters works.

13. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the reinstating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within 30 days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit. Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority. A.D. 1874.

Traffic upon Tramways.

- 5 14. The tramways may be used for the purpose of conveying passengers and parcels only. Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

15. The Promoters may from time to time demand and take in respect of the tramways tolls and charges not exceeding those which they are authorised to take, and for the time being may lawfully take, in respect of the tramways authorised by the Act of 1870, and the provisions of the sections of the said Act, numbered 58 to 63 (both numbers inclusive), shall apply to the tramways authorised by this Order and the tolls to be taken in respect thereof in like manner in every respect as if the said tramways were the tramways in the said sections mentioned. Tolls.

Miscellaneous.

16. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties. Provisions as to arbitration.

17. The Promoters and the road authority of any district in which any of the tramways is laid may from time to time enter into contracts or agreements with respect to the laying down, maintaining, renewing, removing, repairing, working, and using of the tramways within such district, and the rails, plates, sleepers, and works connected therewith, and for facilitating the passage of carriages and traffic over and along the same by means of animal power. Agreements between the Promoters and road authority.

18. With respect to notices, and to the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,) Form and delivery of notices.
- 30 (1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and, if given by the local authority or any road authority, shall be signed by their clerk or secretary:
- 35 (2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters, to or by any local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter, addressed to their respective clerk or secretary at their principal office.

19. Nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament. Provision for general Acts.

land or property of the Great Western Railway Company shall be laid down or constructed under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of the said company, and in such places and manner as he may think fit. A.D. 1874.

- 5 8. The said tramway, so far as it is situate within the goods yard of the Wantage Road Station of the Great Western Railway Company, or on the approach thereto, shall be worked, maintained, managed, and used in such manner as not to prevent or interfere with the free and uninterrupted use of the said approach, goods yard, or station, and all persons using so much of the said tramway as is on the said approach or within the said goods yard or station shall be subject to the byelaws, rules, and regulations of the Great Western Railway Company from time to time made, in respect of the said approach, yard, or station or in operation therein or thereon, and no passengers, animals, goods, minerals, or parcels, shall be carried over the said portion of tramway, unless going to or from the said goods yard or station of the Great Western Railway Company, without the consent in writing of that company.

Tramway, so far as within the goods yard of the Wantage Station, not to interfere with the use of that station and the approach thereto.

9. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramways within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rails.

10. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision, or with any of the requirements of section twenty-eight of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues, and such penalty may be recovered as by clause fifty-six of the said Act is provided.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

11. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways are laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.

12. The Promoters may from time to time hereafter make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorised by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage-sheds, or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided, that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by

Additional crossings, &c. may be made where necessary.

A.D. 1874. writing under his hand addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto.

Temporary tramways may be made where necessary.

13. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the same or any adjacent road, and with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued. 5 10

If any difference arise between the Promoters and any road authority with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section thirty-three of "The Tramways Act, 1870," for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 15

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters' works.

14. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the re-instating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of such road authority of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person, with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority. 20 25 30 35

Division of footpath.

15. The Promoters may, for the purposes of the undertaking and with the consent of the trustees for the time being of the Besselsleigh Turnpike Road, divert so much of the footpath on the said road as lies between the said Wantage Road Station and the said lane at Grove, called Oxford Lane, from the eastern to the western side of the said road. The new footpath shall be constructed in a similar manner and with similar materials to the present footpath by and at the expense of the Promoters under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the said trustees. 40 45

Traffic upon Tramways.

A.D. 1874.

16. The tramways may be used for the purpose of conveying passengers, animals, goods, minerals, parcels, and mail bags.

Traffic upon tramways.

Tolls.

5 17. The Promoters may demand and take in respect of passengers, animals, goods, minerals, parcels, or mail bags carried and conveyed upon the tramways, or any part thereof, including tolls for the use of the tramways, and of carriages, and for motive power, and every other expense incidental to such conveyance, any tolls or charges not exceeding those specified in the schedule to this Order
10 annexed, subject to the regulations in that behalf specified in the same schedule.

Tolls for passengers, animals, goods, &c.

18. Every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways may take with him his personal luggage, not exceeding fifty-six pounds in weight in the first class, and not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight in the second class, without any charge being made for the carriage thereof.

Passengers luggage.

15 19. The Promoters shall not be bound to carry, unless they think fit, any animals, goods, or parcels other than the luggage which passengers are by this Order authorised to take with them.

Promoters no bound to carry goods.

20 20. The tolls and charges by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner and under such regulations, as the Promoters may, by notice to be annexed to the list of tolls, appoint.

Payment of tolls.

Miscellaneous.

21. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person
25 nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all parties.

Provisions as to arbitration.

22. The Promoters may enter into agreements with the trustees for the time being of the Besselsleigh Road for the collection or renting or taking on lease
30 the several tolls authorised to be taken on that road.

Agreements, &c. with trustees of Besselsleigh Road.

23. With respect to notices and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely,

Form and delivery of notices.

(1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and if given by the commissioners for improving the town
35 of Wantage shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by their clerk or surveyor, and if given by any other local authority or road authority by being signed by their clerk, secretary, or surveyor:
(2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters to or by any local 40 authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter addressed to their respective clerk, secretary, or surveyor at their principal office.

WIRRAL TRAMWAYS.

30 Order authorising the construction of Tramways in the extra-parochial chapelry of Birkenhead, and in the townships of Tranmere, Higher Bebington, and Lower Bebington, all in the parish of Bebington and county of Chester.

1. This Order may be cited as "The Wirral Tramways Order, 1874." Short title.

35 2. The provisions of "The Lands Clauses Acts" (except with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, and with respect to the entry on lands by the Promoters of the undertaking), and of "The Tramways Act, 1870," are hereby incorporated with this Order, except where the same are expressly varied by this Order. Incorporation of Acts.

A.D. 1874. 3. The several words and expressions to which, by the Acts in whole or in part incorporated with this Order, meanings are assigned, have in this Order the same respective meanings:

Interpretation.

Provided that the expression "the tramways" or "the undertaking" shall mean the tramways and works and undertaking by this Order 5 authorised.

In this Order the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners.

Promoters.

The Promoters. 4. The Wirral Tramway Company (Limited) shall be the Promoters for 10 the purposes of this Order, and are in this Order referred to as "the Promoters."

Land by agreement.

5. The Promoters may, by agreement, from time to time purchase and acquire such land as may be necessary for the undertaking, not exceeding 15 in the whole four acres.

Construction of Tramways.

Construction of tramways.

6. The Promoters may construct and maintain, subject to the provisions of this Order, and in accordance with the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of this Order, the tramways herein-after described, with all proper rails, plates, offices, weigh-bridges, stables, carriage-houses, warehouses, 20 works, and conveniences connected therewith, or for the purposes thereof, and may work and use the same.

The tramways authorised by this Order are,—

A tramway (No. 1), wholly situate in the townships of Tranmere Higher Bebington, and Lower Bebington, in the parish of Bebington and the 25 extra-parochial chapelry of Birkenhead, commencing in the approach road to the Woodside Ferry by a junction with the existing Birkenhead Street Railway, at a point 1 chain 32 links or thereabouts in a south-westerly direction from the entrance to the Woodside Ferry Station, and passing thence along the Ferry approach road, Chester Street, and the New 30 Chester Road, and terminating in the township of Lower Bebington at a point in the New Chester Road 58 yards or thereabouts north of the turnpike gate at New Ferry Road:

A tramway (No. 2), wholly situate in the extra-parochial chapelry of Birkenhead, commencing in Chester Street by a junction with the existing 35 Birkenhead Street Railway at a point 17 yards or thereabouts in a north-easterly direction from the centre of Bridge Street, and passing thence along Church Street and Ivy Street into Chester Street, and terminating by a junction with tramway No. 1 at or near the south side of Ivy Street: 40

A tramway (No. 3), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road opposite the approach to the Tranmere Ferry, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1:

A.D. 1874.

- A tramway (No. 4), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road between Union Street and Derby Street, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1 :
- 5 A tramway (No. 5), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Tranmere and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road between Bedford Place and Bedford Road, commencing and terminating by junctions with tramway No. 1 :
- 10 A tramway (No. 6), a passing-place 3 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Higher Bebington and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1 at a point 216 yards or thereabouts in a southerly direction from the centre of Rock Lane, and terminating at a point 66 yards from the commencement thereof by a junction with tramway No. 1 :
- 15 A tramway (No. 7), a passing-place 2 chains in length, wholly situate in the township of Lower Bebington and the parish of Bebington, in the New Chester Road, commencing by a junction with tramway No. 1 at a point 30 yards or thereabouts in a southerly direction from the centre of Victoria Grove, and terminating at a point 58 yards or thereabouts north of the
- 20 turnpike gate at New Ferry Road.

Provided always, that the Promoters shall not make any junction of any of the tramways or any part thereof with the railway of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited), or any part thereof, and shall not construct as much of tramway No. 1 as will be situate in or upon the approach road to 25 the Woodside Ferry belonging or reputed to belong to the Commissioners, nor enter upon or use any other land (not being a highway) belonging to the Commissioners, without the consent in writing of the Commissioners for such purpose first had and received.

7. The tramways shall be constructed with two rails, to be laid at a distance not exceeding five feet three inches (reckoning from the outside edge of each rail).
- 30 Formation of tramways.

The rails shall be of such form and be laid in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the surveyors of the several local and road authorities; and in case of difference or dispute in relation thereto the matter in dispute shall be 35 referred to and determined by Mr. Edward Mills, surveyor, of Birkenhead, or, failing him, shall be settled in the manner provided by section 33 of The Tramways Act, 1870.

8. During the construction of any works by this Order authorised in any road in any district, the Promoters shall make such arrangements in relation
- 40 to the execution of such works as may in the opinion of the road authority of such district be proper, for preventing the traffic along such road from being unnecessarily impeded.
- For facilitating traffic while road broken up.

9. So much of the road whereon the tramways are laid as lies between the rails and as extends eighteen inches beyond the rails of and on each side of the
- 45 tramway shall be paved by the Promoters, at their own expense, with granite

As to tramways
Nos. 1 and 2
affecting portions of Birkenhead Railway undertaking.

- (1.) The tramway No. 1 shall be so made along Chester Street in Birkenhead, as not to interfere with the eyes, shafts, or other work in that street made or carried on, or the breaking up or opening of that street for the construction by tunnel or covered way therealong and thereunder, by the two Companies, of the Birkenhead new line authorised by The Great Western Railway Additional Powers Act, 1871, and whether the works of or for the construction of that line shall have been executed either before or after the making of the tramway No. 1; and where it will pass over the existing tunnel of Monks Ferry branch, and under the Tranmere branch of the Birkenhead Railway undertaking, it shall be made only according to the line thereof as shown on the plans deposited for the purposes of this Order; and the tramway No. 1 shall be so made as not to cause any interference with or damage or injury to any of such works, or to the said tunnels or covered way, or to the Tranmere Branch Railway:
- (2.) The tramway No. 2, at its crossings over the Birkenhead new line at the passing of that line under Church Street, and over the existing Monks Ferry branch of the Birkenhead Railway undertaking at the respective points where that branch railway is constructed in open cutting and in tunnel, shall be so made as not to cause any interference with or damage or injury to the bridges for carrying Church Street over the Birkenhead new line, and over the Monks Ferry Branch, or with or to such tunnel:
- (3.) All works to be constructed or executed by the Promoters with reference to the Tramways Nos. 1 and 2 in any way affecting the said railways of the two Companies, or any of the bridges or works thereof, or any lands or property used for the same, or occupied or enjoyed therewith, shall be done under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the principal engineer of the two Companies, and according to plans to be reasonably approved by him before any such works are commenced, and in all things at the expense of the Promoters, and so also as not to cause any interruption to the passage or conduct of traffic over any of the said lines or at the stations thereon:
- (4.) If by reason of or by reason of the failure of any works, operations, or proceedings of the Promoters, or of any of their contractors, or the agents, servants, or workmen of the Promoters or of the contractors, the said railways of the two Companies, or any of the bridges or works thereof, or the said lands or property, shall be damaged or injured, or the traffic on such railways or at any of the stations thereon shall be interrupted or obstructed, and whether during the construction or after the completion of the tramways Nos. 1 and 2, the Promoters shall forthwith make good any such damage or injury, and make full compensation for any such interruption or obstruction; or in case the Promoters shall make default in that behalf after seven days notice, or in the event of emergency happening (of which emergency the two Companies shall be the sole judges), then without notice, the two Companies may make good any such damage or injury, and remove any such interruption or obstruction, and execute all such necessary works in that behalf as they may deem expedient, and in all things at the expense of the Promoters, and may recover from the Promoters the amount of their expenditure in that behalf, certified under the hand of their engineer, with full costs, in any court of competent jurisdiction; and the two Companies shall not, whether during the construction or after the completion of the Birkenhead new line, be answerable for any damage or interference caused by its construction to or with the tramways Nos. 1 and 2 by reason of subsidence or otherwise.

A.D. 1874.

11. No part of the tramway No. 2 shall be constructed so as to leave a less space than nine feet six inches between the curbstone of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway without the consent of the Commissioners in writing first had and obtained.

As to construction of tramway No. 2 where less space than 9 ft. 6 in.

12. The Board of Trade may from time to time, upon the application of the road authority of any district, require the Promoters to adopt and apply such improvements in the tramway within such district, including the rails thereof, as experience may from time to time suggest, having regard to the greater security of the public and advantage to the ordinary traffic; and the Promoters shall, with all reasonable despatch, comply with any order made by the Board of Trade for the purpose of carrying out any such improvements.

Promoters may be required to use improved form of rail.

13. The Promoters shall at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair the rails of which any of the tramways shall for the time being consist, and the substructure upon which the same rest, and if the Promoters at any time fail to comply with this provision or with any of the requirements of section 28 of "The Tramways Act, 1870," they shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which such act of omission continues; and such penalty may be recovered as by clause 56 of the said Act is provided.

Penalty for not maintaining rails and road in good condition.

14. If any road authority shall hereafter alter the level of any road along or across which any of the tramways is laid or authorised to be laid, the Promoters may and shall from time to time alter or (as the case may be) lay their rails so that the uppermost surface thereof shall be on a level with the surface of the road as altered.

Tramways to be kept on a level with surface of road.

15. The Promoters in any district in which any of the tramways are situated may from time to time, with the consent of the road authority of such district, make all such crossings, passing-places, sidings, junctions, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in and authorisen by this Order, as may from time to time be necessary or convenient to the efficient working of the tramways, or any of them, or for providing access to any stables or carriage sheds or works of the Promoters, subject to the approval of the road authority: Provided that in the construction of any such works no rail shall be so laid that a less space than 5 nine feet six inches shall intervene between the said rail and the outside of the footpath on either side of the road, if any owner or occupier of premises abutting on the place where such rail is proposed to be laid shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Promoters, express his objection thereto.

Temporary tramways may be made when necessary.

16. Where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface 10 or soil of any road along which any of the tramways are laid, it shall in the opinion of the road authority be necessary or expedient temporarily to remove or discontinue the use of such tramway, or any part thereof, the Promoters may, subject to such conditions and in accordance in all respects with such regulations as the road authority may from time to time make, construct in the 15 same or any adjacent road, and, with the like consent, subject to the like conditions, and in accordance with the like regulations, maintain, so long as occasion may require, a temporary tramway or temporary tramways in lieu of the tramway or part of a tramway so removed or discontinued.

If any difference arises between the Promoters and any road authority 20 with respect to the reasonableness of any regulations, or with respect to the mode of constructing any temporary tramway or tramways under the authority of this section, the same shall be settled in the manner specified in section 33 of the Tramways Act, 1870, for the settlement of the differences in the said section mentioned. 25

Application of road materials excavated in construction of Promoters' works.

17. Any paving, metalling, or material excavated by the Promoters in the construction of their works from any road under the jurisdiction or control of any road authority may be applied by the Promoters, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the reinstating of the road, and the maintenance for six months after completion of any of the tramways within the district of 30 such road authority, of so much of the roadway on either side of such tramways as the Promoters are by this Order required to maintain; and the Promoters shall, if so required, deliver the surplus paving, metalling, or material not used or required to be retained for the purposes aforesaid to the surveyor for the time being of the road authority, or to such person or persons as he 35 may appoint to receive the same: Provided that if within seven days after the excavation of any such paving, metalling, or material, the surplus thereof as aforesaid is not removed by the said surveyor, or by some other person or persons named by him for that purpose, such surplus paving, metalling, or material shall absolutely vest in and belong to the Promoters, and may be 40 dealt with, removed, and disposed of by them in such manner as they may think fit: Any difference between the Promoters and any road authority or surveyor or other person with reference to any of the matters aforesaid shall be determined in manner provided by "The Tramways Act, 1870," with respect to all differences between the Promoters and any road authority. 45

Section 30 of Tramways Act, 1870, to

19. The Promoters shall on demand reimburse and repay to the Commissioners all costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the removal and relaying, alteration, and repair or renewal of any gas or water mains or pipes, services, valves, or hydrants which in the opinion of the Commissioners should be removed, relaid, altered, repaired, or renewed, in consequence of the laying down of the tramway or any part thereof in their district.

Promoters to pay expenses of moving pipes of Commissioners.

20. The Promoters shall, on demand, repay to the Commissioners all charges and expenses incurred by them for the supervision and inspection of any work done by the Promoters in connexion with the tramway, or in consequence of the tramway being laid in Birkenhead; and the Commissioners are hereby authorised to order such supervision and inspection of the works as they may deem proper.

Promoters to pay for expenses of inspection.

21. The Promoters shall at their own expense, upon the request of the surveyor for the time being of the Commissioners, remove or divert the rails or tramway from the whole or any part or parts of the street in Birkenhead, for permitting the constructing of or repairs to sewers or for any other purpose of the Commissioners for public convenience, and if the Promoters shall omit to remove or divert the tramway or any part thereof within such time as the surveyor of the Commissioners shall require, and in case such rails or tramway shall be removed or diverted by the Commissioners, who are hereby authorised to remove or divert them, the Promoters shall and will repay and reimburse the Commissioners all costs, charges, and expenses that may be incurred by the Commissioners in or about such removal or diversion; provided always, that in every case in which it shall become necessary to remove and divert any such rails or tramway the rails may be temporarily laid, while such repairs are being made, on some other part or parts of the street if practicable without impeding the traffic of such street.

Promoters to remove rails in Birkenhead at request of Commissioners.

22. Whenever any tramway or passing place is constructed or required to be constructed over any man-hole or entrance into a sewer of the Commissioners, or so close to any such man-hole or entrance as to make the use thereof dangerous or inconvenient, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the Promoters shall, if required by the Commissioners, construct another man-hole or side entrance in lieu thereof in such a position and according to such plans as shall be approved of by the Commissioners.

Provision as to entrances into sewers.

Passengers' luggage.

25. Every passenger travelling upon any of the tramways may take with him his personal luggage, not exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight, without any charge being made for the carriage thereof.

Promoters not bound to carry more than 28 lbs.

26. The Promoters shall not be bound to carry, unless they think fit, any passenger's luggage exceeding twenty-eight pounds in weight.

Cheap fares for labouring classes.

27. The Promoters, at all times after the opening of the tramways or any part or parts thereof for public traffic, shall and they are hereby required to run carriages each way every morning in the week and every evening in the week (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday always excepted), at such hours, not being later than seven in the morning or earlier than six in the evening respectively, as the Promoters think most convenient for artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers, at tolls or charges not exceeding one halfpenny per mile (the Promoters nevertheless not being required to take any fare less than one penny); and also to run carriages each way daily between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, except as aforesaid, not less frequently than twice in each hour: Provided that in case of any complaint made to the Board of Trade of the hours appointed by the Promoters for the running of such carriages, the said Board shall have power to fix and regulate the same from time to time.

Payment of tolls.

28. The tolls and charges, by this Order authorised shall be paid to such persons, and at such places upon or near to the tramways, and in such manner, and under such regulations, as the Promoters may, by notice to be annexed to the list of tolls, appoint.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions as to arbitration.

29. Where, under the provisions of "The Tramways Act, 1870," in this Order any matter in difference is referred to the arbitration of any person nominated by the Board of Trade, the provisions of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1854," shall apply to every such arbitration, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive, and binding on all parties.

Promoters may enter into agreements as to laying down of tramways.

30. The Promoters and the road authority of any district may enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements as to any special terms and conditions upon which the tramways shall be laid down and maintained within such district; but nothing in this enactment contained shall authorise the Promoters

31. All interference with the works of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited) necessary or convenient for effecting the junctions by this Order authorised with the tramways shall be made under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer for the time being of that Company, and in case of difference arising as to the mode of effecting the junctions, the same shall be determined by a referee to be appointed by the Board of Trade on the application of either party at the cost of the Company making the junctions.

As to junctions with Birkenhead Street Railway Company, Limited.

32. The Promoters, and all persons and corporations lawfully using the tramways, may run over and use the tramways or any part of the tramways of the Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited).

Promoters may use tramways of the railway company.

The terms, conditions, and regulations to which the Promoters and such other persons and corporations as aforesaid shall be subject in respect of the said use, and the tolls or other consideration to be paid by them for the same, shall, if not agreed upon, be from time to time determined by an arbitrator to be appointed by the Board of Trade, and the decisions of such arbitrator shall be binding and conclusive on all the parties in difference; and the costs and expenses of such arbitrator shall be defrayed as the arbitrator shall direct, and either of the parties to such arbitration who shall refuse or neglect to perform, observe, and conform to any decision given or regulation made by any such arbitrator in the premises, shall forfeit and pay to the other party, as the arbitrator shall determine, any sum not exceeding fifty pounds for every such offence, and twenty pounds for every day during which such offence shall continue.

33. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect or limit the powers or rights of the Commissioners with respect to the tramways of the said Birkenhead Street Railway Company (Limited).

Protection of powers and rights of Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners.

34. Whereas the consent of the Local Board for the district of Tranmere to the application of the Promoters for this Order was given subject to certain terms and conditions which are set forth in the schedule to this Order annexed; therefore the Promoters and the said Local Board shall duly observe all and every the terms and conditions in the said schedule set forth on their respective parts, and shall give effect to the same as if the same were in this Order expressly set forth; and all and each of the powers and privileges by this Order conferred upon the Promoters shall only be exercised and may only be enjoyed by the Promoters subject in every respect to the said terms and conditions.

Order to be subject to terms and conditions in the schedule.

35. With respect to notices, and the delivery thereof by or to the Promoters, the following provisions shall have effect; namely,

Form and delivery of notices.

(1.) Every notice shall be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and, if given by the local authority or any road authority shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by their clerk or secretary:

(2.) Any notice to be delivered by or to the Promoters to or by the local authority, or any road authority or other body, or any company, may be delivered by being left at the principal office of that authority, body, or company, or of the Promoters, as the case may be, or by being sent by post in a registered letter addressed to their respective clerk or secretary at their principal office.

36. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the 5 tramways from the provisions of any general Act relating to tramways now in force, or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE.

The Promoters shall so lay down, make, and maintain the single line of 10 tramway by the foregoing Order authorised in or along the New Chester Road, in the township of Tranmere, that the centre of such tramway shall be in the centre of the street or road, measuring from the curbstones on either side.

The Promoters shall not make tramway No. 3 without the consent in writing of the Local Board for the district of Tranmere, herein-after referred to as "the 15 Local Board," under their seal first had and obtained.

The Promoters shall, on demand, repay to the Local Board all charges and expenses incurred by them for the supervision and inspection of any work done by the Promoters in connexion with the tramway, or in consequence of the tramway being laid in the township of Tranmere, and the Local Board 20 is hereby authorised to order such supervision and inspection of the work as they may deem proper.

Section 30 of "The Tramways Act, 1870," shall apply to the Local Board with reference to the water mains and pipes belonging to them, in like manner as the same applies to a company or person being the owners 25 of water mains or pipes.

The Promoters shall, on demand, reimburse and repay to the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the removal and relaying, alteration, repair, or renewal of any water mains or pipes, services, valves or hydrants, which, in the opinion of the Local Board, should be removed, relaid, 30 altered, or repaired, in consequence of the laying down of the tramway, or any part thereof.

Whenever the tramway or passing-place or siding is required to be constructed over any man-hole or entrance connected with a sewer of the Local Board, or so close to any such man-hole or entrance as to make the use thereof 35 dangerous or inconvenient, in the opinion of the Local Board, the Promoters shall, if required by the Local Board, construct man-holes or side entrances in lieu thereof in such a position and according to such plan or plans as the Local Board shall approve of, before the tramway is laid over, or close to such man-holes as aforesaid; or the Local Board may elect to do the work 40 themselves, and in case of such election the Promoters shall repay the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by them in connexion with such work.

The whole of the macadam excavated by the Promoters along the line of rails within the township of Tranmere shall become the property of the Local 45

Board, and shall be filled into carts provided and placed by the Local Board at such places as the macadam is from time to time being excavated. In lieu of such macadam the Local Board shall supply the Promoters, at such place or places as the same may be from time to time required, with good and

- 5 proper shingle, along the lines of rails within the district of the Local Board, for the purpose of making the concrete that may be required for the foundation under the rails and paving within the district of the Local Board; but the shingle so to be supplied shall not exceed the quantity of macadam excavated, nor shall any shingle supplied by the Local Board be used anywhere
- 10 but within the township of Tranmere. Should any dispute arise in reference to the quality of the shingle supplied, the matter shall be determined by reference to Mr. Edward Mills, surveyor, of Birkenhead, or, failing him, shall be settled in the manner provided for by section 33 of the Tramways Act.

- During the construction of any works under the authority of the foregoing
- 15 Order within the district of the Local Board, the Promoters shall so arrange and carry on the work that a clear space of not less than eight feet from each curb on each side of the street shall be left free and without any obstruction whatever during the whole progress of the works.

- The Promoters shall, at their own expense, upon the request of the surveyor
- 20 for the time being of the Local Board, remove or divert the tramway from the whole or any part or parts of the street, for permitting repairs to sewers, or for any other purpose of the Local Board, or of public convenience; and if the Promoters shall omit to remove or divert the tramway, or any part thereof, within such time as the surveyor of the Local Board shall require, and in case
- 25 such rails or tramway shall be removed or diverted by the Local Board, who are hereby authorised to remove or divert them, the Promoters shall and will repay and reimburse the Local Board all costs, charges, and expenses that may be incurred by the Local Board in or about such removal or diversion: Provided always, that in every case in which it shall become necessary to
- 30 remove and divert any such rails or tramway the rails may be temporarily laid, while such repairs are being made, on some other part or parts of the street, if practicable.

- The Promoters shall and will save, defend, keep harmless, and indemnify the Local Board, and their estate and effects, of, from, and against all
- 35 actions, suits, indictments, or other proceedings, damages, costs, expenses, claims, and demands whatsoever, for or by reason or on account of the said Tramway, or any part thereof, being laid down, constructed, or maintained in the district of the Local Board.

- Nothing herein-before contained shall be considered or taken as preventing
- 40 the Local Board and the Promoters, by mutual consent, from altering or modifying any of the matters herein-before contained, so far as such alteration may be in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing Order; such alteration or modification to be sanctioned by a resolution of a meeting of the Local Board specially summoned for the purpose of considering such alteration or modification.
- 45

FOR

The Establishment of Tribunals of Commerce.

A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to constitute tribunals of commerce for determining speedily and economically claims and disputes arising out of trading transactions :

And whereas the county courts form a convenient and economic basis for the establishment of such tribunals :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows ; that is to say,

1. This Act shall be cited for all purposes as "The Tribunals of Commerce Act, 1874."

2. This Act shall, so far as is consistent with the enactments herein-after contained, be read with "The County Courts Act, 1846," and the Acts in force amending and extending the same, and shall be construed therewith as though the said Acts had been herein enacted and formed part of this Act.

3. This Act shall not come into operation, except as herein is expressly provided until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

4. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context, the following terms have the meanings herein-after respectively assigned to them ; that is to say,

"Tribunal" shall mean a tribunal of commerce constituted under the provisions of this Act :

"President" shall mean the judge of a county court constituted a tribunal, and shall include any person lawfully discharging the duty of such judge :

Incorporating County Court Acts.

Commencement of Act.

Interpretation of certain terms.

A.D. 1874.

"Merchant judge" shall mean a person who shall be appointed to act as one of the judges of a tribunal :

"Treasurer" shall mean the treasurer, and the person for the time being discharging the duty of the treasurer, of the county court district within which a tribunal is constituted : 5

"Registrar" shall mean the registrar of the county court constituted a tribunal acting under the provisions of this Act, and shall include the person lawfully discharging the duty of such registrar :

"High bailiff" shall mean the high bailiff of such county court so acting : 10

"Trader" shall mean any trader within the laws for the time being in force relating to bankrupts :

"Person" shall include any company or corporation carrying on trade : 15

"Prescribed" shall mean prescribed by the rules of practice and procedure made under the provisions of this Act.

CONSTITUTION OF TRIBUNALS, JUDGES, AND OFFICERS.

Upon petition of corporation or chamber of commerce county court to be constituted tribunal of commerce.

5. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, upon the 20 humble petition under the common seal of any city or borough, or upon the petition of two thirds of the members of any chamber of commerce established within any city or borough, and by and with the advice of the Lord Chancellor, to constitute the county court holden within such city or borough a tribunal of commerce, and 25 to confer upon the judge of such court all jurisdiction and authority necessary for discharging the duties of president of such tribunal according to the provisions herein-after contained, and also upon the treasurer, registrar, and high bailiff of such court all jurisdiction and authority necessary to discharge the duties of treasurer, regis- 30 trar, and high bailiff respectively of the tribunal so constituted.

Merchant judge to be appointed for such tribunals.

6. It shall be further lawful for Her Majesty by such Order in Council made as aforesaid to appoint such and so many persons as she may think fit, not being practising barristers or attorneys, and whose names shall be submitted by the Lord Chancellor, and 35 who then are or shall have been traders, and who then reside or carry on business within the district of such tribunal, to be merchant judges thereof, and to confer upon the persons so nominated and appointed jurisdiction and authority to discharge all the duties of merchant judges under the provisions of this Act. A.D. 1874.

7. Any Order in Council purporting to be made under the authority hereby conferred shall be valid, notwithstanding any defect in the petition before mentioned, or in the legal constitution of the body presenting the same. Orders in Council to be valid although petition defective.

8. The Lord Chancellor may, if he shall think fit, although no such petition as aforesaid shall have been presented, advise Her Majesty, and Her Majesty may thereupon by Order in Council constitute any county court a tribunal under the provisions of this Act. Tribunal may in certain cases be constituted without petition.

9. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to assign to each tribunal a district over which it shall have jurisdiction, and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council from time to time to alter the area of jurisdiction of any tribunal, or to alter the place of sitting of any tribunal, or to order a tribunal to hold sittings in two or more places within its district, or to suppress any tribunals, and to establish any other tribunal in lieu thereof, or to amalgamate the whole or any part of the area of jurisdiction of any tribunal with that of any other tribunal. Districts to be assigned to tribunals which may be altered or tribunals suppressed.

10. The president, treasurer, registrar, and high bailiff of any tribunal shall hold such offices only so long as they shall be respectively judge, treasurer, registrar, and high bailiff of the county court, which shall have been so as aforesaid constituted a tribunal, or so long only as the Order in Council constituting the tribunal shall direct. President and officers to hold office only so long as they shall respectively be judge and officers of county court.

11. Any merchant judge may at any time resign his appointment in writing, addressed to the president of the tribunal of the district of which he is one of the merchant judges, and any merchant judge who shall without reasonable excuse, allowed and recorded by the tribunal at one of its ordinary sittings, fail or neglect for the space of six months at one time to discharge the duties of his office, or who shall reside permanently out of the district for which he is appointed, or who shall after his appointment be adjudicated a bankrupt or file any petition for liquidation or enter into any arrangement under "The Bankrupt Act, 1869," shall thereupon cease to be a merchant judge, and an entry of the fact in the minute book of the tribunal shall be evidence that any merchant judge has ceased to hold office. Resignation and disqualification of merchant judge.

A.D. 1874. 12. When, and so often as, the merchant judges in any district shall, by death or disqualification, be so reduced in number that there are not sufficient for the prompt and convenient dispatch of business, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by order under his hand, to appoint such other and so many persons, being or 5 having been traders, residing or carrying on business within such district, and not being practising barristers or attorneys, to be merchant judges. And the appointment of such last-mentioned merchant judges shall be published in the London Gazette, and such publication shall, for all purposes, be sufficient evidence of the due 10 appointment of such merchant judges.

Tribunal to be court of record and have an official seal. 13. Every tribunal shall be a court of record, and shall have a seal describing such tribunal in manner prescribed, and judicial notice shall be taken of such seal, and of the signature of the president or registrar of any such tribunal in all legal proceedings 15 in any court or tribunal.

False evidence before tribunal perjury. 14. Any person who in any examination upon oath or solemn affirmation before any tribunal established by or under the provisions of this Act, or before any president, merchant judge, or registrar thereof, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, 20 shall be guilty of perjury.

PART III.

JURISDICTION.

Tribunal to have jurisdiction in certain commercial transactions. 15. Tribunals established by the Act shall have jurisdiction for the recovery of any debt above twenty pounds, and for the enforcement 25 of any claim or demand which shall arise out of any commercial transaction, or out of any contract or tort relating thereto, the money value of which shall be above twenty pounds; and for the purposes of this Act the following shall be considered commercial transactions; that is to say, 30

- (1.) The sale and delivery of any goods, wares, merchandise, plant, fixtures, machinery, implements, or tools bought by any trader in the way of his trade:
- (2.) The hiring of the same by any trader in the way of his trade: 35
- (3.) Any lien upon the same claimed by or against any trader:
- (4.) The carriage of the same by land or water, or the freight of the same, or the loss, detention, or damage thereof in transit by any carrier:

- (5.) The wrongful conversion or detention of the same by any trader : A.D. 1874.
- (6.) The making or manufacturing of the same, or the converting raw or partly manufactured materials into any goods, wares, or merchandise :
- 5 (7.) The making or manufacturing of any machinery, implements, or tools :
- (8.) The erection or construction, or the altering or repairing of any building, plant, or machinery used or to be used by a trader in the way of his trade :
- 10 (9.) All insurances of the stock in trade of any trader, or of buildings, plant, machinery, implements, or tools used by a trader for the purpose of his trade :
- (10.) All bills of exchange, promissory notes, and negotiable instruments, all checks and orders for the payment of money, and all transactions between bankers and traders :
- 15 (11.) All transactions relating to the getting and working of mines and minerals (except within the jurisdiction of the Court of the Warden or Vice Warden of the Stannaries, or in the Royal Forest of Dean) :
- 20 (12.) All claims for the attachment or garnishment, whether founded upon custom or statute law, of any debts, and for this purpose the provisions of "The Common Law " Procedure Act, 1854," shall extend to tribunals of commerce without an order by Her Majesty in Council :
- 25 (13.) Buying and selling stocks and shares :
- (14.) Contracts and dealings respecting the building, equipping, and repairing ships :
- (15.) Purchases and sales of ships and their furniture, rigging, tackle, stores and provisions :
- 30 (16.) Freight, chartering, and hiring of ships :
- (17.) Shipbroking :
- (18.) Claims and disputes arising between partners out of any of the trading transactions in this section before mentioned :
- 35 (19.) All transactions between principal and their brokers, factors, auctioneers, or agents.

16. Tribunals established by or under the provisions of this Act, and the presidents thereof, shall for the purposes of this Act, have all the jurisdiction of superior courts of law and equity, and the

A.D. 1874. following enactments shall be made with respect to jurisdiction under this Act :

to have special powers in certain cases.

- (1.) Equity or the rules and principles which govern the Court of Chancery in the administration of justice, shall, in tribunals, be blended and united with the common law of England, 5 and (so far as there is any difference) shall control and modify the same, and supply the defects thereof, to the intent that in such tribunals there shall be a unity of jurisdiction under which both equity and common law may be administered without difference or distinction; 10 and in case of any conflict of jurisdiction the jurisdiction which has hitherto been exercised by the Court of Chancery shall prevail :
- (2.) For the purposes of this Act, every right of suit or action, and every ground of or title to relief recognised by, or 15 capable of being enforced in, any court of law or equity, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the prescribed procedure be recognised and enforced by tribunals :
- (3.) Every ground of defence in any suit or action, or other civil proceeding which has hitherto been available in any court 20 of law or equity, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the prescribed procedure, be recognised and enforced by tribunals :
- (4.) In constructing any document relating to commercial transactions, tribunals shall give to the language of such 25 document the meaning which the same would have amongst traders :
- (5.) Tribunals may, in cases where such judgment can be conveniently executed, give judgment that any contract of which they have cognizance, or any part thereof, shall be 30 specifically performed, and may in the same judgment assess the damages for which execution shall issue in case that part of the judgment which relates to specific performance is not complied with :
- (6.) Tribunals shall receive in evidence original entries made in 35 the book of any trader, coming from proper custody : Provided such book appear upon the face thereof to have been regularly and duly kept in the way of trade : Provided also, that the original entries offered in evidence appear to have been made before the party offering the 40 same had notice of litigation, and that no part of such entries have been erased or obliterated.

PART. IV.

A.D. 1874.

PROCEDURE.

17. Any person desirous of obtaining the payment of any debt, or of enforcing any claim or demand against any trader, arising out of any commercial transaction within the meaning of this Act, or out of any contract relating thereto, or any tort arising therefrom, may apply to the registrar of the tribunal within the jurisdiction of which the person, or either of the persons, against whom he desires to proceed resides, or carries on business, or in which any of the material facts happened upon which his right of action is founded, to enter, and to cite such person to appear and answer, and submit to the judgment of the tribunal in respect of, such debt, claim or demand. And at the time of applying for such citation, full particulars of the debt to be recovered or the claim or demand to be enforced shall be delivered to the registrar in the form prescribed, together with as many copies thereof as there are persons to be cited; and upon the application for citation and delivery of particulars before mentioned, the registrar shall enter the action of record in the manner, and issue the citation in the form prescribed, and shall annex thereto a copy of the before-mentioned particulars, and seal the same. And the citation with the particulars annexed shall be served by the high bailiff within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, and all subsequent proceedings, orders, and judgments, in the action, shall be entered of record by the registrar in manner prescribed; and all orders and judgments of the tribunal shall be executed by the high bailiff in manner prescribed.

In what tribunal and how action to be commenced and carried on.

18. The plaintiff may, at the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, summon the defendant, or the defendant may in like manner summon the plaintiff, to appear before the registrar to show cause why the registrar should not make, and upon no sufficient cause being shown upon the return of such summons, the registrar shall, if he shall think fit, make an order for the doing of all or any of the acts following; that is to say,

The registrar may before the trial order certain acts to be done, accounts to be examined, and facts to be ascertained.

(1.) For the sale, use, retention, or acceptance of any property to which the action relates, or for taking and holding possession of the same by any person, either to abide the result of the action or until any event, or for any time to be mentioned in such order:

(2.) For the attendance as a witness at the trial of either or both of the parties, or of either or any of their clerks, agents, or servants, or of the production at the trial of any books, papers, or documents in their possession or control:

A 4

A.D. 1874.

- (3.) For submitting entries in the books and accounts of either party relating to the subject of the action to be examined before the trial by a public accountant to be named by the court :
- (4.) For ascertaining on behalf of the tribunal before the trial 5 any measurement, weight, form, strength, quality, condition, or other physical fact, which can from its nature be determined positively :
- (5.) For making on behalf of the tribunal any model, plan, photograph, or drawing to be produced at the trial : 10
- (6.) To make any of the before-mentioned orders upon such conditions and subject to such terms as the registrar shall think fit :

Provided that any of the orders before mentioned shall be made at such time and in such form, and served or executed in such 15 manner as shall be prescribed.

Notice of defence to be given.

19. When a defendant intends to defend any action, he shall, within the time prescribed, and in the prescribed form, give notice to the plaintiff and to the registrar of such intention ; and no defendant shall be allowed at the trial to enter upon any defence 20 unless notice of the same shall have been so given, except by leave of the president and upon such terms as the president shall think fit to impose.

Set-off may be had for any matter in defence for which action might be brought.

20. It shall be lawful for a defendant to avail himself, as a matter of defence, in the nature of a set-off, any debt, or demand 25 against the plaintiff, arising from, or out of any of the commercial transactions in this Act before mentioned whether the same be for a liquidated money demand or for damages.

Action may be removed to superior court by order of a judge thereof.

21. It shall be lawful for a defendant or for a plaintiff who shall have been served with a notice of defence to apply, at the prescribed 30 time and in the prescribed manner, to a judge of one of the superior courts of law, or to a judge of one of the superior courts of equity, to be appointed by the Lord Chancellor for that purpose, for an order to remove any action pending in any tribunal into a superior court of law or equity there to be tried and determined ; and 35 such judge of the superior court shall, if it appears to him that any important question of law will arise upon the trial of the action, and if he shall think fit, and upon such terms and conditions as he shall think fit, order the action to be removed to such superior court, and upon such order the case shall be in manner prescribed 40 removed.

22. Where the plaintiff claims by his particulars a debt or liquidated money demand, and the time for giving notice of defence or taking proceedings to remove the case to a superior court shall have expired, it shall be lawful for the registrar, upon application being made to him by the plaintiff in manner prescribed, to enter a judgment for the plaintiff.

A.D. 1874.

The plaintiff may have judgment by default.

23. The plaintiff and defendant may, at any stage of the case, agree upon terms of settlement of the matters to which the action relates, and may include in such agreement the terms of arrangement of any other matter in difference between them, and any agreement so made shall be signed and attested in manner prescribed, and shall be entered of record as a judgment of the tribunal and enforced in manner prescribed.

Parties to a suit may agree upon terms of judgment.

24. The president shall appoint such days and times for the sitting of the tribunal as shall be convenient for the dispatch of business, and the registrar shall procure in manner prescribed the attendance of two merchant judges at each of such sittings, and they together with the president shall form the tribunal for the trial of cases, and shall hear and determine all cases in which notice of defence has been given without further pleading or formal joinder of issue.

Sittings of tribunal for trial of actions.

25. The plaintiff and defendant shall appear before the tribunal on the return day of the citation either personally or by some clerk or servant in the permanent employment of such plaintiff or defendant, and duly authorised in writing by such plaintiff or defendant to act in all things on his behalf in all matters at, or relating to, the hearing, or by leave of the president a plaintiff or defendant may appear at the trial for a co-plaintiff or co-defendant.

Both parties shall appear at the trial in person or by authorised agent.

26. Counsel or attorney shall be heard on behalf of suitors in any proceedings, but this shall not dispense with the attendance at the trial of parties, either personally or by agent authorised in writing on that behalf, or by co-party, according to the provision herein-before contained.

Counsel to be heard.

27. All questions of fact and inferences of fact, and the construction of all commercial documents, shall be decided by a majority of the court; all questions of law and of practice or procedure shall be decided by the president alone.

Question of fact and law how determined.

28. If in the course of a trial it shall appear to the tribunal that complete justice cannot be done between the parties without trying and giving judgment upon other matters than those mentioned in

Tribunal may by consent deal with matters in

Continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain, and to repeal certain other Turnpike Acts; and for other purposes connected therewith. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited times some of the Acts herein-after specified, and to repeal others, and to make further provisions concerning turnpike roads:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Acts specified in the first schedule annexed hereto shall be repealed on and after the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Schedule 1.
2. The Acts specified in the second schedule annexed hereto shall be repealed on and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Schedule 2.
3. The Acts specified in the third schedule annexed hereto shall expire at the times in that behalf mentioned in "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873." Schedule 3.
4. The Acts specified in the fourth schedule annexed hereto shall continue in force until the dates specified in each instance, and no longer. Schedule 4.
5. The Acts specified in the first and second columns of the fifth schedule annexed hereto shall, to the extent specified in the third column thereof, as from the dates specified in the fourth column thereof, be subject to the modifications specified in the fifth column thereof, and shall, to the same extent, as so modified, continue in force until the dates specified in the sixth column thereof, and no longer. Schedule 5.

Where specified in the seventh column thereof the arrears of interest due on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight

[Bill 186.] A

A.D. 1874. hundred and seventy-three, and remaining unpaid at the time of the passing of this Act, in respect of the roads subject to the trusts comprised in so much of the Acts as is specified in the third column thereof, are hereby extinguished.

Schedule 6. 6. The Acts specified in the first and second columns of the sixth schedule annexed hereto shall, to the extent specified in the third column thereof, as from the dates specified in the fourth column thereof, be subject to the modifications specified in the fifth column thereof, and shall, to the same extent, as so modified, continue in force until the dates specified in the sixth column thereof, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides. 5 10

Schedule 7. 7. The Acts specified in the seventh schedule annexed hereto shall continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and no longer, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides. 15

Schedule 8. 8. The Acts relating to turnpike trusts in Scotland, specified in the eighth schedule annexed hereto, shall, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides, continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament. 20

Continuance of all other Turnpike Acts. 9. Such provisions, if any, of the said Acts mentioned in the said schedules as are not affected by the preceding sections, and all other Acts now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any turnpike road in Great Britain which will expire at or before the end of the next session of Parliament, shall continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides; but this section shall not affect any Act continued to a specified date and no longer. 25 30

Repair of roads by highway authorities in certain cases. 10. Where by any Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act it is or shall be provided that no money shall be expended in the repair of any turnpike road, such turnpike road shall be deemed to be a highway, and shall be repairable as such; provided that where such highway, or any portion thereof, shall pass through any highway district constituted under the Highway Acts, 1862 and 1864, the cost of maintaining such highway, or any such portion thereof, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within such district, and shall be charged accordingly on the district fund. 35 40

11. Where the Local Government Board in exercise of the A.D. 1874.
discretionary power conferred upon them by section fifteen of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873," make an ^{Apportion-}ment of order determining the value of the existing debt and liabilities of ^{bonded debt} 5 a turnpike trust, the Board may by the same order declare to whom ^{under} and in respect of what claim or claims the whole or any part of ^{36 & 37 Vict.}
such debt and liabilities is to be paid. ^{c. 90. s. 15.}

The term "existing debt and other liabilities" used in the said fifteenth section of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 10 1873," means the bonded or mortgage debt of a turnpike trust, and any unpaid interest due thereon.

12. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Annual ^{Short title.} Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1874."

TO

Make provision for more effectually securing the Ulster A.D. 1874.
 Tenant Right, and to amend the Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Act, 1870.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of the 33 & 34 Vict.
 reign of Her Majesty the now Queen, entitled "An Act to c. 46.
 " amend the Law relating to the occupation and ownership of Land
 " in Ireland," it was amongst other things enacted that the usages 5 prevalent in the province of Ulster which were known as and in that Act intended to be included under the denomination of the Ulster tenant right custom, were thereby declared to be legal, and should in the case of any holding in the province of Ulster, proved to be subject thereto, be enforced in manner provided by the said 10 Act; and by the said Act compensation was also provided in certain cases for tenants in any part of Ireland evicted from or quitting their holdings when not subject to such custom :

And whereas it is necessary, in order effectually to carry out the intention and object of the said Act, to make further provisions for 15 securing and enforcing the usages and customs declared legal by said Act, and also in relation to the compensation for tenants quitting their farms, and it is also expedient to remove and settle difficulties and doubts which have arisen in the administration of the said Act, and for these purposes to alter and amend the said 20 Act:

And whereas the rights of occupancy and sale of his interest secured to the tenant by the Ulster custom have proved by experience to be most beneficial in promoting the prosperity and contentment of the people of that province, and it is expedient, as far 25 as practicable, to make provision for the growth of similar rights and customs in other parts of Ireland :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and

[Bill 92.]

A.D. 1874. Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and — by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title of Act. 1. This Act may for all purposes and on all occasions be cited as the Land Act (Ireland), 1874.

Interpretation of terms. 2. The expression "the Land Act" when used in this Act shall mean the Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Act, 1870.

PROVISIONS FOR BETTER SECURING THE ULSTER CUSTOM OF TENANT RIGHT.

Provisions as to Ulster customs extended to all classes of holdings. 3. All the provisions of the Land Act which relate to the Ulster tenant right custom, and the usages known as and intended to be included under that denomination, shall apply to every holding in the province of Ulster which is proved to be subject to said custom or usages, although such holding may not be agricultural or pastoral in its character, or although same may be excepted from the holdings entitled to compensation under the said Act.

Right of sale not to be restricted by new rules. 4. When it is proved that any holding is subject to the Ulster tenant right custom, and that, under and by virtue of the custom, the tenant is entitled to sell his interest in his holding to an incoming tenant, no restriction upon the price to be obtained or paid for said interest shall be admitted in control or derogation of such right of sale, unless it shall be shown that such restriction has been in force either in relation to the particular holding, or to the estate of which it forms a part, for a period of at least forty years before the passing of the Act.

Sale may be public or private. 5. When the tenant is so entitled to sell his interest, he shall be at liberty to dispose of same either by public or private contract, as he may see fit.

Leases not to interfere with the Ulster custom as anciently observed. 6. It is hereby declared that no clause, matter, or thing contained in any lease, agreement, or any instrument of letting, with or without an actual demise, shall be deemed sufficient to prevent the Ulster custom taking effect in the case of any holding otherwise proved to be subject to same, unless and so far as it be proved that, according to such custom or usage, as same has been anciently observed, such clause, matter, or thing would have had that effect; and at the expiration of any lease, letting, or demise, the tenant shall have and enjoy all the benefits to which he is entitled under the Ulster custom as anciently observed.

7. When the tenant of any holding subject to the Ulster custom of tenant right shall be desirous of selling or assigning his interest to any person, and the landlord shall refuse to accept the proposed assignee, or shall, within one month after application
 5 made in writing to him or his agent, neglect so to do, it shall be lawful for the tenant thereupon to serve a notice of claim, in manner prescribed by the Land Act, claiming that said assignee shall be declared tenant of such holding in accordance with and under the Ulster custom of tenant right, and all the proceedings
 10 upon such claim shall be the same as on claims for compensation under the said Land Act; and if upon the hearing of such claim it shall appear to the court that according to the custom to which such holding is proved to be subject, the landlord was not justified, as such custom was anciently observed, in refusing 15 to accept the assignee as tenant, then and in that case the court shall make an order to that effect, and thereupon the assignment to such assignee by the occupying tenant of his interest in the farm shall vest in such assignee all his right and interest under the tenant right custom as fully and effectually as if the landlord had
 20 accepted him as tenant; provided always, that the court shall and may annex to the said order all such conditions as to the application of the purchase money, or otherwise, as shall appear to be in accordance with the Ulster custom, as anciently observed, in relation to such holding, and such order may be made with or without costs,
 25 as to the court may seem just; and if the claimant shall fail, on the hearing of his claim, to establish his right to have such assignee accepted as tenant, the court shall dismiss such claim, with or without costs, and every order or dismissal shall be subject to the same appeal in all respects as is provided in the Landlord and Tenant
 30 (Ireland) Act, 1870: Provided always, that the landlord shall not be compelled to accept any such assignee as tenant unless upon payment of all arrears of rent that may be due to him, together with any costs, to which the outgoing tenant may be liable, of any legal proceedings taken for the recovery of such rent, or of the lands by 35 ejectment for nonpayment of rent.

Court may

8. It is hereby declared that all claims made and all questions arising in relation to the Ulster custom of tenant right, either under the Land Act or this Act, shall be determined by a reference to such custom as same shall be proved to be applicable to the holding in 40 respect to which such claim is made; and every court disposing of such claims or question shall give to all parties interested in such claim or question all the rights to which they are entitled under the Ulster custom, as declared legal by the Land Act and by this Act.

Claims to be by the usage.

A.D. 1874.
 Custom to be enforced as it prevailed forty years before passing of Act unless later origin be shown.

9. Whenever in this Act any reference is made to the Ulster custom, as anciently observed, it shall mean the custom as it prevailed at a period of forty years before the passing of this Act: Provided always, that unless where it is otherwise herein expressly provided, the custom as prevailing at the time of the passing of the Land Act shall be deemed to be that anciently observed, unless the contrary be shown: And provided also, that if it be made appear that any holding first became subject to the Ulster custom within such period of forty years, the custom to which it so became subject, with any incidents then attached thereto, shall be deemed to be the custom applicable to same under the Land Act and this Act.

Special remedy not to interfere with others.

10. It is hereby declared that the provisions contained in the Land Act or in this Act for special enforcement of claims under the Ulster custom of tenant right shall not interfere with any remedy or redress which would, independent of such provisions, exist at law or equity for any person aggrieved by any violation or non-observance of said custom, as same is declared legal by the Land Act and by this Act; and such custom, as to all matters to which it is proved to be applicable, shall be recognised as legally binding in all courts, and in all actions and suits, and for all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Proof of custom generally in the district proof that custom applies to holding.

11. Whenever it shall be proved that the Ulster custom of tenant right generally prevailed in any district at the time of the passing of the Land Act, or at any time within twenty years previously, this shall be sufficient to prove that any holding within such district is subject to such custom, unless the contrary be shown.

PART II.

PROVISIONS FOR BETTER SECURING THE COMPENSATIONS PROVIDED BY THE LAND ACT.

Continuous occupation shall be deemed to be continuity of title.

12. Whenever any tenant of a holding shall claim compensation under the fourth section of the Land Act in respect of improvements executed on same by himself or his predecessor in title, in tracing his title to such improvements the provisions of the Land Act shall be construed in accordance with the following rules:

Whenever in tracing such title it shall be shown that any tenant surrendered, impliedly or in fact, any interest in all or any part of the lands of which such holding consists, in order that a new lease or letting of such land might be made to himself or any other person, and such lease or letting has been so made, the tenant so surrendering shall be deemed to be the predecessor in title of the tenant to whom such lease or letting shall have been made :

5 The claim of the tenant for compensation in respect of any improvements shall not be defeated merely by showing that after the execution of such improvements he himself, or any of his predecessors in title, shall have entered into a new agreement
10 for the letting of the lands upon which such improvements were executed, or shall have accepted a new lease of such lands, either in whole or in part, or with other and additional lands, or otherwise altered the tenure of same, but every such tenant shall be entitled to compensation in respect of all
15 improvements on the holding which he is quitting, although the tenure may have been changed, and although such holding may be only a portion of the lands held by himself or his predecessors in title, or may include other or different lands, provided he can show that the land on which the improvements
20 were executed has been in point of fact in the continuous occupation of himself, or of persons through whom he derives title from the person executing such improvements; and he shall be entitled to such compensation in the same manner and to the same extent, but not further or otherwise, as if there
25 had been no change or alteration in the tenure of such lands, and he had, at the time of quitting his holding, held the same under the same title as the person who executed said improvements; and for the purpose of this enactment the continuous occupation of the lands shall not be deemed to be broken so
30 long as the possession continues undisturbed, notwithstanding any implied or actual surrender in law or in fact of any existing interest, or the creation of any new tenure or tenancy in the lands, or that possession was impliedly or actually given up and immediately re-taken by the previous possessor or some person deriving through him; but nothing herein contained shall 35 prevent the landlord from availing himself of any clause or provision in any instrument of letting, by which the right to compensation in respect to improvements previously executed shall have been expressly surrendered or barred, or from 40 showing that such new tenure was a benefit received from the landlord in consideration of such improvements within the meaning of the fourth section of the Land Act.

A.D. 1874.

Surrender of right to compensation not to be implied.

13. If any tenant in the occupation of any land shall, at any time since the passing of the Land Act, have entered into or shall hereafter enter into any new contract for the letting of his lands, no surrender of his right to compensation in respect of past improvements shall be implied from any such letting or contract, or any agreement, covenant, clause, matter, or condition contained therein or attached thereto, and such tenant shall not be deemed to have given up his right thereafter to claim such compensation unless by clear words expressly surrendering the same; and in any contract or instrument of letting less than a lease for thirty-one years, such surrender, even if made under seal, shall not be deemed to be valid or binding unless it shall appear to be made for valuable consideration other than the mere new letting of such lands: Provided always, that any substantial and bonâ fide reduction of rent fairly compensating for the value of such improvements shall be deemed to be a valuable consideration within the meaning hereof.

33 & 34 Vict.
c. 70. s. 12.
repealed.

14. From and after the passing of this Act, the twelfth section of the Land Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Under-tenants entitled to compensation for disturbance.

15. Whenever any tenancy shall have been created before the passing of the Land Act by any person himself holding as tenant, but having the power to subdemise, the tenants in occupation of such lands, on being evicted by any superior landlord, shall be entitled to compensation under the third section of the Land Act.

Tenants evicted by title paramount entitled to compensation in respect of improvements.

16. It is hereby declared that in all cases of eviction by title paramount, the persons occupying the lands from which they are so evicted shall be entitled to recover compensation for improvements in the manner provided for tenants entitled to compensation under the fourth section of the Land Act.

Tenant not debarred from compensation for violating rules of estate.

17. No tenant shall be disentitled to obtain compensation under the third section of the Land Act, on the ground that he is evicted by the landlord on account of the persistent exercise of any right from which he is debarred by express or implied agreement with his landlord; and so much of the fourteenth section of the Land Act as so enacts shall be and the same is hereby repealed; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the chairman in awarding compensation, from taking such conduct of the tenant, and the nature of all the circumstances of such agreement into account, in the manner provided by the eighteenth section of the Land Act.

A.D. 1874.

PROVISIONS FOR EXTENDING THE BENEFITS OF THE ULSTER
CUSTOM TO OTHER PARTS OF IRELAND.

18. Whenever after the passing of this Act any tenant of any 5 holding whose tenancy is of such a character as to entitle him to claim compensation under any of the provisions of the Land Act, shall be disturbed in his holding by the act of the landlord, he may,
in lieu and stead of the notice of claim directed by the said Act, serve a notice of claim in the form in the schedule to this Act con-10 tained, or as near thereto as circumstances may admit, and shall and may, in lieu and stead of any compensation to which he would be entitled under the said provisions, claim compensation generally for the loss of the goodwill and occupation of his holding.
19. Except when it is otherwise expressly provided, such notice 15 of claim shall in all respects be dealt with as if it were a notice of claim for compensation under the provisions of the Land Act, and the procedure on such claim, unless and until it is otherwise provided, shall be the same as that which is now in force in relation to such claims, whether as regards service of notice, amendment, 20 hearing, decree, appeal, reference to arbitration, enforcement of decree, or any other matter or thing whatsoever, and the power conferred on the judges of the Court for Land Cases Reserved by the thirty-first section of the Land Act shall extend and apply to the claims authorised by this Act; and if the said judges see fit, they 25 may make any new rules specially applicable to such claims, and may, if they shall so think fit, prescribe a form of notice of claim other and different from that contained in the schedule in this Act.
20. The compensation to be awarded upon the hearing of any 30 such claim shall be calculated and ascertained in manner following, and not otherwise, that is to say, the chairman shall ascertain the rent which a solvent and responsible tenant could fairly and reasonably afford to pay for such holding, if let to him as a yearly tenant, and he shall deduct therefrom any sum which shall appear to be 35 the result of improvements in respect of which the tenant would have been entitled to compensation if he had made a claim for same, and shall also make an allowance for any sum to which the tenant would be entitled in respect of payments made on incoming under the seventh section of the Land Act, and the rent, after such deduc-40 tion, shall be deemed to be as between the landlord and tenant the fair letting value of the holding.

Tenant when disturbed may claim generally compensation for loss of goodwill.

Procedure to be the same as on claims under the Land Act.

s. 7.

A.D. 1874.
Price to be put upon holding if let at fair letting value.

21. The chairman shall then proceed to ascertain the price that could reasonably be obtained for the interest of the tenant as a yearly tenant in such holding if same were let to him at such fair letting value, with a stipulation that the landlord might at any time thereafter increase the rent to an amount which might then appear 5 to be the fair letting value of the holding, excluding all improvements effected by the tenant, and with a further stipulation that if the tenant were otherwise disturbed in his tenancy he should receive compensation for his interest in the goodwill and occupation of the holding, and the price that could be reasonably obtained for such 10 interest shall be deemed to be the compensation payable to the tenant, and the chairman shall award the same accordingly.

Landlord
deductions.

22. Provided always, that the chairman shall ascertain and deduct from such award such sums, if any, as would be deemed due by the tenant to the landlord under the third, fourth, or 15 seventh sections of the Land Act, or any set off in respect of any liquidated or unliquidated damages under such sections, or any of them.

Landlord
may offer tenant to sell.

23. At the hearing of any claim under this Act the landlord may, if he shall so think fit, offer to allow to the tenant the benefit 20 of tenant right as herein-after mentioned, and such offer shall be a sufficient answer to the claim of the tenant for compensation under this Act.

With benefit of tenant
right.

24. Such offer shall be either to continue the tenant as yearly tenant at a rent equal to the fair letting value of the holding, 25 ascertained as between the landlord and the tenant in manner herein-before mentioned, or to permit the tenant to sell, either by public or private sale, his interest in the holding to an assignee, and subject to the provisions herein-after contained, to accept such assignee as a yearly tenant at the like rent. 30

Proceedings
on offer.

25. If either of such offers shall be made by the landlord the chairman shall proceed as follows; that is to say,

He shall fix and ascertain in manner herein-before mentioned the fair letting value of the holding;

He shall also proceed to ascertain and award the amount of any 35 sums that may be due to the landlord for rent and for costs, as herein-before mentioned;

If the tenant or any purchaser whom the landlord is willing to accept, as the case may be, shall then pay to the landlord all such sums as are so found due to him, the chairman shall then make 40 an order declaring the tenant, or such purchaser, tenant of the holding under this Act;

If this shall not be carried into effect during the sittings of the then land sessions the chairman shall adjourn the final decision of the claim to the next ensuing land session, and shall fix a time as may appear to him reasonable within which the tenant himself, or the purchaser of his interest, as the case may be, shall pay or tender to the landlord or his agent the sum so found due to him, and the landlord shall not be bound to accept either the tenant or his assignee as tenant on such new letting unless and until such sum is so paid or tendered, and in default of such payment or tender being made, the tenant shall be deemed to have failed in complying with the requisitions of this Act. A.D. 1874.

26. If the tenant shall within the limited time offer to the landlord a purchaser whom the landlord objects to receive as his tenant, the chairman shall at the next ensuing land session for the division decide and determine whether such objection on the part of the landlord is reasonable or not, and if he shall judge the objection to be reasonable, the landlord shall not be bound to accept such purchaser, and the tenant shall be deemed to have failed in complying with the requisitions of this Act. Landlord may object to purchaser.

27. If the tenant shall have complied with the requisitions of this Act, the chairman shall at the adjourned hearing of the claim declare the tenant or the purchaser, as the case may be, the tenant of the holding under this Act; or if from any unreasonable conduct of the landlord it shall appear just so to do, he shall award to the tenant compensation as herein-before provided; but if the tenant shall have failed in complying with the requisitions of this Act, the chairman shall award to the tenant such compensation as he would have been entitled to if he had claimed under the fourth or seventh sections of the Land Act, deducting therefrom all costs which the landlord reasonably incurred by reason of the claim under this Act, and reasonable compensation for any loss which he sustained by reason of same. Proceedings on final hearing.

28. Every such offer made by any landlord shall be entered on the records of the court; it shall be in the form of an undertaking in court, and shall also be deemed to be a contract entered into with the tenant in respect of which the tenant, and any person purchasing from him, shall be entitled to all the remedies that exist in the case of ordinary contracts, and upon such offer being made the chairman shall have power to make and shall make an order staying the execution of any decree or judgment in ejectment obtained or to be obtained against the tenant for such time and on such terms as, Effect of offer.

A.D. 1874. — having regard to all the circumstances, he shall think reasonable, and no such decree or judgment shall be executed within the time limited by such stay.

Tenant to have benefit of tenant right.

29. Any tenant holding under such offer, or by title derived from the person accepted as tenant under such offer, shall be deemed to be entitled to the benefit of tenant right under this Act, that is to say, he shall be entitled to sell his interest in the said lands to the best and highest bidder, subject to the provisions herein-after contained, and in case of eviction by the landlord he shall be entitled to recover compensation from the landlord, to be ascertained and calculated in manner herein-before mentioned, according to the fair value of the lands. 5 10

Enforcement of right of sale.

30. The tenant entitled to such benefit who shall be desirous of selling his interest shall have all the same rights and remedies as are herein-before provided in case of a tenant under the Ulster custom for compelling his landlord to accept his assignee as tenant: Provided always, that the landlord shall not in any proceeding be compelled or held bound to accept any assignee as tenant to whom a reasonable objection may be made, nor unless and until all arrears of rent together with any costs then due to the landlord shall be paid. 15 20

All ejectments and notices to quit to be disturbances under this Act.

31. For the purposes of a claim under this Act every ejectment, whether brought for nonpayment of rent, or otherwise, and every notice to quit, for whatever cause same shall be served, shall be deemed to be a disturbance of the tenant in his holding entitling him to claim compensation under this Act. 25

Claim not to be barred by contract.

32. The claim of the tenant to compensation under this Act shall not be barred or defeated by any contract or agreement at any time made or entered into, and every contract or agreement by which any tenant shall purport to give up his right to claim such compensation shall be absolutely null and void. 30

PART IV.

GENERAL AMENDMENTS OF THE LAND ACT.

Chairman may call in referees.

33. The chairman in determining the fair letting value of the lands, or any other question arising under this Act or the Land Act, may, if he shall so think fit, call to his assistance two referees, to be appointed subject to his approval, one by the landlord and one by the tenant; and in case either party shall refuse to appoint 35 such referee, the chairman shall appoint a person to act as referee on behalf of the person so refusing ; but the opinion of such referees, or either of them, shall not be binding on the chairman, unless so far as he should think fit to adopt the same. A.D.1874.

- 5 34. Upon the hearing of any claim under the Land Act or this Act, it shall be lawful for the chairman, if he shall so think fit, to refer any disputed fact or amount of compensation to a jury, in the same manner and with the same effect as to their verdict as he may do upon the trial of ordinary civil bill cases, and the like power may 10 be exercised by the judge upon the hearing of any appeal.

Chairman or judge may empanel jury.

- 35. When any landlord and tenant agree under the thirty-second section of the Land Act for the sale of the holding to the tenant, they may, if they think fit, agree that such sale shall be carried out by the grant of a perpetuity to the tenant, subject to a fee farm 15 rent, and for all the purposes of the Land Act the grant of a perpetuity, subject to such a rent, shall be deemed and taken to be a sale of the holding to the tenant, within the meaning of the provisions of that Act, and an agreement for such grant shall be deemed and taken to be an agreement for a sale.

Landlord
and tenant may agree for fee farm grant of holding.

- 20 36. Whereas by the fifty-eighth section of the Land Act it is enacted that a notice to quit shall not, in the case of a tenant from year to year, take effect until after the expiration of a period of not less than six calendar months from the date of the service of the notice, such period of six calendar months, in the absence of 25 agreement to the contrary, to terminate on the last day of the current year, and doubts have arisen as to the meaning of such enactment, it is hereby declared and enacted, that in all cases of yearly tenancy, unless there be a special agreement as to the time and mode of determining such tenancy, the tenancy shall only be
30 determinable by a notice to quit, expiring on the last gale day of any year, and served six calendar months previously ; and every notice to quit so served, and requiring the tenant to give up possession on such gale day, shall be sufficient to determine the tenancy, irrespective of the period of the year at which such 35 tenancy commenced, and such tenancy shall be determined on the day named in such notice in the same manner as if the tenancy had originally commenced upon a day of the year corresponding to such day.

Yearly

A.D. 1874.

And whereas in and by a certain other Act passed in a session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the uniformity of public prayers, and administration of sacraments and other rites and ceremonies, and for establishing the form of making, ordaining, and consecrating bishops, priests, and deacons, in the Church of England," it is enacted in reference to the Book of Common Prayer now in use, as follows; that is to say, "That the several good laws and statutes of this realm which have been formerly made, and are now in force for the uniformity of prayer and administration of the sacraments within this realm of England and places aforesaid, shall stand in full force and strength to all intents and purposes whatsoever, for the establishing and confirming of the said book intituled the Book of Common Prayer and administration of the sacraments and other rites and ceremonies of the church according to the use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in churches, and the form or manner of making, ordaining, and consecrating of bishops, priests, and deacons herein-before mentioned, to be joined and annexed to this Act, and shall be applied, practised, and put in use for the punishing of all offences contrary to the said laws with relation to the book aforesaid, and no other:"

Now therefore be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Punishment of imprisonment repealed, but forfeitures and deprivation to follow offences.

1. In case of any prosecution instituted under the herein-before recited provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, against any person who is beneficed or has any spiritual promotion, the punishment of imprisonment shall not in any case be inflicted after the passing of this Act, and the penalties and punishments shall be as follows and not otherwise:

(1.) On a first offence there shall be the like forfeiture of the profit of his spiritual benefices or promotions as in the said Act of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth herein-before recited is enacted in that behalf:

(2.) On a second offence (instead of deprivation as in the said last-mentioned Act enacted), there shall be the forfeiture to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, of the profit of all his spiritual benefices or promotions coming or arising in three whole years next after his conviction:

(3.) On a third offence there shall be such deprivation ipso facto A.D. 1874.
as in the said last-mentioned Act is enacted in relation to a second offence.

2. As to so much of the herein-before recited provisions of the said Repeal of 5 Acts of King Edward the Sixth and Queen Elizabeth as relates to provisions as prosecutions against persons not beneficed nor having any spiritual to persons promotion, the same is hereby repealed, but such persons shall be not bene-and remain liable to all other proceedings, punishments, penalties, ficed.
or censures of whatever nature to which they are now liable.

TO

Amend the Law respecting the Liability and Valuation of A.D. 1874.
certain Property for the purpose of Rates.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

5 1. This Act may be cited as "The Rating Act, 1874."

Short title.

2. This Act shall not apply to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

3. Whereas by the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two, intituled "An Act for the Relief of " the Poor," it is provided that a poor rate shall be raised in every 10 parish by taxation of, amongst other persons, every occupier of certain hereditaments in such parish ; and it is expedient to extend the said Act, and the Acts amending the same (which Act and Acts are in this Act referred to as the Poor Rate Acts), to hereditaments other than those mentioned in the said Act : Be it therefore

Abolition of certain exemptions from rating.

From and after the commencement of this Act the Poor Rate Acts shall extend to the following hereditaments in like manner as if they were mentioned in the recited Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth ; that is to say,

20 (1.) To land used for a plantation or a wood or for the growth of saleable underwood, or for both such purposes ;

 (2.) To rights of fowling, of shooting, of taking or killing game or rabbits, and of fishing, when severed from the occupation of the land ; and 25 (3.) To mines of every kind not mentioned in the recited Act.

4. The gross and rateable value of any land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, or for both such purposes, shall be estimated as follows :—

Valuation of land used as plantation, &c.

A.D. 1874.

- (a.) If the land is used only for a plantation or a wood, the value shall be estimated as if the land instead of being a plantation or wood were let and occupied in its natural and unimproved state :
- (b.) If the land is used only for the growth of saleable underwood, 5 the value shall be estimated as if the land were let for that purpose :
- (c.) If the land is used both for a plantation or wood and for the growth of saleable underwood, the value shall be estimated either as if the land were used only for a plan- 10 tation or wood, or as if the land were used only for the growth of the saleable underwood growing thereon, as the assessment committee may determine.

Deduction
of rate by tenant of
&c.

5. Where the rateable value of any land used for a plantation or wood, or both for a plantation or wood and for the growth 15 of saleable underwood, is increased by reason of the same being estimated in accordance with this Act, the occupier of that land under any lease or agreement made before the commencement of this Act, whereby the timber is reserved to the landlord, may, during the continuance of the lease or agreement, deduct from his rent 20 any poor or other local rate, or any portion thereof, which is paid by him in respect of such increase of rateable value, and every assessment committee, on the application of such occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase. 25

Valuation and rating of rights of
&c.

6. (1.) Where any right of fowling or of shooting or of taking or killing game or rabbits (herein-after referred to as a right of sporting) is severed from the occupation of the land and is not let, and the owner of such right receives rent for the land, the said right shall not be separately valued 30 or rated, but the gross and rateable value of the land shall be estimated as if the occupier of the land were entitled to exercise the said right; and in such case if the rateable value is increased by reason of its being so estimated, the occupier of the land may (subject to any contract to the 35 contrary) deduct from his rent such portion of any poor or other local rate as is paid by him in respect of such increase; and every assessment committee, on the application of the occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase. 40

(2.) Where any right of sporting or fishing, when severed from the occupation of the land, is let, either the owner or the lessee thereof, according as the persons making the rate determine, may be rated as the occupier thereof. A.D. 1874.

(3.) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section the owner of any right of shooting or of fishing, when severed from the occupation of the land, may be rated as the occupier thereof.

10 (4.) For the purposes of this section, the person who, if the right of sporting or of fishing is not let, is entitled to exercise the right, or who, if the right is let, is entitled to receive the rent for the same, shall be deemed to be the owner of the right.

15 7. Where a tin or copper mine is occupied under a lease or leases granted without fine on a reservation wholly or partly of dues or rent, the gross value of the mine shall be taken to be the annual amount of the whole of the dues payable in respect thereof during the year ending on the sixth day of April preceding 20 the date at which the valuation list is made, in addition to the annual amount of any fixed rent reserved for the same which may not be paid or satisfied by such dues.

Gross and rateable value of tin and copper mines.

The rateable annual value of such mine shall be the same as the gross value thereof, except that where the person receiving 25 the dues or rent is liable for repairs, insurance, or other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command the annual amount of dues or rent, the average annual cost of the repairs, insurance, and other expenses for which he is so liable shall be deducted from the gross value for the purpose of calculating the 80 rateable value.

In the following cases, namely,—

1. Where any such mine is occupied under a lease granted wholly or partly on a fine; and
2. Where any such mine is occupied and worked by the owner; 35 and
3. In the case of any other such mine which is not excepted from the provisions of this Act and to which the foregoing provisions of this section do not apply :

the gross and rateable annual value of the mine shall be taken to 40 be the annual amount of the dues or dues and rent at which the mine might be reasonably expected to let without fine on a lease of the ordinary duration, according to the usage of the country,

A.D. 1874. if the tenant undertook to pay all tenants rates and taxes and tithe rentcharge, and also the repairs, insurance, and other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command such annual amount of dues or dues and rent.

The purser, secretary, and chief managing agent for the time being of any tin or copper mine, or any of them, may, if the overseers or other rating authority think fit, be rated as the occupier thereof.

In this section—

The term “mine,” when a mine is occupied under a lease, includes the underground workings and the engines, machi- 10 nery, workshops, tramways, and other plant, buildings (not being dwelling-houses), and works and surface of land occupied in connexion with and for the purposes of the mine, and situate within the boundaries of the land comprised in the lease or leases under which the dues or dues and rent 15 are payable or reserved :

The term “dues” means dues, royalty, or toll, either in money or partly in money and partly in kind; and the amount of dues which are reserved in kind means the value of such dues : 20

The term “lease” means lease or sett, or license to work, or agreement for a lease or sett, or license to work :

The term “fine” means fine, premium, or foregift, or other payment or consideration in the nature thereof.

Deduction
of rate by tenant of mine.

8. Where any poor or other local rate which at the com- 25 mencement of this Act any lessee, licensee, or grantee of a mine is exempt from being rated to in respect of such mine, becomes payable by him in respect of such mine during the continuance of his lease, grant, or license, or before the arrival of the period at which the amount of the rent, royalty, or dues is liable to revision 30 or re-adjustment, he may (unless he has specifically contracted to pay such rate in the event of the abolition of the said exemption) deduct from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him one half of any such rate paid by him :

Provided that he shall not deduct any sum exceeding what one 35 half of the rate in the pound of such poor or other local rate would amount to if calculated upon the rent, royalty, or dues so payable by him.

General provision as to deduction
of rates.

9. Where any occupier, lessee, licensee, grantee, or other person is authorised by this Act to deduct any rate or sum in 40 respect of a rate from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him, then—

(1.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted shall be a good discharge for such amount of rent, royalty, or dues as is equal to the amount of such payment, and shall be allowed accordingly. A.D. 1874.

5 (2.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted may be recovered as an ordinary debt from the person to whom the rent, royalty, or dues, may be payable.

(3.) The person receiving the rent, royalty, or dues shall have the same right of appeal and objection with reference to the rate and to the valuation of the hereditament in respect of which the rate is payable as he would have if he were the occupier of such hereditament.

10 10. After the commencement of this Act, the hereditaments to which the Poor Rate Acts are extended by this Act, and which are thus made rateable to the relief of the poor, shall be rateable to all local rates in like manner as if the Poor Rate Acts had always extended to such hereditaments. Liability of property to local rates as well as poor rates.

20 11. This Act, for the purpose of enabling any hereditament to be included in or omitted from or valued for the purposes of a valuation list or a supplemental or provisional valuation list which will come into force after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, shall come into operation on the passing thereof; but save as aforesaid, or as is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, shall come into operation on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and the expression "commencement of this Act" shall in this Act be construed accordingly. Commencement of Act.

30 12. The provisions of the sanitary Acts, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1872, with respect to any special assessment of wood lands for the purpose of any rate under those Acts shall be deemed to extend to and include land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, or for both such purposes. Saving.

35 13. Nothing in this Act shall apply to a mine of which the royalty or dues are for the time being wholly reserved in kind, or to the owner or occupier thereof. Saving as to mine where dues payable in kind.

40 14. So much of the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two, intituled "An Act for the relief of the poor," as relates to the taxation of an occupier of saleable underwoods is hereby repealed as from the date at which the provisions of this Act with respect to the taxation of occupiers of land used for the growth of saleable underwood come into operation. Repeal of 43 Eliz. c. 2.
underwood.

A.D 1874. — Provided that this repeal shall not affect anything duly done or suffered before the said date, or any right acquired or liability accrued before the said date, or any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right or liability, and every such legal proceeding or remedy may be carried on and enforced in like manner 5 as if this repeal had not been enacted.

Definitions.
25 & 26 Vict.
c. 103. s. 15.

15. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The term “gross value,” has the same meaning as gross estimated rental in the Union Assessment Committee Act, 1862: 10

The term “local rate” means any county rate, borough rate, highway rate, and other local rate leviable upon property rateable to the relief of the poor :

The term “valuation list” means, as regards any parish or place for which there is no valuation list, the poor rate: 15

The term “assessment committee” means, in relation to any parish or place where there is no assessment committee, the persons having power to make and assess the poor rate in such parish or place.

Remove doubts as to the validity of Votes given at a Parliamentary Election to a candidate alleged to have been guilty of corrupt practices, and thereby disqualified from sitting in Parliament. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to whether votes given at a parliamentary election to a person alleged to be incapable of being elected to Parliament on the ground of having been guilty of bribery, treating, undue influence, or other corrupt practice should, in case such person be elected at such election to sit in Parliament and be afterwards unseated for having been guilty of corrupt practices, be deemed to be thrown away so as to entitle a person having received a lesser number of actual votes at such election to claim and obtain the seat as having been elected by a majority of good and legal votes, and it is expedient to remove such doubts :

Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. No vote given to a candidate at a parliamentary election shall be deemed to be thrown away on the ground that the candidate was incapable of being elected to or sitting in Parliament in consequence of having been guilty of bribery, treating, undue influence, or other corrupt practice, unless previous to such election such candidate shall have been declared guilty of bribery, treating, undue influence, or other corrupt practice by an Election Judge or other court having competent jurisdiction in that behalf.

No vote to be invalidated on the ground of a candidate being guilty of corrupt practices, unless judicially so declared previous to election.

2. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Parliamentary Votes Act, 1874."

TO

Transfer the Fiscal Powers of the Grand Jury of the city of Waterford to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said city. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS by the Act 3 and 4 Victoria, cap. 108., intituled “An Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in Ireland,” the borough of Waterford is governed by the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses thereof (herein referred to as the corporation) acting by their counsel :

And whereas it is expedient that the powers now vested in the grand jury of the city of Waterford should be exercised by the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Waterford in lieu of the said grand jury, and that the said grand jury should be abolished :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows ; (that is to say,)

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Waterford Grand Jury Transfer Act, 1874.” Short title.

2. In this Act the following words and expressions shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say) the word “corporation” shall mean the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of Waterford, and shall also include the council as authorised to act and acting in execution of this Act ; the word “council” shall mean the council of the borough of Waterford ; the word “mayor” shall mean the mayor of Waterford for the time being ; the words “treasurer” and “town clerk” shall respectively mean the treasurer and town clerk for the time being of the borough ; the words “city of Waterford,” “city,” “borough of Waterford,” and “borough” shall extend to and mean the

A.D. 1874. — borough and municipal district of Waterford as defined by the Act 3 and 4 Victoria, cap. 108., as amended by the Act 6 and 7 Victoria, cap. 93.

Council to carry Act into execution.

3. The corporation, acting by their council for the time being, shall, and there are hereby created the grand jury for the city of Waterford, and authorised and required to carry this Act into execution.

Fiscal powers of the grand jury to cease, and be transferred to the corporation.

4. From and after the passing of this Act all the powers, rights, and duties of the grand jury of the county of the city of Waterford in relation to the appointment of presentment sessions, and the presenting and levying of rates and cesses for any purpose, shall cease and determine within the said borough from the time aforesaid, and all the powers theretofore exercised by or vested in the said grand jury with respect to the presenting and levying of rates or cesses for local purposes within the borough of Waterford shall be transferred to and be solely exercised by the council of the borough, and all things by any Act theretofore authorised or required to be done by the said grand jury of the county of the city of Waterford with respect to the said fiscal matters, rates, or cesses, shall, save as by this Act altered, be done by the said council.

Provision for payment of amount of warrants issued to collectors of grand jury cess.

5. Each collector of grand jury cess to whom any warrant shall have been issued by the treasurer of the county of the city of Waterford at or after the assizes next before the commencement of this Act, shall pay the amount mentioned in such warrant to the said treasurer six clear days before the first Monday in the month of February, or the first Monday in the month of July next after the commencement of this Act, as the case may be, and all such sums as shall be claimed in respect of any presentments fiated by the judge at the said assizes shall be discharged in the usual manner on or before the said first Monday in the said month and year; and all moneys which shall on the said day remain in the hands of the said treasurer unpaid shall thereupon vest and the same are hereby vested in the corporation, and shall be paid by the treasurer of the county of the city of Waterford to the treasurer of the borough, and the said treasurer of the county of the city shall on the said day deliver to the treasurer of the borough a true and particular account of such presentments as shall then remain unpaid, and the same shall be discharged out of the said moneys, and the surplus of the moneys remaining after discharge of such presentments shall be carried to the credit of the corporation as such grand jury: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall in anywise invalidate any bond or other security which shall have been entered into or given by any collector and his sureties to the treasurer of the county of the city for the due collection of any grand jury cess, but the same shall be enforceable and enforced by the said last-mentioned treasurer to all intents and purposes as if

5 this Act had not passed, and as if such bond or other security was conditioned for such collector duly collecting and paying to such treasurer on or before the day herein appointed for such purpose such grand jury cess; provided also, that the warrant which shall have been so issued to such collector shall remain in full force for 10 one year from the last-mentioned day, and no longer.

6. The corporation shall, at the times and in the manner herein-after mentioned, proceed to raise and levy off the borough, by means of the rate for general purposes herein-after specially provided, such sums of money as shall be required in order to make provision for

15 all such purposes as, but for the passing of this Act, the said grand jury, with or without previous application to presentment sessions, would be bound and empowered to make or might lawfully have made provision for out of the rates or cesses which they were empowered to raise or levy within the said borough: Provided

20 always, that in no case shall the said rate for general purposes be applicable to the making, enlarging, repairing, or paving any street, road, or passage within the borough.

A.D. 1874.

Council to provide a rate for all purposes heretofore provided for by the grand jury.

7. The council shall affix a time twice in every year to receive applications for all things now authorised to be done by the grand

25 jury of the county of the city of Waterford with respect to fiscal matters, rates, or cesses within the borough, and such applications shall be made in like form as the same are now authorised to be made in cases of application for presentments, and immediately after the time so fixed for receiving such applications, the council

30 shall proceed to investigate such applications, and shall decide upon the same at an open meeting of the council or of a committee thereof authorised on that behalf.

Mode of proceeding.

8. A schedule of such applications as may be agreed to shall be made out by the town clerk, who shall lodge the same twelve clear

35 days at the least before the first day appointed for holding the ensuing spring or summer assizes in each year in and for the county of the city of Waterford with the clerk of the Crown for the county of the city of Waterford, and upon the first and every other day of the said assizes, if necessary, twelve members of the council

40 of the borough, to be chosen at the meeting of the council to be holden as aforesaid for hearing such applications, shall attend before one of the judges of assize, and the said judge, after hearing all

Schedule of applications to be lodged with clerk of Crown and the clerk of the peace.

A.D. 1874 parties affected by or interested in such presentments, shall make such orders therein, and shall allow or disallow the same, or any of them, or any portions thereof, as to him shall seem fit, and shall fiat the same, or any portions thereof, according as the same shall be allowed by him : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any 5 ratepayer to traverse any presentment made by the said council, or to object to the same being fiated, and such traverser or objection shall be heard and determined by the said judge on a day to be fixed for considering and fiating the same, and it shall be lawful for the said judge to make orders from time to time to regulate the 10 reception of the said traverses, and the mode of procedure thereupon, and to order juries to be empannelled for the trial thereof as he is now in such cases authorised ; provided also, that in case such twelve members of the said council shall not attend the said judge, it shall be lawful for him to proceed to hear and determine 15 such matters as shall be brought before him in like manner as if such twelve members were then present, and the said judge shall have power to inflict on each member for non-attendance a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Rejected applications may be made before judge and granted by him.

9. In case any application shall not be sanctioned by the council, 20 the party making such application shall be at liberty (on giving six clear days notice to the town clerk of his intention so to do) to bring the same before the said judge at the time of fiating the said presentments, and if it shall appear to the said judge that such application ought to have been allowed wholly or in part, the same, 25 so far as to the said judge shall seem fit and right, shall be added to the schedules sent in by the town clerk.

Provision for payment of poundage to collectors of grand jury cess and of arrears, &c.

10. The council shall, at their first meeting to be holden for the purpose of hearing applications as aforesaid, on the application of any collector of grand jury cess interested therein, verified by the 30 production of a certificate of the treasurer of the county of the city of Waterford that the amount of the warrant issued to such collector has been paid pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and likewise of an affidavit, to be sworn by the said collector before a justice, that the money included in such warrant has been fairly 35 and impartially levied, and that no more than the sum authorised by the warrant, with the customary collector's fees, has been collected to the best of such collector's knowledge and belief, include in the said schedule such sum as will defray the poundage to which such collector shall be entitled in respect of the moneys collected 40 by him since the then last preceding assizes, and which, but for the passing of this Act, the grand jury would be bound to present, and the council shall likewise at such meeting insert in such schedule, A.D. 1874.

on the application of any such collector interested therein, the amount or sum of money which shall be then unpaid or in arrear on foot of any warrant issued by the treasurer at or after the said
 5 assizes : Provided, that it shall be made to appear to the council by the affidavit of such collector that such amount or sum is actually in arrear and unpaid, and that it could not have been levied from the persons or out of the property theretofore charged with or liable to pay the same.

10 11. When all objections or traverses have been disposed of, and the new presentments (if any) have been added, the said schedule shall be signed by the clerk of the Crown, and shall by him be transmitted to the town clerk, who shall lay the same before the council, and thereupon the council shall and they are hereby 15 required to raise the amount of the several sums mentioned in the said schedule by a rate to be called "the rate for general purposes."

Schedules as finally settled to be transmitted by the clerk of the Crown to the town clerk.

12. All arrears of rates and property in the borough now vested in the grand jury, or any of its officers, or in the treasurer of the county of the city of Waterford, by virtue of his or their office or 20 officers, shall immediately after this Act shall have come into operation vest in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses.

Property of grand jury to vest in corporation.

13. All contracts, bonds, and other securities heretofore made or entered into by or with the grand jury, or the treasurer of the county of the city of Waterford, shall be enforceable and enforced
 25 by or against the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, after this Act shall come into operation, as if the same had been originally made or entered into by or with the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses.

Contracts made by or with the grand jury to be good.

14. From and after the commencement of this Act the treasurer of the borough shall, subject to the provisions of any Act in force

TO

Amend the Law relating to Wild Animals in Scotland.

A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS under the protection of various statutes the numbers of certain species of wild animals have in many places increased to an extent presenting unnecessary temptation to breaches of the law, discouraging the cultivation of land, and otherwise 5 hurtful to the public welfare :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the Wild Animals (Scotland) Act, Short title.
1874.

2. This Act shall not extend to England or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

3. In this Act—

15 "Tenant" means any person in the occupation of lands under any lease or agreement of lease written or verbal : Definitions.

"Wild animals" means wild quadrupeds and wild birds :

"Game" means grouse, ptarmigan, black game, pheasant, partridge, quail, golden crested plover, curlew, woodcock, snipe, 20 heron, wild duck, teal duck, widgeon.

4. The Acts and parts of Acts specified in the schedule to this Act, so far as they relate to Scotland, are hereby repealed. Abolition of Game Laws.

5. Every tenant shall have right to pursue, take, or kill, and to authorise others to pursue, take, or kill, any wild animals on the 25 lands occupied by him; and every contract in restraint of this right, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, shall be held and construed to apply to game only. Tenants to have right to kill wild animals, and contracts in restraint to apply to game only.

A 2

A.D. 1874. — Provided that this Act shall not apply to any contract made before the passing hereof until after the first of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, nor affect the right heretofore enjoyed by landlords of entering and killing wild animals on the lands occupied by their tenants, and of authorising other persons to enter and kill wild animals on such lands. 5

Penalty for trespassing in search of wild animals.

6. Any person committing trespass by entering or being on any land with any gun, fire-arms, net, snare, or the like instrument, or any dog or ferret, in search or pursuit of any wild animals, without being duly authorized, shall, for the first offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding ten shillings, including costs, together with a sum equal to the value, as determined by the sheriff or justices convicting, of any wild animals taken or killed by or found upon such trespasser, and for a second or subsequent offence shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds, including costs, together with a sum equal to the value, ascertained as aforesaid, of any wild animals taken or killed by or found upon such trespasser, and in default of payment such trespasser may be imprisoned for any period not exceeding thirty days. 10 15

Trespassers to give their names and addresses or be apprehended.

7. When any person is found trespassing as aforesaid, the landlord or tenant of such land, or any one authorized by either of them, may require the person so found forthwith to quit the land, and also to tell his Christian name, surname, and place of abode; and if such person wilfully continues or returns upon such land, or refuses to tell his real name or place of abode, or gives such a general description of his place of abode as shall be illusory for the purpose of discovery, the person so requiring, or any one by his order or in his aid, may apprehend such person and convey him or cause him to be conveyed as soon as conveniently may be before any one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace, and such person shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten shillings, including costs; but no person so apprehended shall be detained upon any pretence whatever for a longer period than twelve hours from the time of his apprehension until he is brought before a justice of the peace. 20 25 30

Penalty.

Assaults by trespassers.

8. Any person committing a trespass under this Act who assaults any person acting in the execution of the powers given by this Act for the apprehension of trespassers, and who has not been tried for such assault independently of this statute, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds, or may be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three months. 35 40

Jurisdiction in certain cases to jus-

9. When the penalty or forfeiture for any offences imposed by this Act does not exceed ten shillings, including any sum for the value of any wild animals taken or killed, such offence may be inquired into and determined by the sheriff or by any one or more of Her Majesty's justices of the peace for the county where the offence is committed or where the offender is found; but in all 5 other cases under this Act, the sheriff of the county where any offence is committed or where the offender is found shall inquire into and determine such offence.

 tices of the peace, and in certain cases
 to sheriff.

All proceedings under this Act for the recovery of any penalties or forfeitures shall be conducted according to the provisions of the 10 Summary Procedure Act, 1864, except in so far as these provisions differ from the provisions of this Act, and the prosecution may be at the instance of the procurator fiscal of court, or at the instance of the landlord or tenant of the lands on which such trespass has been committed.

15 10. No proceedings shall be commenced against any person who has committed any offence against this Act after three months from the time when such offence was committed.

Limitation o proceedings to three months.

11. All penalties or forfeitures imposed by any justice of the peace or sheriff under the provisions of this Act, after deducting 20 the reasonable costs of recovery as certified by the sheriff or justice convicting, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county where the offender is tried.

TO

Facilitate the erection of Dwellings for Working Men on land belonging to Municipal Corporations. A.D. 1874.

WHEREAS it is expedient to encourage the erection of dwelling-houses suitable for persons employed in manual labour, and to afford increased facilities for the acquisition of sites for such dwelling-houses, and to provide means for the cheap and speedy transfer of such sites and dwelling-houses :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

10 1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Artisans Dwellings Sites and Transfer Act, 1874." Title of Act.

2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

15 3. In the construction of this Act the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless such meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the context or subject matter in which such words or expressions occur :

Definition.

20 1. "Borough" shall mean any place for the time being subject to the Act passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six :

2. "Council" shall mean council of the borough :

25 3. "Site" shall mean any parcel of land laid out and marked out as the site for a dwelling-house on any land which shall be appropriated for artisans or labourers dwellings under this Act, together with any dwelling-house or other buildings or erections which may for the time being be upon such parcel of land :

[Bill 22.]

A 2

A.D. 1874.

4. "Register book" shall mean the register book of artisans dwellings sites kept in any borough in pursuance of this Act :
 5. "Owner" shall mean any person for the time being entered in the register book of any borough as the owner of any site :
 6. "Home Secretary" shall mean one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Land vested in corporations of boroughs may be laid out in sites for dwelling-houses.

4. On and after the first September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four it shall be lawful for the council of any borough to direct that any land vested in the corporation of such borough shall be laid out in sites for dwelling-houses suitable for the occupation of persons employed in manual labour, and the council may cause plans of such land to be prepared, showing the sites as laid out.

Public meeting of burgesses.

5. If the plans be approved by the council the mayor shall convene a public meeting of the burgesses of the borough, and twenty-one days notice at least of the time, place, and object of the meeting shall be given by affixing a notice on or near the door of every church and chapel within the borough, and also by advertising the same in one or more newspapers published or circulated within the borough fourteen days at least before the day appointed for the meeting.

Time for such meeting.

6. The day appointed for the holding of such public meeting shall be not less than one month from the date of the meeting of the council at which any plans in pursuance of this Act shall be approved. Copies of the plans shall be deposited for a period of not less than fourteen days before the public meeting at the office of the town clerk and at such other place or places, if any, as the council shall appoint, and shall at all reasonable hours during such period of fourteen days be open free of charge to the inspection of any burgess desiring to inspect the same.

President of meeting.

7. At the public meeting convened as aforesaid, the mayor, or in his absence the senior alderman present, or if no alderman be present such other person as the meeting shall elect, shall preside, and the meeting may by a majority of the burgesses present, approve or disapprove the plans aforesaid.

Minutes of resolutions.

8. The mayor, or in his absence the person presiding at such meeting, shall cause a minute to be made of the resolutions of the meeting, and shall sign the same, and transmit the minute to the town clerk, and the town clerk shall thereupon enter a memorandum of such meeting having been held and of the resolutions thereof in the minute book of the council. Such minute so signed as aforesaid, or such memorandum as aforesaid in the minute book of the council, shall be conclusive evidence that the meeting was duly convened and the vote thereof duly taken, and that the proceedings of the meeting were as stated in the minute, or in the memorandum entered in the minute book as aforesaid. A.D. 1874.

5 9. The plans, if approved by such public meeting as aforesaid, shall be transmitted by the town clerk to the Home Secretary, who may in his discretion approve or disapprove the same, and shall by writing under his hand certify such approval or disapproval to the council of the borough. Plans to be sent to Home Secretary.

10 10. The Home Secretary may, if he shall think fit, suggest any alteration in the plans, and if the council of the borough shall, at a meeting to be called for that purpose, adopt such alterations, the Home Secretary may approve such plans so altered. Alterations in plans.

15 11. Upon receipt of a certificate of approval from the Home Secretary, the council shall with all convenient speed cause to be entered in a book to be provided for the purpose a short description, including the area thereof, of each separate parcel of land delineated in the plan of sites. Each separate parcel of land shall be distinguished by a number, and shall form a site for one dwelling-house Register book.
20 and no more. The book provided under this section shall be called the "Register book of artisans dwellings sites," and therein shall be entered from time to time the particulars hereafter required to be registered in respect of the land laid out and sold in pursuance of this Act.

25 12. The council may cause to be made on such land such roads, drains, walls, fences, or other works of any nature as they shall think fit for the proper or better drainage or fencing or otherwise for the improvement of the property as building land. Works for improvement of land.

30 13. It shall be lawful for the council from time to time to modify and alter the plan of sites originally approved as aforesaid, and to vary the size and arrangement of the sites, but no such modified or altered plan shall be adopted by the council, and no such varied or altered sites shall be sold as herein mentioned, until such modified or altered plans, or varied or altered sites, have been Further alterations in plan.
35 approved by the Home Secretary.

40 14. The council shall, at such time after the approval of the Home Secretary as they shall think fit, cause the land to be offered for sale in separate parcels, and such sale may be by public auction or by private contract, and at one time or from time to time, and at such time or times as the council shall from time to time determine, and on such terms and conditions as to price and payment, and as

A.D. 1874. to the class of house to be erected thereon and otherwise, and subject to such conditions of sale, and subject to such reserve prices on a sale by auction, as the council shall from time to time determine. But no sale shall be made under this section otherwise than by public auction unless the terms of the proposed sale shall have been approved by a meeting of the council and confirmed by a subsequent meeting held at an interval of not less than twenty-eight days from such first meeting.

Reservations may be made on sale. 15. The sale of a site may be made subject to such reservations as to minerals or timber, or as to rights of way or water, and to such other rights, reservations, conditions, and provisions whatsoever, as the council may from time to time determine.

Conveyance of land. 16. Upon the purchase of any site and upon the payment of the purchase money to such person as the council shall from time to time authorise to receive such money, the council shall cause to be executed under the corporate seal and shall deliver to the purchaser a conveyance in the form marked A. in the schedule hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances permit.

Approbation of Treasury not necessary. 17. It shall not be necessary for the council to apply for or obtain the approbation of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to any sale or conveyance of a site under this Act.

Purchaser of site. 18. The conveyance under the corporate seal as aforesaid shall vest in the purchaser the legal estate in the site thereby conveyed, and from and after such conveyance the legal estate in such site shall from time to time vest and be in the person for the time being entered in the register book as the owner or lessee of such site according to the respective estate and interest of such owner or lessee appearing in the register book.

Dwelling-houses to be erected by purchaser within three years. 19. The purchaser of any site, or his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, within three years from the date of the conveyance from the corporation, build and complete ready for habitation, to the satisfaction of some person to be for that purpose appointed by the council, a dwelling-house according to plans approved by the council for a house to be erected on the purchased site.

Extension of time for erection. 20. If such house shall not be completed ready for habitation to the satisfaction of the person appointed as aforesaid within the said period of three years, the council may from time to time by resolution extend the time for the completion of such house or for satisfying the requirements of the person appointed as aforesaid, for such renewable periods as the council shall think fit, and a note of such extension of time shall be entered on the register book.

21. If such house shall not be completed to such satisfaction as aforesaid, and no extension of time be allowed by the council, or if the house shall not be completed to such satisfaction as aforesaid, within the extended time allowed by the council, the council may 5 at any time after the expiration of the said period of three years, or after the expiration of the extended time allowed by the council, the site in respect of which default shall have been made as aforesaid may be forfeited by resolution of the council; and upon the passing of any resolution of the council declaring any site to be 10 forfeited, such site shall vest in the corporation of the borough and may be sold to a purchaser in pursuance of this Act or otherwise dealt with as the council shall from time to time direct.

A.D. 1874.

Forfeiture of site.

22. Upon the completion of a dwelling-house in compliance with the plans to the satisfaction of the person appointed as aforesaid, 15 such appointed person shall grant to the registered owner of the site a certificate in the form marked B. in the schedule hereto.
The certificate shall be produced to and deposited with the town clerk, who shall endorse on the conveyance from the corporation a memorandum under his hand of such certificate having been pro-20 duced and deposited as aforesaid, with the date of such certificate and such production and deposit, and shall enter in the register book a note of such certificate and the date thereof.

Certificate to registered owner of site.

23. If such certificate as aforesaid shall be produced and deposited as aforesaid before any resolution shall have been passed by the 25 council declaring the site to be forfeited, it shall not be lawful for the council to declare such site forfeited, notwithstanding that the time hereby limited for completion of the dwelling-house, or any extended period of time, shall have expired before the date of such certificate.

No forfeiture after production of certificate.

30 24. The person appointed by the council to inspect and certify as to the sufficiency of a dwelling-house as aforesaid shall be entitled to fees in respect of his surveys and certificate on a scale to be from time to time fixed by the council.

Fees.

25. Any site when sold or disposed of by the registered owner 35 shall be transferred by a conveyance in the form contained in the schedule hereto and marked C. The conveyance shall describe the site by the number appropriated to it in the register; it shall be executed by the person registered as owner at the time of such transfer, and by the transferee, and shall be attested by two 40 witnesses.

Form of conveyance.

the party to whom such site has been transmitted; and such declaration shall be made and subscribed in the presence of and shall be attested by some justice of the peace. A.D. 1874.

32. If such transmission has taken place by virtue of bankruptcy of any registered owner, the declaration aforesaid shall be accompanied by such evidence as may for the time being be receivable in courts of justice as proof of the title of parties claiming under any bankruptcy; and if such transmission has taken place by virtue of any testamentary instrument, or by intestacy, then the said declaration shall be accompanied by the probate of the will, or the letters of administration, or an official extract therefrom. Proof as to bankruptcy.

33. The town clerk, upon the receipt of such declaration so accompanied as aforesaid, shall enter on the register the name of the person or persons entitled under such transmission as owner or owners of the site in respect of which such transmission has taken place. Entry in register of transmission.

34. Upon the marriage of any female owner of any site, the marriage shall be authenticated by a declaration of such female owner, or of her husband, to be made and subscribed in the presence of and attested by some justice of the peace; and such declaration shall be produced to the town clerk, accompanied by a copy of the register of such marriage, or other legal evidence of the celebration thereof, and shall declare the identity of such female owner. Marriage of female owner.

35. Any married woman who shall be owner of any site may sell and dispose of such site, and execute a conveyance thereof, and give a receipt for the purchase money, in all respects as if she were a feme sole. Married woman may sell and dispose of site.

36. It shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery, or for any of the superior courts at Westminster, or for any judge thereof, or for the judge of any county court having jurisdiction within any borough or place wherein any site shall be situated, in respect of which any application may be made as herein-after mentioned, without prejudice to any other power such court or judge may possess, upon the application of any interested person, made either ex parte or upon service of such notice as such court or judge shall direct, to issue an order prohibiting for a time to be named in such order any dealing with any site, and it shall be in the discretion of the court or judge to make or refuse any such order, and to annex thereunto such terms and conditions as the court or judge shall think fit, and to discharge such order, with or without costs, Courts may prohibit dealing with sites.

No notice of trust to be entered in register. 37. No notice of any trust, express, implied, or constructive, shall be entered in the register book or receivable by the town clerk; and the registered owner of any site shall have power absolutely to dispose in manner herein-before mentioned of such site, and to give effectual receipts for any money paid or advanced by way of consideration. 5 10

Sites not to be subdivided, but several persons may become joint owners. 38. No site shall be subdivided, but any number of persons may be registered as joint owners of a site. Such persons shall be deemed to be joint tenants, and not tenants in common, and no conveyance or mortgage shall affect any site of which two or more persons are registered as joint owners, unless such conveyance or mortgage shall be executed by all the joint owners who shall be competent to execute such conveyance or mortgage and by such other person or persons as the Court of Chancery, or any of the superior courts of common law, or a judge thereof, or any county court judge having jurisdiction in the borough or place where such site shall be registered, shall appoint to execute such conveyance or mortgage in place of any infant or lunatic joint owner, or any other joint owner under legal disability. Such appointment may be made by such court or judge on the application of any joint owner of or other person interested in such site, and upon such terms as to notice or otherwise as such court or judge shall think fit. 15 20 25

Site to pass as personal property. 39. No site shall vest by descent in the heir of any owner, but shall pass to the executor or other personal representative of the deceased owner, and be dealt with as other personal property of such deceased owner; and no person shall be entitled to be entered on the register book in place of any deceased owner except such executor or other personal representative. 30

Notice of death or marriage to be given. 40. Notice of the death of any joint owner or of the marriage of any female joint owner of any site shall be given to the town clerk and entered in the register book, and such notice of death or marriage shall be authenticated by a declaration of one of the surviving joint owners or of some other person, to be made and subscribed before and attested by some justice of the peace, and such declaration shall be accompanied by such evidence as by this Act is required in case of transmission of any site by the death of a sole owner or in case of the marriage of any female sole owner. 35 40

41. If the name of any person shall be without sufficient cause entered in or omitted from the register book, or if unnecessary delay shall take place in entering in the register book the name of any person, or any memorandum or entry required to be entered
 5 or made in pursuance of this Act, any person aggrieved by such entry, omission, or delay may apply to any of Her Majesty's superior courts of law or equity, or to a judge thereof, or to the judge of the county court having jurisdiction in the borough or place where the site in respect of which the application is made shall be situated,
 10 for an order that the register book shall be rectified by such entry or alteration as may be necessary; and the court or judge may, without prejudice to any other power such court or judge may possess, upon the application of any such aggrieved person as aforesaid, made either ex parte or upon service of such notice as such court
 15 or judge shall direct, make such order for the rectification of the register or otherwise, and as to the costs of and occasioned by such application, and may annex such terms and conditions to any such order as such court or judge shall think fit, and every town clerk, without being made a party to the proceedings, upon being

Line 10, leave out from ("cited") to the end of the clause and insert ("as "The Working Men's Dwellings Act, 1874" ")

Leave out clauses 3. to 46. and insert clauses (B.) and (C.)

In this Act—

"Corporation" means a municipal corporation for the time being subject to the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth (chapter seventy-six) "to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations "in England and Wales" (in this Act called the Municipal Corporations Act) acting by the council of the borough:

"Working-men's dwellings" means buildings suitable for the habitation of persons employed in manual labour and their families, but so that the use of part of a building for purposes of retail trade or other purposes, approved by a corporation, shall not prevent the building from being deemed a dwelling:

"The Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or two of them.

Where a corporation determine that any land belonging to them shall be converted into sites for working men's dwellings, and on a representation to the Treasury of the circumstances of the case, under section ninety-four of the Municipal Corporations Act, obtain the approval of the Treasury to the corporation making for that purpose grants or leases for terms of nine hundred and ninety-nine years, or any shorter term, of parts of that land, then the following provisions shall have effect and apply :

- (1.) The corporation may make on the land any roads, drains, walls, fences, or other works requisite for converting the same into building land, at an expense not exceeding such sum as the Treasury approve :
- (2.) The corporation may insert in any grant or lease of any part of the land (in this Act referred to as the site) provisions binding the grantee or lessee to build thereon as in the grant or lease prescribed, and to maintain and repair the building, and prohibiting the division of the site or building, and any addition to or alteration of the character of the building, without the consent of the corporation, and for the re-vesting of the site in the corporation, or their re-entry thereon, on breach of any provision in the grant or lease :
- (3.) Every provision as aforesaid shall be valid in law to all intents, and binding on the parties :
- (4.) A grant or lease by the corporation of the site, and any subsequent conveyance or assignment thereof, in the respective form set forth in the schedule to this Act, or to the like effect, with such variations and additions as circumstances require, shall be good and effectual in law to all intents ; and terms used in those forms shall have the same meaning as in this Act.

TO

Amend the Law relating to Compensation for Injuries suffered A.D. 1874.
by Persons in the course of their Employment.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to compensation for injuries suffered by persons in the course of their employment:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and 5 with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Where any action or proceeding is brought for recovery of damages or of compensation in respect of bodily injury or 10 loss of life, alleged to have been occasioned, after the passing of this Act, to any person by negligence, such action or proceedings shall be taken before the judge of the county court of the district in which such injury or loss of life has been sustained, whose jurisdiction is hereby extended to the objects and purposes
15 of this Act; and it shall not be any ground of defence that the person by whose negligence the injury or loss of life is alleged to have been occasioned was employed in a common employment with the person injured or killed, or that the risk of injury or loss of life was knowingly or voluntarily incurred by the person injured 20 or killed in the course of his employment.

Amendment
of law as to compensation for injuries in course of employment.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to render any person liable to pay damage or compensation in respect of injury to, or the loss of life of any person where it is made to appear that the person injured or killed materially contributed by his own 25 negligence to the causing of the injury or loss of life.

Proviso.

"Common employment" means any such community of employment, service, or occupation as but for this Act would be matter of defence in any such action or proceeding as aforesaid.

Provided always, that no action shall be sustainable unless the same is commenced within three months from the date of the occurrence of the accident causing the injury or loss of life; and

Provided always, that the court of jurisdiction as aforesaid shall not have power to award a greater sum by way of compensation 5 for such injury or loss of life than shall be equivalent to one year's wages or salary proved to have been receivable by the party injured or killed for the year preceding the date of the injury or death.

2. Where injuries not resulting in death are caused to a minor 10 by reason of the negligence of any other person, and damages are recovered for such negligence, it shall be lawful for the court before whom the damages are recovered to direct that the amount of such damages shall be paid to and held by such person as the court with his consent directs, in trust for the minor; and such 15 amount shall be applied for the education or advancement of the minor, or otherwise for his benefit, as the court or a judge of any superior court of law or of equity may from time to time direct.

3. It shall be lawful for any employer who may be liable to 20 pay compensation under the provisions of this Act to agree with any servant who may have been injured, or with the representatives of any servant who may have been killed, as to the amount of such compensation, and the receipt of such servant or his or her legal representative shall be final and binding. 25

4. In assessing the amount of compensation in case of injury, the court of jurisdiction shall take into account any allowance that the party injured may be entitled to and be receiving from any provident society or sick fund of which he or she may be a member. 30

5. This Act shall not extend to nor include employers of labour where the number of persons employed does not exceed fifty.
